A l'honorable GEORGE E. FOSTER,
Ministre des Finances.

MONSIEUR,—En conformité des dispositions de l'Acte 53 Victoria, chapitre 31, article 88, j'ai l'honneur de vous présenter les premiers relevés, reçus des différentes banques autorisées, des dividendes restés impayés pendant plus de cinq ans, ainsi que des montants et soldes restés en l'état ou sur lesquels il n'a pas été payé d'intérêt pendant les cinq ans qui ont précédé le 31 décembre 1891.

On remarquera beaucoup de différence dans la façon dont les banques ont fourni leurs relevés respectifs, mais il était naturel de s'attendre, à la première tentative d'exécution de la loi, qu'on rencontrerait différentes interprétations de celle-ci. Avant la présentation du prochain relevé, je me propose de prendre des mesures pour assurer l'uniformité, et il est probable que la publicité de ce rapport officiel et le désir que montrent les banques de régler ces vieux comptes, auront pour effet d'amener le paiement de la plupart des montants dus, et de diminuer par là même de beaucoup pour l'avenir le volume des relevés.

BUREAU DU SURINTENDANT DES ASSURANCES,
OTTAWA, 9 juillet 1892.

A l'honorable
GEORGE E. FOSTER,
Ministre des finances.

COMPAGNIES D'ASSURANCES CONTRE L'INCENDIE ET SUR LA NAVIGATION INTÉRIEURE.

Durant l'année 1891, les opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie ont été faites dans le Canada par 38 compagnies, dont 7 canadiennes, 23 britanniques et 8 américaines. Cinq compagnies (3 canadiennes, 1 britannique et 1 américaine) ont aussi fait des opérations d'assurances contre les risques de la navigation intérieure, et deux (canadiennes) des opérations d'assurances maritimes. La liste des compagnies diffère de celle de l'année dernière en ce qu'il faut y ajouter une compagnie américaine. Une compagnie britannique (la British and Foreign Marine) a fait exclusivement des opérations d'assurances contre les risques de la navigation intérieure.

Les autres additions et changements suivants, qui ont eu lieu depuis le commencement de l'année 1892, peuvent être signalés, savoir : des permis de faire des opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie ont été accordés à l'Alliance, à l'United Fire, à la Sun Fire Office et à la Mercantile, cette dernière étant une compagnie possédant une charte provinciale ayant son siège social à Waterloo, Ontario. L'Alliance, le Sun et la United Fire sont des compagnies britanniques ; le siège social des deux premières étant à Londres, Angleterre, et celui de la dernière à Manchester.

La United Fire possédait un permis pour la transaction d'opérations de réassurances contre l'incendie jusqu'à l'époque où on lui accorda un permis plus général pour toutes sortes d'opérations contre l'incendie, et depuis l'émission de ce permis cette compagnie a réassuré les risques canadiens de la compagnie City of London, Les opérations de la Royale Canadienne ont été réassurées par l'Alliance, et les risques contre l'incendie de la Compagnie des Citoyens ont été réassurées par la Guardian et la Phœnix de Hartford.

PRIMES ET PERTES AU CANADA EN 1891.

Les primes reçues en argent au Canada durant l'année se sont élevées à $6,168.716, soit $332,645 de plus qu'en 1890 ; et le chiffre des pertes payées a été de $3,905,697, soit $639,130. La proportion des pertes payées relativement aux primes reçues est indiquée dans le tableau suivant :—

En répartissant les totaux entre ces mêmes 23 années, divisées par nationalités, nous avons les résultats suivants pour la même période :—

ASSURANCES contre l'incendie au Canada, durant les 23 ans—1869–1891.

——	Primes reçues.	Pertes payées.	Rapport centésimal entre les pertes et les primes.

Si nous avions retranché de ces tableaux l'année du désastreux incendie de Saint-Jean (1877), la proportion moyenne des pertes aurait été de 62·66.

Obtenant une évaluation approximative des pertes subies pendant l'année en retranchant les pertes impayées au commencement de l'année, et en ajoutant les montants prévus pour les réclamations non encore réglées de l'année, la proportion des pertes subies relativement aux primes reçues se chiffre par 63·95 pour 100, soit 5·70 pour 100 de plus que les 58·25 de l'année dernière, et seulement 2·66 pour 100 de plus que la moyenne des quatorze dernières années (61·29). Voici un tableau des pertes subies depuis 1878 :—

ASSURANCES CONTRE L'INCENDIE AU CANADA, 1891.

Le chiffre brut des polices nouvelles et renouvelées, acceptées durant l'année par les compagnies d'assurances contre l'incendie, a été de $623,418,422, soit une augmentation de $2,694,477 sur le résultat de l'année 1890. Les primes afférentes à ces risques ont été, en 1891, de $7,248,495.44, soit une augmentation de $229,176.80 sur le chiffre de l'année précédente. La proportion des primes est un peu plns élevée qu'en 1890, mais celle des pertes (63·31) est plus élevée (7·34), n'étant que de 0·65 pour 100 de plus que la proportion moyenne (62·66) des 23 dernières années si l'on en retranche l'année 1877.

Le taux pour cent des primes par rapport aux risques entrepris se trouve indiqué dans le tableau suivant :—

Primes et pertes comparées aux risques.

Le taux des primes a été de $11·627 pour chaque $1,000 de risques entrepris en 1891, contre $11.308, qui était le chiffre correspondant de 1890. Les taux individuels des différentes compagnies se trouvent dans un tableau annexé, et l'on verra qu'ils varient beaucoup, comme on doit naturellement s'y attendre, vu la différence dans le volume des opérations des différentes compagnies.

Les pertes (approximatives) subies durant l'année, comparées au chiffre des risques en cours (en prenant pour cela la moyenne du chiffre des risques en vigueur au commenment et à la fin de l'année), ont été de $5.33 pour chaque $1,000 de risques courants. En 1882-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-90 ce chiffre était de $5.68, $5.56, $5.37, $4.54, $5.48, $5.70, $4.70, $4.19 et $4.84 respectivement.

La proportion des pertes pour les différentes compagnies, calculée sur la base qui précède, est toutefois répartie très inégalement entre elles ; pour faciliter la comparaison, on a mis entre parenthèses, en regard de chaque compagnie, les proportions de 1890 :—

London Mutual, $1.75 ($2.35) ; Agricultural de Watertown, $2.92 ($2.02) ; London Assurance, $2.98 ($3.49) ; Connecticut Fire, $3.68 ($3.98) ; Imperial, $3.87 ($4.24) ; London and Lancashire Fire, $4.11 ($5.64) ; Liverpool and London and Globe, $4.25 ($2.66) ; Norwich Union, $4.44 ($4.77) ; Queen of Liverpool, $4.49 ($4.53) ; Queen of America, $4.68 (. . . .) ; Royal, $4.73 ($3.74) ; Fire Insurance Association, $4.74 ($4.43) ; Northern, $5.03 ($6.56) ; Phœnix, de Brooklyn, $5.07 ($2.95) ; Citizens', $5.24 ($5.38) ; Phœnix, de Londres, $5.37 ($4.86) ; Scottish Union and National, $5.42 ($3.45) ; Western, $5.44 ($4.38) ; Commercial Union, $5.52 ($5.16) ; North British, $5.56 ($4.67) ; City of London, $5.92 ($6.84) ; Caledonian, $6.45 ($5.45) ; Lancashire, $6.53 ($4.98) ; British America, $6.61 ($5.41) ; Hartford, $7.08 ($8.90) ; Insurance Company of North America, $7.17 ($9.11) ; Guardian, $7.24 ($6.99) ; Royal Canadian, $7.39 ($6.01) ; Ætna Fire, $7.47 ($8.76) ; United Fire, $7.59 (. . . .) ; Atlas, $7.61 ($8.32) ; National of Ireland, $7.92 ($7.43) ; Quebec, $8.15 ($6.86) ; Eastern, $8.20 ($10.68) ; Employers' Liability, $8.42 ($9.11) ; Manchester Fire, $9.57 ($7.70) ; Phœnix, de Hartford, $10.47 ($7.32) ; Union Society, $11.07 ($30.27).

Le tableau ci-joint indique le chiffre brut des opérations des différentes compagnies durant l'année, les primes exigées pour les risques, et la proportion des sommes payées en indemnités relativement à celles reçues en primes durant l'année. Pour faciliter la comparaison nous avons ajouté les chiffres de 1880. On remarquera que les primes inscrites dans la seconde colonne sont celles exigées sur le chiffre brut des risques entrepris par chaque compagnie durant l'année.

COMPAGNIES BRITANNIQUES D'ASSURANCES CONTRE L'INCENDIE.

Le total des primes reçues a été $4,189,171, soit une augmentation de $117,038, sur l'année précédente ; et le total des pertes soldées a été de $2,553,162, soit une augmentation de $323,606 sur 1890 ; tandis que les dépenses générales ont été de $1,165,990, soit $36,399 de plus qu'en 1890, laissant une différence de $470,014 en faveur des compagnies. L'année précédente la différence était de $712,981.

Payé pour pertes	$2,229,550
do dépenses générales	1,165,995
Total	$3,719,157
Reçu pour primes	$3,719,157

L'état suivant indique les soldes des différentes compagnies :—

Soldes en faveur des compagnies :—City of London, $28,869 ; Commercial Union, $61,037 ; Employers' Liability, $7,047 ; Fire Insurance Association, $4,180 ; Imperial, $55,860 ; Lancashire, $8,583 ; Liverpool and London and Globe, $38,745 ; London and Lancashire, $55,170 ; London Assurance, $24,906 ; Manchester, $17,128 ; Northern, $28,405 ; Norwich Union, $3,387 ; Phœnix, de Londres, $27,384 ; Queen, de Liverpool, $44,421 ; Royal, $31,125 ; Scottish Union and National, $18,361 ; Union Society, $17,669 ; United Fire, $51,774.—Total, $524,051.

Soldes contre les compagnies :—Atlas, $6,304 ; Caledonian, $9,555 ; Guardian, $20,473 ; National of Ireland, $10,162 ; North British, $7,543.—Total, $54,037.

Total des soldes en faveur des compagnies, $470,014.

Pour chaque $100 de primes il a donc été payé en moyenne $60.95 pour les pertes, et de $27.83 pour les dépenses générales, laissant $11.22 aux compagnies.

En 1890, la proportion des pertes a été de $54.75, et celle des dépenses générales de $27.74 pour chaque $100 de primes reçues.

Pour les opérations contre l'incendie, la proportion des primes a été de $11·399 par $1,000 de risques acceptés, contre $11·108 en 1890.

Ces compagnies ont donc fait cette année moins d'opérations qu'en 1890, le taux des primes a été plus élevé, la proportion des dépenses plus élevée, et celle des pertes plus forte.

Réunissant ici les résultats des dix-sept dernières années, de 1875 à 1891 pour les recettes des primes et les dépenses des compagnies britanniques, nous trouvons :

Payé pour pertes (1875-1891)	$34,360,480
do dépenses générales	12,314,797
Total des paiements	$46,675,277
Reçu pour primes	49,871,294
Excédent des recettes sur les paiements	$ 3,196,017

En consultant le tableau ci-dessous on verra que, depuis l'année 1877 jusqu'à la fin de l'année 1886, il existait un solde contre les compagnies par suite des pertes extraordinaires occasionnées par la conflagration de Saint-Jean, N.-B.. en 1877, en conséquence de laquelle les compagnies britanniques ont payé près de cinq millions de dollars ; un changement s'est produit à la fin de l'année 1887, alors qu'il s'est accusé un solde favorable de $341,398 ; et s'est augmenté d'année en année, et à la fin de 1890 il était de $3,196,017.

Les rapports des opérations générales des compagnies britanniques, qui sont annexées à leurs divers états, sont pris soit dans les rapports imprimés distribués par les compagnies à leurs actionnaires, soit dans les rapports fournis à la Chambre de Commerce britannique. Comme ces comptes sont préparés d'une manière qui ne peut être facilement comprise sinon par un expert, j'ai fait cette année une analyse approximative de ces états qu'on trouvera à la page cv. Deux ou trois seulement de ces compagnies prétendent protéger particulièrement les obligations à compter sous le chef de " primes non acquises," mais les autres mettent de côté sous le nom de " de caisse des incendies " une certaine somme qu'elles gardent pour faire face aux éventualités futures, et qui est inscrite contre les compagnies comme passif. J'ai pris 60 pour 100 de la recette annuelle des primes comme représentant approximativement la part des primes afférentes aux risques non expirés, et sur ce chiffre est basé cet item dans nos rapports sur les opérations canadiennes. De plus, dans le cas où les compagnies font des opérations d'assurances sur la vie en même temps que contre l'incendie (l'actif de ces départements devant être tenu dans des comptes séparés d'après la loi impériale), j'ai laissé entièrement de côté les opérations sur la vie, considérant que les fonds d'assurances sur la vie sont plus que suffisants pour faire face aux obligations de ce département, et ainsi le résultat, en ce qui concerne le capital versé, est moins favorable aux compagnies.

COMPAGNIES AMÉRICAINES.

Le total des primes reçues a été de $701,183 ; le total des pertes soldées a été de $411,802 ; et les dépenses générales de $217,002. La proportion a donc été, en moyenne, de $58.73 pour les pertes, et de $30.95 pour les dépenses générales pour chaque $100 de primes reçues, laissant aux compagnies $10.32.

L'état suivant indique, en détail, les soldes des différentes compagnies :—

COMPAGNIES CANADIENNES.

En examinant les compagnies canadiennes, il faut tenir compte des opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie de ces compagnies à l'étranger, aussi bien que de leurs opérations maritimes, vu que la répartition des dépenses entre ces différentes compagnies n'a pas été faite.

Le tableau suivant fait voir comment se répartissent les opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie, au Canada et dans les autres pays, et indique que les opérations à l'étranger ont été, en somme, plus favorables aux compagnies que celles entreprises dans le pays.

L'actif des sept compagnies canadiennes qui font des opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie s'élevait, à la fin de l'année, à $4,643,914, assurant un montant total de $346,018,947 de risques de toutes sortes, soit une proportion de $13.42 pour chaque $1,000 d'assurances en vigueur ; elles ont aussi une réserve de capital souscrit, mais non versé, de $2,130,108, formant une garantie totale de $19.72 pour chaque $1,000 assurés. Le passif des mêmes compagnies, s'élevant à $2,754,540, est réparti comme suit :—

Pertes non établies	$ 372,863
Primes non acquises	2,176,047
Divers	205,630
Total	$ 2,754,540

Les primes non acquises sont calculées ici en proportion du temps qui reste à courir dans le cas d'assurances contre l'incendie et sur risques de navigation intérieure, et comprennent les primes en entier dans les cas de risques maritimes en cours. L'excédent de l'actif sur le passif disponible, pour la protection des porteurs de polices, indépendamment de la réserve du capital non versé, s'élève à $1,889,374.04.

Le capital de ces compagnies, versé ou en voie de paiement, s'élève à $1,901,287, ce qui indique un excédent de l'actif sur le passif, y compris ce capital, s'élevant à $11,913. A la fin de 1890 l'excédent était de $342,763.

Le tableau suivant fait connaître la situation de toutes les compagnies canadiennes à fonds social, à la fin de 1891, et indique si elles ont un excédent d'actif ou jusqu'à quel point leur capital a été entamé.

RISQUES MARITIMES ET RISQUES DE LA NAVIGATION INTÉRIEURE, 1891.

En comprenant les opérations faites au Canada par la "British and Foreign Marine," la London Assurance et l'Ætna, et toutes celles des trois compagnies canadiennes qui font des opérations dans cette branche d'assurances, les résultats de l'année sont comme suit :—

Pour risques de la navigation intérieure.

Primes reçues, $397,334 ; pertes subies, $202,949, sur lesquelles $179,952 ont été payés, laissant un solde de $22,997 encore à payer. Il a été aussi payé dans le cours de l'année $19,639 pour les pertes survenues les années précédentes, ce qui porte les paiements totaux de pertes à $199,591 pour l'année, tandis que le total des pertes impayées, ou non réglées, à la fin de l'année, s'élevait à $22,997.

Il a été aussi payé dans le cours de l'année $36,640 pour les pertes survenues les années précédentes, ce qui porte les paiements totaux des pertes à $290,777, pour l'année, tandis que le total des pertes impayées ou non réglées, à la fin de l'année, s'élevait à $20,518.

Les opérations d'assurances contre les risques de la navigation intérieure accusent, cette année, un résultat plus favorable que celui de l'année précédente. Les pertes subies ayant été de 51·08 pour 100 des primes reçues, tandis que, l'an dernier, le taux était de 60·23.

Pour les opérations d'assurances maritimes, la proportion des pertes subies relativement aux primes reçues a été de 136·17, contre 94·19 l'année dernière.

La plus forte partie des opérations se fait par des compagnies qui ne sont pas obligées d'obtenir de permis et qui ne font pas de rapports au gouvernement.

ASSURANCES SUR LA VIE, 1891.

Les opérations d'assurances sur la vie ont été faites par 30 compagnies actives, dont 11 canadiennes, 9 britanniques et 10 américaines.

Assurances terminées en 1891.

Le chiffre des assurances arrivées à fin en 1891, selon les cours ordinaires, c'est-à-dire, par le décès des assurés, la maturité ou l'expiration des risques, a été de $4,899,065, ce qui est une augmentation de $608,085 sur le chiffre correspondant de l'année précédente ; et le chiffre de celles arrivées à fin par rachat ou prescription a été de $19,630,168, ce qui est une diminution de $1,070,427 sur l'année précédente.

Relativement aux risques en vigueur, le chiffre des assurances ainsi terminées est en somme un peu moins élevé que l'année précédente, donnant pour chaque $1,000 de risques courants arrivées à fin selon le cours naturel, $18.33 et $73.42 par rachat et prescription, formant un total de $91.75. En 1890 ces taux avaient été de $17.01 et $82.07, formant un total de $99.08, donnant une différence de $7.23 pour chaque $1,000 de risques.

Le tableau suivant indique la proportion des polices arrivées à fin depuis cinq ans.

MORTALITÉ.

Cette année, comme l'année dernière, on a admis, dans les données sur lesquelles peut être calculée la mortalité, le nombre moyen des polices en vigueur et le nombre de polices arrivées à fin pour cause de décès durant l'année, comme approximation du nombre moyen des vies assurées et du nombre de décès, dans le cas des compagnies dont le rapport ne contient pas cette donnée. On croit que le résultat obtenu représente la mortalité réelle parmi les assurés, au Canada, aussi exactement qu'il est possible d'y arriver à l'aide des rapports fournis par les compagnies.

Le chiffre total des sommes payées aux porteurs de polices en 1891 se décompose comme suit :—

Dotations échues (y compris les additions de bonis)	865,006 34

L'actif et le passif, le revenu et les dépenses des compagnies canadiennes, se trouvent exposés sous leurs rubriques respectives aux pages cxxv, cxxvi, cxxx et cxxxi. En calculant leurs réserves de réassurances, les compagnies emploient la table H. M. de l'institut des actuaires, à 4½ pour 100.

D'après les tableaux des pages cxxx et cxxxi, qui sont mentionnés ci-dessus, on verra que les compagnies canadiennes accusent un total de recettes de $5,606,544.16, provenant des différentes sources suivantes :—

Primes et contrats de rentes viagères	$4,508,833 70
Intérêts et dividendes	1,048,954 22
Total	$5,606,544 16

Et leurs déboursés ont été de $3,185,391.47, répartis comme suit :—

Payé aux porteurs de polices et aux propriétaires de rentes viagères	$2,036,710 90
Dépenses générales	1,093,215 46
Dividendes payés aux actionnaires	55,465 11
Total	$3,185,391 47

Ainsi, pour chaque somme de $100 reçue, il a été déboursé en paiement aux porteurs de polices, $36.33 ; en dépenses générales, $19.50 ; et en dividendes aux actionnaires $0.99, laissant $43.18 à porter à la réserve.

En examinant le tableau de la page cxxv on verra que, le 31 décembre 1891, le total de l'actif des compagnies canadiennes d'assurances sur la vie (y compris $1,308,426.64 de primes en souffrance ou différées, d'intérêts et de loyers dus ou à calculer et non encore reçus) s'élève à $23,154,620.14, ce qui, comparé au chiffre correspondant à la fin de l'année 1878, accuse une augmentation de $18,564,213.35.

Le total des risques en vigueur qui, en 1878, était de $30,541,867, s'élève aujourd'hui à $147,925,863, soit une augmentation de $117,383,996, et les réserves, qui étaient de $3,477,185 en 1878, ont été de $19,922,556 en 1891, soit une augmentation de $16,445,371.

Le tableau suivant fait voir le chiffre des recettes provenant des primes et d'autres sources, des compagnies canadiennes, ainsi que ceux des déboursés, en paiements aux porteurs de polices, en dépenses générales et en dividendes payés aux actionnaires durant les treize dernières années.

COMPAGNIES COOPÉRATIVES, 1891.

Les opérations d'assurances sur la vie dites à répartitions ont été faites par sept compagnies, dont quatre canadiennes et trois américaines. Au nombre des compagnies américaines, une, la Massachusetts Benefit Association, a obtenu une licence pendant l'année. Une compagnie canadienne, la Home Benefit Life Association, a été ajoutée à la liste depuis la fin de l'année.

Le chiffre total des primes délivrées en 1891 a été de $10,790,125, ou $2,842,625 de plus qu'en 1890, et le chiffre de cette dernière année était de $1,466,700 de plus qu'en

1889. Le chiffre net en vigueur à la fin de l'année était de $42,352,903, ce qui constitue une augmentation de $6,215,287 sur le chiffre de l'année précédente.

Le chiffre des assurances terminées par décès a été de $378,675, et par rachat et prescription, $5,343,176, donnant pour chaque $1,000 de risques courants, $913 de risques terminés par décès, et $128.99 par rachat et prescription.

Le total des assurances terminées s'élève à 53·03 pour 100 du montant des nouvelles polices. Les chiffres des assurances terminées se répartissent comme suit :—

	Par décès.	Par rachat ou prescription.
Compagnies canadiennes	$220,675	$2,564,301
do américaines	158,000	2,778,875

Le montant total payé par les membres pour entrées, contributions annuelles, répartitions, etc., s'est élevé à $527,307, et les réclamations pour cause de décès se sont élevées à $331,601.

Les tableaux suivants donnent les détails de l'actif et du passif, du revenu et des dépenses des compagnies canadiennes, et du revenu et des dépenses des compagnies américaines.

ASSURANCES CONTRE LES ACCIDENTS ET DE GARANTIE AU CANADA, 1891.

Les opérations d'assurances contre les accidents ont été faites par neuf compagnies, savoir : 5 compagnies canadiennes (dont deux assurent aussi sur la vie), 1 américaine (qui assure sur la vie), et 3 britanniques, dont l'une entreprend des assurances de garantie, et une des assurances sur glaces.

Le chiffre total des primes d'assurances contre les accidents reçues au Canada s'est élevé à $313,177, assurant une somme de $50,279,155, et la somme de $127,274 a été payée pour réclamations, laissant $45,558 de réclamations à régler. On en trouvera un relevé à la page cxxxvii.

Les opérations de garantie ont été faites par trois compagnies, une canadienne, une britannique et une américaine.

Cette liste ne diffère pas de celle de l'année précédente, 1890.

Les primes reçues ont été de $68,698, garantissant une somme de $11,242,815, et le chiffre net des réclamations payées s'est élevé à $12,255, laissant $20,275 de réclamations à régler.

La Compagnie de garantie de l'Amérique du Nord fait en dehors du Canada des opérations qui ne sont pas comprises dans les chiffres qui précèdent.

ASSURANCES SUR GLACES AU CANADA, 1890.

Les opérations d'assurances sur glaces ont été faites par trois compagnies constituées en corporations, savoir : 1 canadienne, 1 britannique (qui comprend aussi les risques contre les accidents) et 1 américaine, et par une société d'assureurs ayant son siège principal d'opérations dans la ville de Montréal.

La compagnie d'assurance sur glaces dite Dominion, et MM. Mongenais, Boivin et Cie, les assureurs dont il vient d'être parler, ayant adopté le mode d'assurance par remplacement, au lieu de payer la valeur des glaces brisées, et leurs contrats ne mentionnant aucun montant d'assurances, leurs rapports n'indiquent pas le montant des risques entrepris durant l'année, ni celui des risques en vigueur à la fin de l'exercice. Les primes reçues durant l'année au Canada, pour les assurances sur glaces, se sont élevées à $38,686, ce qui est $4,977 de plus que le chiffre de l'an dernier, et les pertes totales ont été de $14,056, soit $2,590 de plus que le montant payé en 1890. On trouvera un relevé à la page cxxxviii.

Aujourd'hui il y a 97 compagnies sous le contrôle de ce bureau, et leurs opérations se répartissent comme suit :—

Les dépôts faits en fidéicommis au crédit du receveur général, par ces compagnies, pour la protection des porteurs de polices, s'élevaient, le 18 juillet 1892, à $20,732,176.45, et se composaient des valeurs suivantes :—

Il a été aussi déposé entre les mains de fidéicommissaires canadiens, conformément à la loi, $3,260,697, ce qui fait un total de $23,992,873.45 pour la protection des porteurs de polices, étant une augmentation de $2,568,679.72 depuis le dernier rapport.

La répartition de la somme totale de $23,992,873.45 retenue, tel que ci-dessus mentionné, pour la protection des porteurs de polices canadiennes, parmi les diverses classes, se décompose comme suit :—

ARTICLE 43 DE L'ACTE DES ASSURANCES.

Les opinions et la correspondance, etc., publiées sous ce titre dans le dernier rapport, ayant été excessivement utiles, le surintendant, croyant de l'intérêt des intéressés qu'elles soient continuellement conservées de façon à les mettre facilement à la portée, les publie de nouveau avec d'autres documents subséquemment venus de la même source ou de sources semblables.

"The Oddfellows Fraternal Accident Association."

Vers la fin de l'année 1888, l'attention du surintendant fut attirée sur le fait que l'Association des Oddfellows contre les accidents avait nommé des agents qui sollicitaient des opérations au Canada, prétendant que, vu que l'association n'assurait que des Oddfellows, elle avait, en vertu de l'article 43 de l'Acte des assurances, le droit de le faire sans effectuer aucun dépôt entre les mains du receveur général et sans obtenir de permis. Cette question étant très importante, tous les papiers et la correspondance s'y rattachant furent soumis au département de la justice pour avoir son opinion. Les faits relatifs à cette affaire et les questions soumises sont suffisamment exposés dans l'opinion du sous-ministre de la justice, qui se lit comme suit :—

Ottawa, 8 janvier 1889.

"Monsieur,—J'ai l'honneur d'accuser réception de votre lettre du 27 du mois dernier, renfermant certains papiers, et demandant si l'Association fraternelle des Oddfellows d'Amérique contre les accidents tombe dans les exceptions contenues dans l'article 43 de l'Acte des assurances.

"La compagnie fut constituée en corporation le 12 avril 1887, par l'Etat du Massachusetts, dans le but de 'donner aide et assistance temporaire aux Oddfellows porteurs de certificats de membres de cette association, en cas de blessures temporaires ou permanentes résultant d'accidents, et d'aider pécuniairement les veuves, les orphelins, les familles et ceux qui dépendent d'Oddfellows décédés, membres de cette association, en cas de décès des dits membres par accident, ou leurs héritiers et ayants cause.'

"La compagnie est donc * * * * une association contre les accidents, et pour cette raison ne rentre pas dans l'exception. On prétend de la part de la compagnie que, vu que la compagnie a pour objet d'assurer la vie des membres contre les accidents, elle fait des opérations d'assurance sur la vie, et ne perd pas le bénéfice de l'exception en faisant aussi d'autres opérations d'assurances. Je dois dire, cependant, que cette prétention semble entraîner une interprétation trop littérale de l'article 43. Les compagnies qui réclament les avantages de ces exceptions ne devraient s'occuper que d'assurances sur la vie, et non pas d'opérations contre les accidents et sur la vie, ou contre l'incendie et sur la vie, ou d'assurances maritimes et sur la vie. Toute autre interprétation semblerait exposer les compagnies engagées dans d'autres genres d'assurances au danger d'éluder la loi, et par conséquent s'engager dans les affaires d'assurance en jouissant des bénéfices de l'exception mentionnée dans l'article 43, en prétendant être légalement engagées dans les assurances sur la vie.

"Voici la question qui se soulève : Cette association est-elle formée dans un but d'assurance sur la vie en rapport "avec une société ou organisation * * * * pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion, et 'exclusivement pour ses membres' et qui assure la vie de ses membres exclusivement ?" Elle ne paraît pas l'être. Autant que je puis le voir par les papiers, sept messieurs se sont volontairement formés en une compagnie d'assurances, en prenant le nom ci-dessus, dans le but de faire des opérations parmi les Oddfellows seulement. Ils ont obtenu une charte sans consulter aucune association d'Oddfellows, sans leur autorisation et sans rapport avec eux, mais dans le but d'obtenir le patronage d'autant d'Oddfellows que possible. Mais cette intention de leur part, et tout ce qu'ils ont pu faire en rapport avec cette institution, ne justifie pas l'affirmation que l'association a été formée "en rapport avec" l'ordre des Oddfellows.

"Comme je comprends la loi, le parlement avait intention de décréter qu'aucune des organisations mentionnées dans l'article en question pourrait assurer la vie de ses membres, où, si elle le jugeait à propos, pourrait organiser une association de ses membres dans un but d'assurances sur la vie : mais il ne prévoyait pas de projets comme celui-ci, par lequel il se forme une compagnie pour obtenir le patronage des membres d'une confraternité. Les papiers montrent que ce n'est qu'après la constitution de la compagnie en corporation qu'elle a obtenu le consentement de la Grande Loge du Massachusetts de se servir du nom des Oddfellows. Il paraît de plus que certaines loges d'Oddfellows ont passé des résolutions approuvant cette association. Cela ne prouve cependant pas que la compagnie ait été formée en rapport avec l'ordre des Oddfellows.

"J'ai l'honneur d'être, monsieur,

"Votre obéissant serviteur,

"ROBT. SEDGEWICK,

"Sous-ministre de la justice.

"M. W. Fitzgerald,

L'objet de l'opinion qui précède a été communiqué de suite à l'association, qui fut aussi informée, en réponse à des demandes faites par elle, qu'on considérait un permis nécessaire dans tous les cas de toutes les compagnies tombant sous le coup de l'article 43 de l'Acte des assurances (l'article en dernier lieu mentionné étant celui qui pouvait convenablement s'appliquer à une semblable association) ; que lorsque l'association aurait fait entre les mains du receveur général un dépôt de $20,000 à $40,000, à la discrétion du conseil de la trésorerie, et qu'elle se serait sous tous autres rapports conformée aux dispositions de l'Acte des assurances, un permis pourrait être accordé à l'association, mais qu'un dépôt était indispensable. Aucun dépôt n'a été fait, et aucun permis n'a été accordé à cette association.

"COVENANT MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION OF ILLINOIS."

La copie suivante d'une opinion donnée par le sous-ministre de la justice, au sujet de l'association ci-dessus nommée, s'explique suffisamment par elle-même :—

"OTTAWA, 15 janvier 1889.

"MONSIEUR,—J'ai l'honneur d'accuser réception de votre lettre du 3 du courant, relative à la Covenant Mutual Benefit Association of Illinois, qui réclamait d'être exemptée des dispositions de l'Acte des assurances, et j'ai l'honneur et l'ordre de dire ce qui suit :—

"Je dois d'abord attirer votre attention sur la lettre que je vous ai écrite le 8 janvier, au sujet de l'association d'assurance contre les accidents des Oddfellows d'Amérique, et de dire que les opinions exprimées dans cette lettre s'appliquent avec autant sinon plus de force dans le cas présent. Les papiers dans ce cas-ci, et particulièrement les règlements de l'association, montrent d'une manière concluante que cette association n'en est pas une pour des objets de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion, mais que c'est purement et simplement une compagnie d'assurances sur la vie.

"Ce n'est pas non plus une association ayant pour objet des assurances sur la vie en rapport avec aucune telle association ou organisation. * * * *

"Je dois dire que l'association, telle qu'actuellement organisée, n'a aucun droit dans aucune circonstance de faire d'opérations d'assurances au Canada avant d'avoir régulièrement obtenu de permis conformément à la loi du Canada.

"Votre obéissant serviteur,

"ROBT. SEDGEWICK,

"Au surintendant des assurances."

Tout ce qui reste à ajouter, c'est que la Covenant Mutual Benefit Association' ayant fait le dépôt nécessaire et s'étant sous tous autres rapports conformée aux dispositions de l'Acte des Assurances, un permis fut accordé à cette association le 20 septembre 1890.

"NORTH-WESTERN MASONIC AID ASSOCIATION,

"BUREAU DU SURINTENDANT DES ASSURANCES,

"M. E. C. DAVIES,

"Re North Western Masonic Aid Assciation.

"CHER MONSIEUR,—J'ai reçu votre lettre du 28, renfermant un exemplaire des règlements de votre association. Je présume que vous faites des opérations au Canada sur la supposition que l'article 43 de l'Acte des Assurances s'applique à votre association. Ce n'est, cependant, pas le cas. Cet article s'applique à une "société ou réunion d'individus, organisée pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion, et dont l'un des objets est l'assurance de la vie de ses membres exclusivement ; ou à aucune association d'assurance sur la vie formée en rapport avec cette société ou réunion de ses membres seuls, et qui assure la vie de ces derniers exclusivement."

"La section 1 de l'article IV de vos règlements se lit comme suit : 'Ceux qui demandent leur admission comme membres de cette association devront être des maîtres-maçons en règle avec la société et n'avoir pas plus de cinquante-cinq ans ; pourvu que le conseil des syndics puisse à sa discrétion admettre comme membres des hommes (n'étant pas maîtres-maçons) âgés de 21 à 45 ans inclusivement, sur recommandation dans chaque cas d'au moins deux maîtres-maçons, membres de l'association.'

"Ce dernier proviso prive clairement votre association des avantages des dispositions de l'article 43 ci-dessus cité. Le fait, comme vous dites, que les maçons seuls peuvent être membres de votre association au Canada, ne vous aide pas. Vos règlements pourvoyant à ce que les personnes qui ne sont pas maçons puissent être acceptées, sont concluants sur ce point. De plus, je crois que votre association accepte aux Etats-Unis des hommes qui ne sont pas maçons. Il n'y a rien dans les articles ou certificats de constitution en corporation qui limite la qualité de membres aux maçons, et les règlements, comme je l'ai fait remarquer, montrent que d'autres personnes que des maçons peuvent être acceptées. L'opinion de M. Sedgewick, sous-ministre de la justice, donnée au sujet de la Oddfellows Fraternal Accident Association (copie incluse) semble applicable à cette association. Je vous renvoie aux deux dernières clauses de cette opinion.

"Il s'en suit donc, que l'association ne peut légalement faire d'opérations au Canada. J'ai donc l'honneur de vous demander de cesser de faire de nouvelles opérations au Canada avant de vous être conformés aux dispositions de l'Acte des Assurances en effectuant le dépôt nécessaire au crédit du receveur général, et en remplissant sous d'autres rapports les exigences du dit acte.

"J'ai l'honneur d'être, monsieur,

"Votre obéissant serviteur,

"W. FITZGERALD."

"Le ministre de la justice est d'opinion que la position que vous avez prise, ainsi que vous l'exprimez dans votre lettre du 29 juillet à M. Davies, savoir, que l'association ne peut légalement pour les raisons mentionnées dans cette lettre, à propos des dispositions de l'Acte des Assurances, faire d'opérations au Canada sans effectuer le dépôt ordinaire et sans se conformer sous tous les autres rapports aux dispositions de l'acte et d'obtenir une licence en vertu du dit acte, est correcte.

"Monsieur,—J'ai l'honneur d'accuser réception de votre lettre du 13 du courant relative à l'association ci-dessus nommée, et en réponse, je dois vous dire, d'après mes instructions, que cette association, en ce qui concerne la question de son exemption des dispositions de l'Acte des Assurances, paraît être précisément dans la même position que la Oddfellows Fraternal Accident Association of America, et je n'ai qu'à vous renvoyer à une lettre du 8 janvier 1889, relative à cette dernière association, pour vous faire connaître l'opinion du ministre de la justice sur la quest ion soumise dans votre lettre.

"L'association que mentionne la circulaire que vous transmettez estexclue de l'exemption prévue par l'article 43 de l'acte, non seulement parce qu'elle fait des opérations d'assurance contre les accidents, mais parce que, pour les raisons exposées dans ma lettre à laquelle je renvoie ci-dessus, on ne peut la considérer comme ayant été "formée en rapport avec" une société ou réunion organisée pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion.

"Je renvoie la circulaire.

"Département de la justice,

"Ottawa, 19 mai 1891.

"Monsieur,—J'ai l'honneur de vous renvoyer sous ce pli les règlements et les articles de constitution en corporation de cette association que contenait votre lettre du 16 du courant, et j'ai reçu instruction de vous dire que toute demande de la part de cette association d'être exemptée en vertu de l'article 43 de l'Acte des Assurances, des dispositions de l'acte qui exigent que toute compagnie ou personne se procure un permis avant d'entreprendre des opérations d'assurances au Canada, semblerait être soumise à l'objection signalée dans ma lettre du 8 janvier 1889, relative à la Oddfellows Fraternal Accident Association of America.

"Les remarques contenues dans cette lettre au sujet de savoir si cette dernière association avait été formée en rapport avec une société ou réunion d'individus organisée pour des fins de confraternité, semblent également s'appliquer à cette association.

"J'ai l'honneur d'être, monsieur,

"Votre obéissant serviteur,

"ROBT. SEDGEWICK,

"Au surintendant des assurances, Ottawa." "S. M. J.

RÈGLES ET RÈGLEMENTS RELATIFS À L'ACCEPTATION DES GARANTIES OFFERTES POUR LES DÉPOTS PAR LES COMPAGNIES D'ASSURANCES, À L'OCTROI DE PERMIS, ETC., ETC.

Les extraits suivants d'arrêtés du conseil, de minutes du Conseil de la Trésorerie etc. (dont plusieurs ont déjà été publiés), sont réunis ici pour faciliter la consultation :

Garanties municipales.—" Le conseil recommande que les obligations municipales, lorsqu'on les acceptera, pourront être prises à 90 pour 100, et que les bons du havre de Montréal soient pris au même chiffre. (A. C., 1er avril 1876.)

Renseignements sur les garanties offertes en dépôt.—Toute offre d'obligations ou débentures, soit en dépôts originaires ou en échange pour des valeurs que l'on veut remettre en portefeuille, doit être accompagnée d'un état donnant sur les garanties offertes des renseignements complets sur les points suivants :—

" Date, date de l'échéance, lieu de paiement pour le capital, taux de l'intérêt, terme de paiement, c.-à-d., annuellement ou semi-annuellement, date et lieu de paiement pour l'intérêt, valeur vénale à l'époque de l'offre, ou si cette valeur n'est pas cotée sur le marché, prix et date de l'achat par la compagnie.

" Aussi, lorsqu'il s'agit d'obligations ou de débentures de municipalités :

" La population, la valeur imposée, le taux de la taxe, l'actif, le total de la dette en débentures, et de toutes les autres dettes, le revenu et la dépense du dernier exercice, et tous autres détails connus de la compagnie et qui seraient de nature à aider à déterminer la valeur des garanties offertes.

" Le conseil désire avoir tous les renseignements possibles au sujet de ces garanties, afin d'être en mesure de mieux peser les choses. (C. T., 9 novembre 1888.)

Débentures de chemins de fer :—Le conseil est d'avis qu'il ne peut accepter en dépôt les obligations d'aucune compagnie de chemin de fer à moins qu'elles ne soient directement ou indirectement garanties par le gouvernement du Canada. (C. T., 27 octobre 1890.)

Effets de compagnies de prêts :—" Le conseil a examiné un mémoire du surintendant des assurances au sujet de la demande de l'association des compagnies de crédit foncier pour la province d'Ontario à l'effet de faire accepter les débentures de compagnies de prêts en dépôt de la part des compagnies d'assurances. Ce mémoire représente que cette association est composée de compagnies ou sociétés de prêts constituées en corporation et autorisées à prêter de l'argent sur biens-fonds dans la province d'Ontario, et que toutes les compagnies de cette nature sont admissibles dans l'association sur paiement de certains droits d'entrée ; que les compagnies qui composent cette association peuvent se ranger dans les catégories suivantes :

I. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire du statut de la province du Canada, 9 Victoria, chap. 90, refondu dans le chapitre 53 des Statuts Refondus du Haut-Canada, aujourd'hui inclus dans le chapitre 169 des derniers Statuts Revisés de l'Ontario (1887), et communément connu sous le nom d'Acte des sociétés de construction.

II. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'Acte des compagnies à fonds social du Canada, de 1877, aujourd'hui connu sous le nom d'Acte des compagnies, c'est-à-dire le chapitre 119 des Statuts Revisés du Canada (1886).

III. Compagnies constituées par certains actes particuliers de la législature de la province du Canada ou du parlement du Canada.

IV. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'Acte des lettres patentes pour compagnies à fonds social de l'Ontario, 1874, c'est-à-dire le chapitre 150 des premiers et le chapitre 157 des derniers Statuts Revisés de l'Ontario.

V. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'acte anglais des compagnies, et autorisées à faire des opérations en Canada en vertu de 37 Victoria, chapitre 49, c'est-à-dire le chapitre 125 des Statuts Revisés du Canada.

Après avoir examiné avec soin le rapport du surintendant des assurances relativement à la nature des garanties sur lesquelles les compagnies ci-dessus peuvent placer leurs fonds, ainsi que sur la faculté d'emprunter dont jouissent ces compagnies, et eu égard à ce que les compagnies appartenant aux catégories I et II, c'est-à-dire les compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'Acte des sociétés de construction ou de l'Acte des compagnies, ne possèdent la faculté d'emprunter qu'à un degré limité, et sont restreints aux placements qui sont généralement considérés comme les plus sûrs, le conseil arrête que les débentures et les effets non rachetables de celles des compagnies appartenant à ces deux catégories qui seront dans les conditions mentionnées plus loin, pourront être acceptés en dépôt de la part des compagnies d'assurance au taux que le conseil de la Trésorerie jugera à propos d'y attacher, sans dépasser cependant la valeur ordinairement reconnue aux garanties municipales, savoir : 90 pour 100 du pair lorsque la valeur vénale est au moins égale au pair, ou 90 pour 100 de la valeur vénale lorsque celle-ci n'atteint pas le pair.

1. La compagnie doit n'avoir aucunement dépassé en matière d'emprunt et de placements les pouvoirs que lui confère l'acte sous l'empire duquel elle a été constituée.
2. Elle doit avoir un capital versé d'au moins $500,000.
3. Elle doit avoir fait avec succès les opérations de compagnie de prêt pendant au moins dix ans.
4. Elle doit avoir une caisse de réserve d'au moins 25 p. 100 de son capital versé.
5. Ses actions doivent être cotées à au moins 25 p. 100 de prime.

Le conseil arrête aussi que les débentures de celles des compagnies de la catégorie III, savoir : les compagnies constituées par actes particuliers, qui seront dans les conditions ci-dessus, et dont les pouvoirs en matière d'emprunt et de placements ne dépassent pas ceux accordés aux compagnies des catégories I et II, pourront aussi être acceptées sauf les dispositions ci-dessus relatives à leur valeur.

Le conseil arrête aussi que toute demande de la part d'une compagnie d'assurance à l'effet de faire accepter des débentures ou des effets non rachetables comme ci-dessus, fera le sujet d'une référence particulière au conseil de la trésorerie, et que la compagnie fournira tous les renseignements (dûment attestés s'il est besoin) nécessaires au conseil." (C. T., 19 juin 1889.)

Aucune assurance d'acceptation d'effets par le conseil de la Trésorerie.—" Le surintendant demande la décision du conseil de la Trésorerie sur la question suivante : * * Le conseil fera-t-il savoir à une compagnie qui désire acheter certains effets ou garanties s'il les acceptera ou non en dépôt.

* * * * * *

" Après délibération, le conseil est d'avis qu'il ne saurait faire connaître à une compagnie si dans le cas où certains effets ou garanties seraient achetés, ces effets ou garanties seraient acceptés en dépôt." (C. T., 1er avril 1889.)

Reçus de dépôts :—" Le conseil donne instruction de n'accepter dans aucun cas en dépôts des reçus de dépôts de la part d'aucune compagnie." (C. T., 25 janvier 1888.)

Actions de banques, etc.—" Les effets ou actions de banques dans aucune compagnie particulière ne seront pas acceptés." (A. C., 17 janvier 1876.)

Combinaison des opérations sur la vie avec d'autres genres d'assurances.—" Le conseil ayant pris en considération une demande faite par quelques compagnies britanniques pour obtenir un permis d'entreprendre des opérations d'assurances contre les accidents en même temps que sur la vie, et ayant étudié le rapport du surintendant des assurances sur le sujet, est d'opinion qu'il ne serait pas de l'intérêt du public ni conforme à la politique indiquée par le parlement fédéral en refusant des chartes de cette nature, de combiner les opérations d'assurances sur la vie avec toute autre classe d'assurances, et recommande en conséquence au conseil, (1.) Qu'à l'avenir aucun permis ne soit accordé à une compagnie qui désire faire des opérations d'assurances sur la vie dans le but d'y joindre d'autres genres d'assurances. (2.) Que cette minute n'est pas distinée à gêner les opérations d'assurances combinées par les compagnies déjà en opération et autorisées en vertu de l'acte de 1868, et qu'il n'est pas nécessaire d'exiger des compagnies qui combinent les assurances sur la vie avec les accidents, et qui sont autorisées par ce statut de faire de dépôt spécial à raison de leurs opérations contre les accidents." (A.C., 24 juillet 1882).

Pouvoirs accordés par leur charte aux compagnies étrangères.—" Le conseil recommande de poser comme règle générale de n'accorder aucun permis à une compagnie étrangère dont les pouvoirs corporatifs excèdent les pouvoirs que le parlement du Canada accorderait à une compagnie." (A.C., 21 janvier 1891.)

" Pourvu, toutefois, qu'une compagnie, indépendamment des pouvoirs de sa charte, qui aura un capital payé d'au moins $500,000 tout à fait intact, et aura en plus de toutes obligations estimées d'après l'étalon officiel, un fonds de surplus égal à au moins 30 pour 100 du dit capital payé et dont la valeur marchande des actions sera à une prime d'au moins 30 pour 100, et qui aura fait avec succès pendant une période d'au moins dix ans les opérations pour lesquelles elle demande une licence, n'étant qu'une seule classe d'assurance, ou s'il y en a plus d'une, alors telles classes qui pourront être combinées, sera jugée éligible et avoir droit à la dite licence en s'engageant à garder et maintenir en Canada un actif, tel que défini par l'Acte des assurances, en plus et au-dessus de la somme fixée par les articles 9 et 10 du dit acte (les dits articles seront jugés applicables à la dite compagnie), jusqu'à la concurrence que le gouverneur en conseil, sur le rapport du conseil du Trésor, fixera et déterminera, mais n'excédant pas la somme de $500,000 ; le dit excédant sera considéré être le capital canadien de la compagnie, et le dit engagement sera reputé être une condition précédant l'émission de la dite licence.

Et pourvu, de plus, que la demande de licence d'une compagnie qui ne se sera pas conformé sous tous rapports en tout aux exigenges de l'article conditionnel précédent, mais qui ne manquera pas d'une manière sensible à ses points essentiels, pourra faire l'objet d'un renvoi spécial qui sera jugé au mérite." (A. C. 30 janvier 1892.)

Obligations enregistrées en dépôts.—Lorsque des obligations enregistrées sont reçues en dépôts, elles doivent être enregistrées au nom du receveur général. Des obligations enregistrées au nom d'une compagnie, accompagnées d'une cession en faveur du receveur général, ne seront pas acceptées. Lorsqu'on a intention de se servir d'obligations enregistrées pour faire un dépôt, on devrait avant de les envoyer à ce département, les enregistrer comme suit au nom du " receveur général du Canada en fidéicommis pour (donnant le nom de la compagnie), étant partie du dépôt fait par la compagnie entre les mains du receveur général conformément aux statuts du Canada à cet effet." (C.T., 13 juillet 1891).

LA COMPAGNIE D'ASSURANCE MUTUELLE SUR LA VIE DE CONNECTICUT.

Ministère de la justice, Ottawa, 17 décembre 1891.

Monsieur,—J'ai l'honneur d'accuser réception de votre lettre du trois courant, qui contenait l'affaire numéro 14,136 de la Commission du trésor, soit un mémoire au surintendant des assurances relativement à l'enregistrement des garanties à déposer entre les mains du receveur général par la Compagnie d'Assurance Mutuelle sur la vie de Connecticut, ainsi que la correspondance sur ce sujet entre la compagnie et le surintendant.

Vous demandez mon opinion sur la question de savoir si la prétention de la Compagnie d'Assurance Mutuelle sur la vie de Connecticut, telle qu'énoncée dans la lettre au président de la compagnie, est bien fondée, et si, dans tous les cas, les obligations en question devraient être enregistrées en la manière suggérée par la compagnie.

Il appert que la Commission du trésor a décidé que ces garanties devraient être enregistrées au nom du receveur général en fidéicommis pour la compagnie, conformément aux statuts du Canada à ce sujet. Le président de la compagnie, d'un autre côté, prétend que sa compagnie ayant eu, à titre de compagnie mutuelle, la permission en vertu des dispositions de l'art. 22 de l'Acte des assurances de 1868,—31 Vict., chap. 48—de faire son premier dépôt pour le bénéfice général de tous ses membres et non pas pour la garantie des porteurs de police, demeurant en Canada, il a droit de déposer ces garanties qu'il propose de substituer à celles qui sont maintenant entre les mains du receveur général, aux mêmes conditions, et, à l'appui de sa prétention, il cite l'article 17 de l'acte de 1877, qui stipulait en effet que les dépôts des compagnies qui se retirent des affaires en Canada (ainsi que l'a fait sa compagnie), devraient être traités comme si cet acte n'avait pas été passé, ainsi que la disposition correspondante du présent Acte d'assurance, article 32, Statuts revisés, chap. 124.

Il allègue aussi que les garanties qui constituent aujourd'hui le dépôt de sa compagnie et qui furent substituées en 1881 aux garanties primitivement déposées, étaient réputées, dans l'acte de transport, assignées au ministre des finances d'alors "en fidéicommis pour la dite compagnie soumis aux dispositions de l'Acte des assurances du Canada, étant un dépôt fait sous l'empire de l'Acte 31 Vict. chap. 48, intitulé, etc.," et il prétend que ces garanties sont maintenant retenues pour le bénéfice général des membres de la compagnie.

Il n'est pas nécessaire que j'exprime une opinion sur les fidéicommis en vertu desquels le présent dépôt est maintenant gardé, mais relativement aux garanties qu'on propose d'y substituer. Je suis d'avis que la Commission du trésor ne devrait pas se départir de la décision à laquelle on est déjà arrivé, c'est-à-dire qu'elles doivent être enregistrées au nom du receveur général "en fidéicommis pour la compagnie, conformément aux statuts du Canada à cette fin." Relativement à cette question, j'ai l'honneur de renvoyer la commission à une opinion donnée par M. Lash, alors sous-ministre de la justice, dans un rapport en date du 24 août 1881, lequel vous était adressé en qualité de sous-ministre des finances, sur une question précisément semblable qui se souleva en rapport avec la Compagnie d'Assurance Mutuelle sur la vie du Nord-Ouest.

J'approuve la conclusion de M. Lash, c'est-à-dire qu'en vertu d'aucun des actes d'assurance qui avaient été adoptés jusqu'à cette époque, sauf l'acte de 1868, le ministre des finances ne pouvait convenablement recevoir un dépot d'une compagnie d'assurance et consentir à le garder pour le bénéfice général de tous ses porteurs de polices, ou de tous ses membres, et je suis d'avis qu'il ne peut le faire sous l'empire de l'acte maintenant en vigueur.

La formule d'enregistrement sur laquelle la commission insiste n'est pas une formule à laquelle la compagnie doit sérieusement s'objecter, même si sa prétention est bien fondée. Tel que l'indique le surintendant dans son mémoire du 20 novembre, il n'y a rien dans la formule et dans la manière d'enregistrement prescrites par la commission qui puisse en aucune façon préjudicier à la position de la compagnie. Les mots "les statuts du Canada à cette fin" devront naturellement être réputés signifier les statuts, quels qu'ils soient, qui, en fait et en droit, peuvent s'appliquer au dépôt de la compagnie.

Votre obéissant serviteur,

DÉCISIONS JUDICIAIRES.

Sous ce titre on a donné dans le dernier rapport le jugement de M. le juge Street dans la cause de McGeachie vs la Compagnie d'assurance sur la vie North American. Le savant juge prononça en faveur de la compagnie et débouta l'action de la demanderesse. Cette dernière en appela de ce jugement à la cour du banc de la reine où le jugement de la cour inférieure fut infirmé. Voici quels sont les faits importants de la cause, ainsi que le jugement de la cour d'appel qui fut prononcé par M. le juge Armour (Ont. R. XXI) :

McGeachie vs la Compagnie d'assurance sur la vie North American.

La demanderesse alléguait dans sa déclaration :

(1.) Qu'elle était veuve et qu'elle demeurait à Sainte-Catherine ; que la défenderesse était une corporation d'assurance dont le principal bureau d'affaire, était dans la cité de Toronto, dans le comté d'York. (2.) Que la défenderesse, le ou vers le six décembre 1889, par son agent en la dite cité de Sainte-Catherine, avait émis sa police n° 7710 sur le plan connu sous le nom de plan à dividende système demi-tontine, sur la vie d'un nommé Robert McGeachie, époux de la susdite demanderesse, par laquelle police la dite défenderesse promettait, entre autres choses, de payer à la dite demanderesse, au cas du décès du dit Robert McGeachie, dans la période de la tontine 1909, la somme de mille piastres. (3.) Que le dit Robert McGeachie décéda le ou vers le sixième jour de novembre dernier

(1.) Que la police mentionnée au second paragraphe de la déclaration et des conventions qui y sont faites de la part de la défenderesse était à la face de la dite police, émises en considération du paiement de la prime annuelle de $31.10 devant être payés d'avance à la compagnie à son bureau principal d'affaires en la cité de Toronto. (2.) Que la prime de $31.10 mentionnée en la dite police n'avait jamais été payée. (3.) Que dans la demande de la dite police, demande qui fut signée par le dit Robert McGeachie, il était stipulé que si un billet, chèque, traite ou tout autre obligation était donné pour la première prime ou une prime subséquente ou pour une partie quelconque d'icelle, et que si le dit billet n'était pas payé à l'échéance, il était convenu que l'assurance ou la police accordée sur cette demande fut dès lors nulle et de nul effet, mais que le billet, chèque, la traite ou tout autre obligation devait néanmoins être payé.

(4.) Que la dite demande, aux termes de la dite police, fut constituée partie de la dite police. (5) Que la dite police contenait une disposition stipulant que la police était émise et acceptée à certaines conditions spéciales imprimées et écrites sur icelle et aussi aux conditions au verso d'icelle, et toutes ces dernières conditions y furent incorporées par la dite police et constituèrent une partie d'icelle. (6) Que les dites conditions inscrites au verso de la dite police contenaient entre autres choses ce qui suit : "Si un billet, chèque, ou toute autre obligation donné pour une prime n'est pas payé à l'échéance, la police sera nulle, et tous les paiements faits au compte de cette police seront confisqués en faveur de la compagnie." (7) Que le dit Robert McGeachie, incapable de payer la prime de la dite police, la compagnie consentit d'accepter un billet à ordre pour le montant de la prime. (8) Que le dit billet à ordre n'a pas été payé à son échéance, et qu'il ne l'a pas encore été. Que le dit billet a été renouvelé, mais que le renouvellement n'a pas été payé et qu'il est resté entre les mains de la défenderesse, échu et non payé.

La demanderesse, en réponse à la dite défense réplique ce qui suit : (2) Que le mois de grâce accordé pour le paiement des primes sur la dite police n'était pas expiré lors du dit décès du dit Robert McGeachie, et que, avant l'expiration du dit mois, la dite demanderesse offrit de payer le dit billet, mais que la défenderesse a refusé et qu'elle refuse encore de l'accepter. Et la demanderesse dit de plus : (3) Que si la dite compagnie avait le droit d'annuler la dite police lorsque le dit billet en renouvellement devint échu avant l'expiration du dit mois, ce que la demanderesse n'a pas admis mais qu'elle a nié, que la dite compagnie s'est désisté expressément de ses droits en vertu de la dite police et qu'elle n'a pas cherché à exercer tels droits, s'ils existent, lorsqu'elle apprit le décès du dit Robert McGeachie, et dans le but d'empêcher si c'était possible la demanderesse de recouvrer la somme de la dite police. Et la demanderesse dit qu'à tout événement les conditions renfermées dans la dite police dont la défenderesse a fait mention dans sa défense, étaient déraisonnables et injustes et ne devraient pas être mises en vigueur à l'encontre de la demanderesse. La cause fut instruite par le juge Street, au terme de cette cour qui a eu lieu au printemps dernier à Sainte-Catherine.

On a produit en preuve la demande de police qui faisait l'objet du litige et signé par Robert McGeachie, laquelle contenait les dispositions suivantes :—Il est par le présent déclaré et convenu que tout ce qui précède, avec les rapports et la convention qui l'accompagne, et cette déclaration et convention constituent une demande faite à la Compagnie d'assurance sur la vie North American pour en obtenir une assurance ; qu'une police si elle est émise et délivrée en la formule ordinaire de la compagnie, constituera la seule acceptation de cette demande ; que toute personne ayant des intérêts ou prétendant avoir des intérêts dans telle police adopte comme siens tous et chacun des allégués énoncés dans la dite demande, les dits allégués étant tous par le présent déclarés essentiels au contrat, qu'ils soient écrits ou non de sa main, et la dite personne déclare les dits allégués entiers, complets et vrais comme faits et que ces allégués sont les seuls sur lesquels la police, si elle est émise, sera basée ; et que cette police sera acceptée, lorsqu'elle sera présentée, soumise aux conditions énoncées dans et sur la dite police.

"Que tout le contrat ne se composera que de la dite demande et de la dite police, et qu'il sera interprété comme tout et dans chacune de ses parties et obligations, conformément aux conditions d'icelles uniquement ; qu'aucune partie de la demande ou de la police ne sera modifiée par un usage ou une coutume quelconque ; que le lieu du contrat pour toutes fins sera le bureau principal de la compagnie à Toronto. Et abandon est par le présent fait de tous droits, réclamations et recours non basés sur tel contrat. Que nul agent de la compagnie (qu'il soit appelé agent général ou autre) n'a le pouvoir de lier la compagnie en aucun façon ; d'un autre côté, nul agent n'est autorisé à recevoir des paiements dus à la compagnie à moins d'avoir un reçu pour ces deniers signé par le président ou le directeur gérant conformément aux conditions de tel reçu, chaque tel paiement n'était pas alors échu.

"Que nulle information ou allégué qui ne se trouve pas dans la dite demande, nul allégué de faits concernant la dite demande ou la dite police, quel que soit la manière dont il a été fait, donne reçu ou acquis, n'affectera la compagnie à moins que l'assuré ne le transmette immédiatement au président ou directeur gérant à son bureau principal, et admis par lui par écrit au nom de la compagnie ; que nul agent de la compagnie ou toute autre personne à l'exception du président, du vice-président ou du directeur gérant sous la direction du bureau des directeurs n'a le pouvoir de faire, de modifier, de faire revivre ou de renouveler tout contrat d'assurance, d'accorder des permis ou de se désister de la confiscation, ou de toute condition de telle police.

"Il est de plus par le présent convenu que si la compagnie dans une circonstance quelconque consentait à renouveler ou à faire revivre une police après que celle-ci est devenue nulle et de nul effet, chaque tel renouvellement ou remise en vigueur sera toujours réputé comme ne créant en aucune façon un précédent dans le sens d'un désistement d'une condition ou d'une convention de la police ou de la demande.

"Que dans aucune circonstance la police ne sera réputée en vigueur tant que le paiement réel et l'acceptation de la première prime à raison de la dite police n'auront pas été faits à et par un agent autorisé de la compagnie et tant que le reçu nécessaire signé par le directeur gérant n'aura pas été remis à l'assuré, la vie de la personne qu'on propose d'assurer étant à l'époque de tel paiement dans les mêmes conditions de santé qu'indiquées dans la demande, et que si une déclaration frauduleuse ou essentiellement inexacte a été faite, ou si une information importante a été cachée par l'assuré toutes les sommes qui auront été versées entre les mains de la compagnie pour le compte de l'assurance seront confisquées et l'assurance sera absolument nulle et de nul effet ; qu'il n'y aura pas de présomption de décès à raison de la disparition.

"Que si un billet, chèque, traite ou autre effet sont donnés pour la première prime ou pour une prime subséquente et s'ils ne sont pas payés à l'échéance, il est convenu que toute assurance ou police entreprise d'après cette demande deviendra dès lors nulle et de nul effet, mais le billet, le chèque, la traite ou autre effet devront néanmoins être payés.

"Que j'ai lu ou entendu lire et compris la dite demande et la convention qui en fait partie et je consens à tout ce qui s'y trouve, et je consens d'accepter la police lorsqu'elle sera émise aux conditions ci-mentionnées et de payer à la compagnie la prime de cette police en considération de son acceptation de cette demande."

Le reçu qui suit a été produit : "Compagnie d'assurance sur la vie North American. Bureau principal, Toronto, Ont. Première prime, $31.10 ; somme assurée, mille piastres. Reçu, ce sixième jour de décembre 1889, un billet de $31.10 pour la première prime sur la police nº 7710 sur la vie de de M. R. McGeachie, soumise à toutes les conditions de la dite police et à toutes celles inscrites au verso de la dite police, qui en font par le présent partie. W. McCabe, directeur-gérant.

"Cette police n'est pas valide ou n'a pas d'effet à moins que ce reçu ne soit contresigné par l'agent de la compagnie à la date réelle du paiement dans les trente jours de l'émission de la police, la vie de l'assuré étant alors telle qu'indiquée dans la demande de la police.

"Wm H. Hewson, agent à Sainte-Catherine.

"On attire particulièrement l'attention sur le verso de ce reçu."

Et au verso de ce reçu se lisait ce qui suit : "Dispositions relatives au paiement des primes. Toutes les primes sont dues au bureau principal de la compagnie en la cité de Toronto, province d'Ontario, à la date indiquée dans la police. Mais à la volonté de la compagnie, des personnes convenables pourront être autorisées à recevoir ces paiements à d'autres endroits ; mais seulement sur la production du recu de la compagnie signé par le président ou le directeur gérant. Nul paiement d'une prime fait de quelque manière que ce soit, sauf en échange d'un tel reçu, ne sera reconnu par la compagnie ou réputé paiement valide par l'une ou l'autre des parties. La remise en vigueur d'une police ne doit pas constituer en quelque cas que ce soit une obligation de la part de la compagnie de se désister du paiement d'une prime future lorsqu'elle devient échue."

"Le commencement d'une année d'assurance et la balance de la prime d'une année (toutes les primes sont payables d'avance annuellement), lorsque la prime est faite payable en versements semi-annuels ou trimestriels, la partie de la prime de l'année, s'il y en a, qui reste à payer à l'échéance de ce contrat sera considéré comme dette envers la compagnie au compte de la police, et sera déduite de la somme de la réclamation, et si une prime ou un effet pour une prime n'est pas payé le ou avant le jour de l'échéance, la compagnie, à compter de ce jour, sera dégagée de toute responsabilité aux termes de la police, sauf tel que modifié par les conditions qui n'impliquent pas forfait de la police, si la police a alors droit au bénéfice de la prime, et nul crédit pour le surplus accumulé sur la police sera réputé applicable au paiement d'une prime quelconque à moins que le consentement préalable de la compagnie ait été obtenu par écrit."

"N.-B. Les agents ne sont pas autorisés à faire des changements dans les reçus des primes ou de se désister du droit de confiscation ou de toutes conditions d'une police ou d'un reçu de prime ; ceci ne peut être fait que par écrit sous la signature du président ou du directeur gérant d'après la direction des directeurs."

La police sous le sceau de la défenderesse a été produite, laquelle police stipule que la défenderesse, en considération de la demande de cette police et des allégués et des conventions qu'elle contient, faisant par les présentes partie de ce contrat et de la prime annuelle de $31.10 à être versées entre les mains de la compagnie à son bureau principal dans la cité de Toronto sur la remise de cette police, et dans la suite le cinquième jour de décembre chaque année, pendant le terme de dix-neuf ans, assure la vie de Robert McGeachie, de Sainte-Catherine, dans le comté de Lincoln, dans la province d'Ontario, et promet payer à sa femme Emma Jane McGeachie, au cas où son décès surviendrait pendant la dite période, autrement à lui-même, ses exécuteurs, administrateurs ou ayants cause, la somme de mille piastres, en déduisant d'abord la balance de la prime de l'année courante, s'il y en a, et tous les prêts faits au compte de cette police, sur preuve satisfaisante à son bureau principal du décès de l'assuré pendant la durée de cette police et de sa remise avec le dernier reçu en renouvellement d'icelle." Et que " cette police est émise et acceptée d'après le plan à dividende du système de demi-tontine de la compagnie, aux conditions spéciales suivantes imprimées et écrites, et aussi à celles qui se trouvent au verso de cette police. Toutes les conditions sont par le présent incorporées dans la police et déclarées en faire partie."

" Dispositions G—Un délai d'un mois sera accordé pour le paiement des primes de polices de cette classe, et à l'expiration de ce délai, si les dites primes ne sont pas payées, cette police deviendra dès ce moment nulle. Mais la police pourra être remise en vigueur si demande en est faite par écrit à la compagnie à son bureau principal dans les deux mois à compter de l'expiration du mois de grâce, accompagnée d'un certificat de bonne santé d'un médecin examinateur de cette compagnie, sur la formule de la compagnie n° 24, soumis à son approbation ; pourvu toujours que chaque fois qu'on se prévaudra de cette grâce ou du privilège de la remise en vigueur, l'intérêt sera payé à la compagnie au taux de sept pour cent par année pendant les délais écoulés." Et que " nulle disposition de ce contrat ne peut être changée, abandonnée ou modifiée, ou un permis ne peut être accordé si ce n'est par une convention écrite sous la signature du président, du vice-président ou du directeur gérant de la compagnie."

Au verso de la dite police se lit ce qui suit : " Cette police est émise et aussi acceptée par l'assuré conformément aux dispositions et conventions additionnelles suivantes qui sont déclarées en faire partie." Au nombre des dispositions ainsi inscrites au verso se trouve la suivante : " Si un billet, chèque ou autre effet donné à compte d'une prime, n'est pas payé à l'échéance, cette police sera nulle et alors les paiements faits pour cette police seront confisqués en faveur de la compagnie." " Que dans aucune circonstance la police ne sera réputée en vigueur tant que le paiement réel et à l'acceptation de la première prime à raison de la police n'auront pas été faits à et par un agent autorisé de la compagnie, et tant que le reçu nécessaire signé par le directeur gérant n'aura pas été remis à l'assuré, la vie de la personne qu'on propose d'assurer étant à l'époque de tel paiement dans les mêmes conditions de santé qu'indiquée dans la demande de cette police." " Si la compagnie dans une circonstance quelconque consentait à renouveler ou à faire revivre une police après que celle-ci est devenue nulle et de nul effet, chaque tel renouvellement ou remise en vigueur sera toujours réputé comme ne créant en aucune façon un précédent dans le sens d'un désistement d'une condition ou d'une convention de la police ou de la demande. Le billet mentionné dans le dit reçu n'a pas été produit, mais il semble avoir été daté le quatre décembre 1889, à six mois, et avoir porté intérêt à raison de sept pour cent par année.

Le vingt-sept mai 1890 la défenderesse, par son directeur gérant, écrivit à Robert McGeachie ce qui suit : " Nous avons l'honneur de vous rappeler que votre billet de $31.10, plus $1.10 d'intérêt, devient dû ici au bureau principal le sept juin 1890. Vous obligerez beaucoup en y apportant une prompte attention."

Ce billet ne fut pas payé à l'échéance et un nouveau billet fut fait pour $32.20, comprenant la somme du premier billet et l'intérêt le sept juin 1890, payable à trente jours avec intérêt à sept pour cent par année. Un avis semblable à celui que la défenderesse avait donné à McGeachie le 27 mai 1890 lui fut donné par elle au sujet du billet mentionné en dernier lieu. Le 2 juillet 1890 McGeachie écrivit à la défenderesse comme suit : " Je suis incapable de payer le billet de $32.20 que vous avez de moi. Il me fait peine de m'être lancé dans cette affaire vu les circonstances où je me trouve aujourd'hui. Il y a environ un an il m'a fallu faire cession, et régler par billet, et j'en ai tout mon reste à me tirer d'affaire, l'échéance du billet arrive le dix juillet, ce sera sept mois d'assurance, ou supposé qu'on changerait le système de dotation à celui d'assurance ordinaire sur la vie sans profit. Combien me faudrait-il payer ? Veuillez répondre bientôt et obliger."

Le quatre juillet 1890 la défenderesse, par son directeur gérant, répondit ce qui suit : " Re Police 7710—Nous avons reçu la votre du deux courant. Evidemment vous saviez tout aussi bien qu'aujourd'hui quand vous avez accepté le billet si vous seriez en état d'y faire honneur à l'échéance, et conséquemment votre demande d'annuler la police est déraisonnable. Si vous étiez mort pendant la durée du billet votre femme se serait assurément attendue à ce que la compagnie paya la somme complète de la police, et cela avec beaucoup de raison. C'est pourquoi nous nous attendons à ce que vous payiez votre billet. Si vous nous remettez la moitié de la somme nous n'aurons pas d'objection à prolonger les délais de deux mois pour la balance, et je vous enverrai un billet pour cette somme pour que vous le signiez. Notre bureau de direction ne peut s'occuper de changer la présente police avant que le billet ait été payé."

Le susdit second billet ne fut pas payé à son échéance, et un nouveau billet fut pris en date du 10 juillet 1890, à deux mois, pour $22.40 avec intérêt au taux de sept pour cent par an, McGeachie ayant payé $10.00 comptant en acompte. Un avis semblable à celui que la défenderesse avait donné à McGeachie le 27 mai 1890, lui fut donné par elle le 2 septembre 1890 au sujet du billet mentionné en dernier lieu. Le billet mentionné en dernier lieu ne fut pas payé à son échéance, et la défenderesse accepta de McGeachie un nouveau billet en date du 13 septembre 1890, à un mois, pour $22.80. Le 15 septembre 1890, la défenderesse par son directeur gérant écrivit à McGeachie ce qui suit : " Nous avons reçu votre billet en renouvellement de celui dont l'échéance tombe le 13 courant. Nous vous renvoyons sous ce pli le vieux billet dûment annulé et nous vous faisons remarquer d'avoir à nous expédier les fonds pour le billet que nous avons reçu aujourd'hui avant son échéance. Un avis semblable à celui que la défenderesse avait donné à McGeachie le 27 mai 1890 lui fut donné par la défenderesse le 3 octobre 1890. Le billet mentionné en dernier lieu ne fut pas payé à son échéance, et le cinquième jour de novembre 1890 la défenderesse par son directeur gérant écrivit à McGeachie comme suit : " 7710 ; nous avions raison d'espérer recevoir une lettre de vous avant aujourd'hui avec les fonds nécessaires pour solder votre billet dont échéance est tombée le 16 du mois dernier.

Veuillez immédiatement vous occuper de l'affaire." Cette lettre fut mise à la poste à Toronto le 5 novembre 1890, et elle porte le sceau postal de Sainte-Catherine en date du 6 novembre 1890, et c'est le matin de ce jour là que McGeachie mourut. La somme du billet et des intérêts furent offerts à la défenderesse, qui refusa de les accepter. La preuve du décès fut dûment donnée le 30 décembre 1890.

Le savant juge Street rendit jugement tel que rapporté à la page 32 du dernier rapport.

Le 17 novembre 1891 M. Aylesworth, C.R., demanda que le dit jugement fut mis de côté et que jugement soit rendu pour la demanderesse pour la somme complète réclamée, avec intérêt et dépens, ou qu'un nouveau procès eut lieu, ou que tel autre arrêt soit rendu qu'on jugera à propos pour les fins de la requête, pour les raisons suivantes : (1) Que le dit jugement était contraire à la preuve et à la valeur de la preuve. (2) Que le dit jugement était erroné en droit. (3) Que le savant juge aurait dû juger que la dite compagnie, en acceptant le billet pour la prime, et en le renouvelant de temps à autre, se trouvait empêchée par son propre fait d'alléguer en défense que la dite police était nulle à raison du non-paiement du dernier billet en renouvellement. (4) Que le savant juge aurait dû juger que la disposition G à la dite police, stipulant qu'un délai d'un mois serait accordé pour le paiement de la prime, s'appliquait au billet donné pour la dite prime et en renouvellement des dits billets, et que la somme du dernier billet en renouvellement ayant été offerte à la dite compagnie dans les trente jours à compter de la date de son échéance, la dite compagnie n'avait pas le droit d'annuler ou de déclarer nulle la dite police à raison du non-paiement du dit billet. Et la demanderesse avait conséquemment le droit de recouvrer la somme de la dite police. (5) Que le savant juge, dans tous les cas, aurait dû juger comme fait que la compagnie, en exigeant le paiement du dernier billet, consentait par sa lettre du 5 novembre à se désister de tout droit, si elle en avait, quant à l'annulation de la dite police pour non-paiement du dit billet. (6) Que le savant juge aurait dû juger d'après la preuve que la compagnie était prête à accepter les fonds conformément aux termes de la lettre du 5 novembre, et que si ces fonds avaient été versés la défenderesse ne se serait pas prévalu de l'annulation de la police. (7) Que le témoignage du gérant de la compagnie prouvait que la dite compagnie n'avait pas pris de mesure pour confisquer ou annuler la police.

M. W. McDonald réplique.

Armour, J. C.—Cette cause me semble très claire et me paraît reposer complètement sur la question de savoir si la police était en vigueur à l'époque du décès de l'assuré, car si elle l'était, aucun procédé subséquent de la défenderesse ne pourrait affecter la réclamation de la demanderesse.

Olmstead v. The Farmers' Mutual, 50 Mich. 200.

Par la remise du billet pour la prime et par l'émission de la police le risque surgissait soumis à l'annulation de la police à cause du non-accomplissement par l'assuré de la condition subséquente, soit le paiement du billet à son échéance.

La loi qui s'applique à la résiliation des baux, à cause du non accomplissement des conditions s'applique également à l'annulation d'une police, tel que celle dont il s'agit à raison du non-accomplissement d'une condition subséquente qui s'y trouve.

Cette police était susceptible d'être annulée à raison du défaut de paiement du billet accepté pour la prime, mais uniquement aux choix des assureurs ; Wing v. Harvey 5 De G. M. et G. 265 ; Armstrong v. Pierspond 9 Ir C. L. 325 ; Mackie v. European Co. 21 L. T. N. S. 102.

A défaut du paiement du billet les assureurs pouvaient décider d'annuler la police, ou ils pouvaient décider de ne pas l'annuler mais de la continuer ; et d'après la preuve que nous avons devant nous, je crois qu'il est clair qu'ils ont décidé de ne pas l'annuler mais de la continuer.

Du commencement à la fin dans la correspondance ou dans la conduite des assureurs il n'y a rien qui indique ou qui suggère qu'ils avaient décidé d'annuler la police, au contraire ; il n'y a rien non plus qui indique ou qui suggère que tout en décidant d'annuler la police, ils insistaient néanmoins sur le paiement du billet, au contraire.

La correspondance et la conduite des assureurs lorsque eut lieu défaut de paiement du premier billet, démontre clairement qu'ils préféraient ne pas annuler la police mais bien de la continuer, et que tout en préférant annuler la police, néanmoins ils n'insistaient pas sur le paiement du billet, et donnent la preuve qu'ils avaient préféré maintenir la police jusqu'au décès de l'assuré.

Ils acceptèrent pour la somme et l'intérêt du premier billet un nouveau billet portant intérêt à sept pour cent par an à trente jours, et lorsque pendant la durée de ce billet l'assuré leur demanda par lettre à quelles conditions ils le dégageraient en annulant la police le 10 juillet, ils lui répondirent le 4 que sa demande relative à l'annulation de la police était déraisonnable. A ce moment ils faisaient voir non seulement que malgré le défaut de paiement du dernier billet ils avaient décidé de ne pas annuler la police, et que tout en préférant annuler la police ils n'insistaient pas sur le paiement du billet, mais ils démontraient aussi qu'ils préféraient continuer la police, et qu'ils agissaient à l'égard de cette police comme si elle existait.

Rien ne démontre que leur ligne de conduite relativement à cette police, telle que les faits la rendent manifeste, n'ait été en aucune façon modifiée jusqu'au décès de l'assuré.

Ils acceptèrent pour la somme du billet mentionné en dernier lieu une remise en espèces de $10 d'un nouveau billet de $22.40 avec intérêt à sept pour cent par année à deux mois à compter du 10 juillet 1890, et à son échéance ils acceptèrent pour la somme du dit billet et l'intérêt un nouveau billet de $22.80 à un mois, et après défaut de paiement de ce dernier billet ils écrivirent à l'assuré le 5 novembre 1890 : "7710. Nous avions raison d'espérer recevoir une lettre de vous avant aujourd'hui avec les fonds nécessaires pour solder votre billet dont l'échéance est tombée le 16 du mois dernier. Veuillez immédiatement vous occuper de l'affaire," et avant que cette lettre n'arrivât à l'assuré le jour suivant, l'assuré était mort. Assurément cette lettre doit être interprêtée au point de vue de la correspondance et de la conduite antérieures des assureurs dans le sens qu'ils agissaient envers la police comme si elle subsistait et qu'elle rejette l'idée qu'ils avaient décidé d'annuler la police.

On a prétendu, parce que les assureurs avaient le droit, tout en décidant d'annuler la police, d'insister néanmoins sur le paiement du billet dont il est fait mention, que la lettre doit signifier qu'ils entendaient par cette lettre insister simplement sur le paiement du billet, ayant fait le choix d'annuler la police ; mais le refus des assureurs de recevoir la somme du billet et des intérêts lorsqu'on leur en fit l'offre, établit clairement qu'on ne peut retirer cette signification de la lettre. La lettre écrite traitait et était destinée à traiter la police comme si elle existait, et elle demandait l'attention bienveillante et immédiate de l'assuré pour le paiement du billet.

Supposez que l'assuré eut soldé le billet le 6 novembre et qu'il serait décédé le 7, présenterait-on une défense contre cette réclamation ? Evidemment non, je crois ; et à mon avis on ne peut présenter de défense à son encontre, vu les faits qui se sont passés.

La demanderesse, à mon avis, a droit de recouvrer la somme assurée avec les intérêts à compter du premier janvier 1891, moins la somme du billet de l'assuré avec intérêt aux taux de sept pour cent par année et ses frais du litige.

On croit savoir que la défenderesse a porté la cause devant la cour d'appel d'Ontario. La question en jeu est très importante, et justifie pleinement ce procédé de la part de la défenderesse.

La Reine vs. Stapleton.

Depuis l'adoption de l'Acte des assurances il a été intenté très peu de poursuites sous l'empire de cette loi. On ne doit pas cependant prendre cela comme preuve que ses dispositions n'ont pas été enfreintes. Il y a sans doute eu nombre de cas où la lettre et l'esprit de la loi ont été mis de côté, plus particulièrement par les associations et les sociétés qui se disent fraternelles par leur nature et dans leurs pratiques, et qui s'arrogent le droit de faire des affaires en Canada en vertu de l'exception que contient l'article 43 de l'acte. De cette catégorie se trouve l'International Fraternal Alliance dont il est question dans le jugement prononcé dans la cause reproduite plus bas. Le défendeur, un nommé Charles Stapleton, a été traduit, trouvé coupable et condamné à l'amende par le magistrat de police d'Oshawa, dans le comté d'Ontario, qui prononça le 18 décembre 1891 le jugement suivant, énonçant clairement les faits et la preuve.

Canada,
Province d'Ontario,
Comté d'Ontario.
Savoir :

Dans la cour de police de la ville d'Oshawa, les 2, 9, 10 et 11 décembre 1891.

LA REINE, sur l'information et la plainte d'Alonzo Ruttan, de la ville d'Oshawa, dans le comté d'Ontario,

CONTRE

CHARLES STAPLETON, de la dite ville d'Oshawa, l'accusant d'avoir le ou vers le mois de novembre, en la ville d'Oshawa, illégalement fait des affaires d'assurance autres que les affaires d'assurance sur la vie, contre le feu ou sur la navigation intérieure, c'est-à-dire d'avoir fait des affaires d'assurance contre les accidents au nom de la International Fraternal Alliance, compagnie d'assurance dans le sens de l'article 2, chapitre 124 des Statuts revisés du Canada, sans être muni du permis requis par la loi à cette fin.

Cette information m'est soumise sous l'empire des dispositions de l'article 49 du chapitre 124 susmentionné qui me donne jurisdiction.

La poursuite a été conduite par M. J. E. Farewell, C.R., substitut du procureur pour le comté, et la défense par M. Charles Lount, C.R., de la société légale Lount, Marsh, Lindsey et Lindsey, Toronto.

La preuve produite par la poursuite était volumineuse et se composait du témoignage de huit personnes que sauf une exception, le défendeur avait sollicitées devenir membres d'une branche de la International Fraternal Alliance sur le point de s'organiser à Oshawa.

Tous les témoins s'accordèrent à dire que le défendeur leur avait expliqué les avantages à retirer en faisant partie de l'Alliance, les sept piastres par semaine, en cas de maladie ou d'accident, et les sept cents piastres à l'expiration de sept années, en sus d'autres avantages, tels que, dans certains cas, un paiement de deux cents piastres en trois ans, un autre paiement de deux cents piastres dans cinq ans, puis un paiement additionnel final de trois cents piastres en sept ans, que l'Alliance donnait de meilleurs bénéfices pour moins d'argent que toutes autres compagnies d'assurance avec lesquelles il comparait son système. Plusieurs témoins se sont servis des mots "police" et "assurance" pour indiquer ce qu'ils comprenaient par ce qu'ils faisaient, et d'autres parlent de l'association comme d'une association de bénéfice. Tous étaient entrés dans la société, quatre avaient versé chacun cinq piastres comme contribution d'entrée, et trois n'avaient pas encore d'argent.

A la clôture de la preuve de la poursuite M. Farewell produit une lettre de M. Fitzgerald, surintendant des assurances, à Ottawa, lequel déclarait que le gouvernement du Canada, ou le ministre des finances ou quiconque en son nom, conformément aux dispositions de l'acte, chapitre 124 des Statuts revisés du Canada, n'avait pas donné ou accordé de permis d'aucune sorte à l'International Fraternal Alliance ; il produit aussi une liste que contenait la dite lettre, qui est la liste officielle des compagnies d'assurance faisant affaire sous l'empire de l'Acte des assurances ; aussi la Gazette du Canada, pièce (B), du 28 novembre 1891.

La poursuite a aussi produit comme pièce (A), une petite feuille imprimée de l'ordre de l'International Fraternal Alliance, aussi pièce (C), un reçu de l'association ; pièce (D) une petite feuille de l'ordre ; pièce (B), un reçu de l'association ; aussi pièce (I) semblable à la pièce (A) ; pièce (J), lettre de M. Fitzgerald ; pièce (H), semblable aux pièces (E et C). Ceci clos la cause de la poursuite.

Pour la défense un seul témoin, le docteur T. F. Pennington, de Baltimore, membre de l'ordre, est appelé, il produit comme pièce (F) la constitution et les lois générales de l'ordre ; comme pièce (G) le rituel de l'ordre ; comme pièce (K) la charte. Il est membre de l'ordre de la cité de Baltimore. Il affirme aussi que Charles Stapleton, le défendeur, agit comme vice-président, dont le devoir est d'organiser des assemblées de l'ordre, et qu'il a été dûment autorisé à organiser une branche à cet endroit, savoir, à Oshawa. Il affirme aussi que la société dont il est membre n'a pas de permis d'aucune sorte en Canada pour y faire des affaires d'assurance contre les accidents et sur la vie, qu'un permis n'est pas nécessaire pour leur permettre d'y faire leurs opérations. Ceci clos la cause de la défense, à l'exception d'objections nombreuses relatives à l'admission de certaines parties de témoignages, qui à mon avis ne préjudicient la cause ni d'un côté ni de l'autre.

La cause ayant été pleinement et habilement argumentée devant moi, il ne me reste plus qu'à prononcer jugement.

Après un examen minutieux de la preuve et des divers documents qui me sont soumis, j'éprouve peu de difficultés à determiner ce que doit être mon jugement dans l'espèce, mais j'ai compris que dans une affaire qui se débat pour la première fois dans une cour, affaire que les procureurs ont dit avoir une très grande importance et d'un intérêt général et étendu pour une multitude de personnes, il serait convenable pour moi de mettre sous les yeux du public les motifs sur lesquels je base ce jugement.

La International Fraternal Alliance de Baltimore, Maryland, E.-U. A., prétend être une association de bienfaisance dans le sens de l'article 43 du statut, chap. 124 S.R.C., qui déclare : "rien dans "le présent acte ne s'appliquera à aucune société ou réunion d'individus organisés pour des fins de con-"fraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion." Pour nous rendre compte de la question de savoir jusqu'à quel point cet article s'applique à la cause en litige, nous devons consulter sa charte, sa constitution, ses déclarations, ses règles de procédure et sa pratique. Les phrases qui servent d'exode à sa constitution sont admirables, elles se lisent comme suit :—

Sans distinction de croyance, de foi ou de politique, cet ordre s'efforcera d'avantager ses membres moralement, intellectuellement et financièrement, en réunissant des hommes et des femmes bons et honorables dans ses assemblées, et s'efforcera en tout temps d'administrer et de favoriser leurs intérêts, leur bien-être et leur prospérité générale.

Il est du devoir de toutes les assemblées de surveiller les intérêts de chacun de ses membres dans la maladie ou l'oppression, et de les aider, les encourager et les protéger dans un esprit véritablement chevaleresque de fraternité.

Il est du devoir des membres de l'ordre de se patroniser les uns les autres dans le commerce, de parler en bien des uns des autres, et de s'aider les uns les autres par tous moyens justes qui peuvent se présenter dans le commerce ou ailleurs.

De se traiter les uns les autres avec véracité, et une honnêteté et une justice scrupuleuses, car le plus grand crime dans cet ordre est, pour des membres, d'exploiter ou de traiter avec injustice un frère ou une sœur, lesquels membres s'exposeraient en conséquence à être expulsés ou suspendus d'une façon très prompte.

De protéger le nom, la renommée ou le crédit de chaque ou de tout frère ou sœur de l'ordre, et de voir dans tous les cas à ce qu'il ne soit pas commis d'injustice contre eux.

L'article 4 du même chapitre (chap. n° 1) déclare qu'un des buts de l'ordre est l'établissement d'un fonds de bienfaisance pour le secours de ses membres malades, victimes d'accidents ou dans le malheur. Vient ensuite le chapitre 2, corps que régissent l'ordre, sénateurs et représentants. Les sénateurs se composeront de tous les membres de l'ordre qui ont contribué des fonds pour son avancement dans le but de l'établir sur des bases permanentes, sans tenir compte des paiements faits sur leur certificat de bénéfice, et qui ont été identifiés à l'ordre pendant une période qui fait que leur expérience est une grande valeur pour l'ordre." La première clause pénale sous laquelle nous tombons se trouve à la page 14, chap. 9, sect. 1, intitulé : "Punition pour ne pas protéger le bon nom de l'ordre," c'est une déclaration générale de punition au moyen d'une suspension instantanée, sans procès. La page 17 de la constitution stipule que le défaut de la part du trésorier d'une assemblée ou d'une loge de faire aucun des rapports stipulés aura l'effet de suspendre la dite assemblée et chaque membre d'icelle de tout autre intérêt dans l'ordre," et la réintégration me semble être accompagnée de grandes difficultés chaque fois qu'il y a suspension. Le chapitre 12 de la constitution, pages 22 et 23, a trait en particulier au paiement de contributions mensuelles par les membres, et ses dispositions sous ce rapport sont très sévères. Je cite les articles 5 et 6, page 24, chap. 12.

"Si un membre manquait de faire aucun versement requis le ou avant le dernier jour du mois de l'échéance, ou s'il était suspendu pour toute autre cause, ou s'il était membre d'une assemblée suspendue, alors dans l'un et l'autre cas tous les bénéfices sous l'empire de son certificat prendront fin, et jusqu'à ce que la réintégration ait lieu conformément à ces lois, ils resteront nuls et de nul effet, et en aucun cas un malade pourra se prévaloir du fonds de bienfaisance à moins que la maladie n'arrive après trente jours de la date de la réintégration par le cabinet.

"Tout membre de cet ordre peut être expulsé pour malhonnêteté, mauvais principes ou immoralité, après avoir reçu avis de comparaître et avoir subi un procès. En pareil cas tous les bénéfices à venir de toute nature prennent fin. Ce membre peut interjeter appel conformément à ces lois. Dans le cas de défaut de paiement de toute somme due dans les délais voulus, il (ou elle) sera privé des bénéfices et ne sera qu'un membre social tant qu'il (ou elle) ne se sera pas conformé à telles règles. Les lois de l'ordre n'exigent pas qu'avis à cet effet soit donné à un membre qui manque de payer une somme due dans les délais voulus conformément à l'avis de payer qui leur aura été expédié par la poste, mais chacun se trouvera immédiatement suspendu par le fait de sa propre volonté, et le défaut de réception de tel avis ne sera pas une excuse pour tout non-paiement."

Ces citations indiquent, à mon avis, la véritable nature des opérations de cette Alliance, et plus particulièrement les passages qui font voir la promptitude et la diligence avec lesquelles les déchéances arrivent, et la constitution du sénat qui me paraît donner l'idée qu'il existe un gouvernement intérieur immuable, dont les actes et les fins peuvent considérablement différer de tout ce qui se publie.

Je consulte maintenant la feuille (pièce "A") que le défendeur à mise en circulation afin d'engager des personnes à devenir membres de l'Alliance dont il était l'agent dûment accrédité. En tête on lit ce qui suit : "Sans égal pour l'excellence de ses plans, les modes de son fonctionnement, son originalité, sa nature avantageuse, son peu de frais, ses résultats sûrs." La feuille ajoute : "le système sur lequel elle opère est celui de tous les ordres fraternels de bienfaisance bien établis et qui ont réussi. L'expérience des vingt dernières années a fait voir que, pour l'assurance ordinaire sur la vie, la Fraternelle occupe le premier rang pour ce qui est de la garantie, et plus particulièrement pour ses bas prix ou frais surprenants." Puis à la page 3 : "Les avantages de cet ordre sont doubles :

1. Les relations sociales. 2. Les ressources pécuniaires."

Vous obtenez les premières par vos rapports agréables avec vos co-sociétaires, et les secondes en la manière indiquée dans les tableaux de bénéfices qui suivent et dans chacun desquels le mot "police" se présente aussi souvent que dans une feuille d'assurance. Dans toutes ces déclarations, nous cherchons en vain à trouver ce magnifique enchaînement de bienfaisance qui, d'après l'article 2 du chapitre 1 de la constitution, doit être la pratique régissante de l'organisation. Des rapports agréables, une prompte décapitation et une prompte déchéance des paiements, semblent être tout ce qu'on offre à la place. Mais si on pouvait avoir des doutes sur la nature des affaires de cette alliance fraternelle et les fins à atteindre, cet extrait de la pièce "A" susmentionnée devrait les faire disparaître rapidement.

"Déchéances comme sources de profits."

L'idée commune que les déchéances ne sont qu'une source de profits d'après la somme d'argent payable est une erreur. Elles paient les membres qui persistent de deux façons :

1. Par les fonds versés.
2. Par la perte des profits leur revenant de l'augmentation et des déchéances avant eux.

Ainsi Jones avait versé $27 dont il était déchu. Naturellement l'ordre (les membres) s'en trouvait mieux d'autant. Mais (2) il acquit aussi tout ce que Jones perdit en perdant sa place dans l'ordre de maturité, et, conséquemment, sa proportion de gains qui (s'il était resté) se trouverait à son crédit à raison des déchéances et de l'augmentation des membres depuis qu'il est entré dans la société, ce qu'il ne peut recevoir s'il se retire avant sa maturité.

La société dite Knights of Honour a payé environ $28,000,000 en réclamations de décès, et naturellement toute cette somme a été retirée des membres, par cotisations, dans le cours des quatorze dernières années. Récemment, l'examen de leurs livres a révélé le fait étonnant que sur les $28,000,000, les membres alors véritablement en vigueur n'avaient versé que $9,000,000. Or la seule explication et la seule cause de ceci est que ceux qui n'étaient pas en vigueur (déchus) avaient versé la balance de $19,000,000. C'est assurément quelque chose qui mérite examen, et c'est certes un fait étonnant.

C'est en réalité un fait étonnant s'il est vrai, $19,000,000 retirés en 14 ans, de la bourse des pauvres, des malheureux, du pauvre homme temporairement sans travail, d'une personne quelconque dans un moment d'oubli, et cependant, c'est la ligne de conduite que suit cette alliance, et, en la suivant, prétend être une organisation de bienfaisance dans le sens de l'article 43 du statut, recevant de l'argent pour lequel elle ne donne absolument aucune valeur, elle légifère avec une ingénuité qui ne peut être surpassée pour accomplir la déchéance des paiements faits, et traite de la façon la plus rigoureuse les membres en défaut, agissant tout le temps en vertu de "notre devise" mise avec tant d'étalage à la première page de la constitution : "Aime ton prochain comme toi-même."

Je suis d'avis que la International Fraternal Alliance n'est pas une association ou société dans le sens de l'article 43 du statut, chapitre 124 S.R.C.

Je suis d'avis que la International Fraternal Alliance est une compagnie dans le sens de l'article 2, paragraphe (e) du dit acte.

Je suis d'avis que la International Fraternal Alliance fait des affaires d'assurance contre les accidents, tel que le comporte la plainte, et la défense déclarant sous serment que l'International Fraternal Alliance n'avait ou n'a pas de licence ou permis du ministre des finances du gouvernement du Canada conformément aux stipulations de l'article 49 du dit statut et sans lequel elle ne peut légalement faire des affaires en Canada,

Je suis d'avis que le dit Charles Stapleton a encouru les peines prescrites par l'article 49 du dit statut pour telle infraction.

Le jugement du tribunal est que vous, Charles Stapleton, êtes coupable de l'offense dont vous êtes accusé.

La sentence de la cour est que vous payiez une amende de trente piastres et les frais tels que ci-après écrits, et il est ordonné que la dite amende et les dits frais seront payés immédiatement, et que s'ils ne sont pas ainsi payés vous soyiez emprisonné dans la prison commune du comté d'Ontario pendant une période de 30 jours aux travaux forcés, à moins que les dits frais et amende et les frais de votre transport à la prison ne soient plus tôt payés, et comme le statut décrète que la moitié de la dite amende appartiendra à Sa Majesté quand elle aura été recouvrée et que l'autre moitié ira au dénonciateur, j'en ordonne ainsi.

On n'a pas jugé nécessaire de publier les pièces dont il est question dans le jugement qui précède. En guise d'appel du jugement du magistrat de police, le défendeur Stapleton demanda à la cour des plaidoyers communs à Toronto, une règle afin d'annuler la susdite sentence, et après une argumentation complète la règle fut refusée, et voici comment s'exprime le tribunal en rendant jugement :

La Reine vs Stapleton.

Il s'agit d'une motion pour une règle nisi afin d'amender la sentence prononcée en vertu de l'article 49, chap. 124 S.R.C., qui défend l'émission d'une police autre qu'une police d'assurance sur la vie, contre l'incendie ou contre les risques de la navigation intérieure, ni en percevoir de primes, sans en avoir obtenu la permission du ministre des finances.

D'après la preuve le défendeur a reçu $5 qui, je crois, d'après les témoignages, étaient une prime dans le sens de l'article 49, paragraphe 3. Je ne vois pas de raisons pour lesquelles une règle nisi devrait être accordée. J'ai examiné avec soin les témoignages, et il me semble qu'il est abondamment claire qu'une preuve existait pour justifier la sentence du magistrat que le système était un système d'assurance contre les accidents et qu'il tombait expressément sous le coup des mots "aucune compagnie ou personne ne pourra délivrer de polices autres que des polices d'assurance sur la vie, etc.," et je suis aussi d'avis que l'article 43 ne vient en aucune façon à l'aide du défendeur, cet article établissant simplement une exception en faveur de "toute société ou réunion d'individus, organisée pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion, et dont l'un des objets est l'assurance de ses membres exclusivement." Ce système n'en était pas un "pour l'assurance de ses membres exclusivement," mais bien un système d'assurance contre les accidents. Même si, d'après la preuve, le jugement comportait que cette société ou organisation était "organisée pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion," ce dont je doute beaucoup, je ne trouverais pas à redire contre le jugement que c'était un système établi dans le but de se soustraire aux dispositions du statut. Il n'est pas nécessaire, toutefois, de se former une opinion arrêtée sur une telle question, car je ne crois pas possible de se rendre à l'argument de M. Lounts, lorsqu'il dit que les affaires d'assurance contre les accidents tombent dans le domaine des mots "pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion." Si l'association désire faire des affaires d'assurance contre les accidents, elle devra prendre des mesures prescrites par le statut et en obtenir la permission des autorités requises.

Dans mon opinion la règle doit être refusée.

Conséquemment, la sentence du défendeur a été maintenue et il paya subséquemment l'amende imposée.

LA COMPAGNIE D'ASSURANCE AGRICOLE DU CANADA.

Par l'acte 41 Vic., chap. 38, sanctionné le 10 mai 1878, cette compagnie fut en effet déclarée insolvable, et Philip S. Ross, William T. Fish et George H. Dumesnil furent nommés syndics. Les états que firent les syndics furent publiés, d'année en année, dans les rapports de ce bureau jusqu'à 1886 inclusivement. N'ayant reçu d'état subséquemment à cette date, le surintendant, en septembre 1891, écrivit à M. Ross la lettre reproduite plus bas :—

7 septembre 1891.

A M. Philip S. Ross,
Un des syndics conjoints de la
Compagnie d'assurance Agricole du Canada, Montréal.

Cher monsieur,—Dans votre lettre du 6 avril 1888, vous disiez, en réponse à une communication de ce département qui demandait le rapport habituel requis par la loi, qu'il n'y avait pas eu de changement depuis votre dernier rapport d'alors (31 décembre 1886), à raison d'une requête présentée en cour par les actionnaires en mars 1887 pour suspendre les procédés. Auriez-vous l'obligeance de me transmettre un état indiquant les procédés qui ont eu lieu depuis votre dernier rapport, ainsi que l'état requis par la loi faisant voir les présentes conditions des affaires de la compagnie en faillite.

Votre obéissant serviteur,
W. FITZGERALD,
Surintendant des assurances.

On reçut la réponse suivante :

Montréal, 10 septembre 1891.

A M. W. Fitzgerald.

Mon cher monsieur,—J'ai reçu votre lettre du 7 courant et j'ai l'honneur de vous dire en réponse :

1. En mars 1887 les actionnaires, que les syndics de la Compagnie d'assurance Agricole du Canada poursuivaient pour leur faire payer leurs actions, présentèrent une requête en cour pour faire suspendre les procédés.
2. Une assemblée fut convoquée et cette assemblée demanda aux syndics de se démettre.
3. Je donnai une démission pour moi-même seul.
4. Les créanciers convoquèrent une autre assemblée, me prièrent de retirer cette démission, en exprimant leur confiance dans les syndics.
5. Les actionnaires présentèrent alors une requête pour le renvoi des syndics et la nomination d'un nommé Thomas Darling.
6. La cour décida en faveur de la nomination de Darling.
7. Les créanciers s'opposèrent à cela et allèrent en appel.
8. La cour du banc de la reine confirma le jugement de la cour inférieure.
9. Dans l'intervalle mourut Darling.
10. La cour ordonna une assemblée des créanciers et des actionnaires pour en nommer un nouveau.
11. Dans l'intervalle M. Dumesnil, un des anciens syndics, décéda, et M. Fish est dans une prostration complète et ne ne peut agir. J'ai refusé d'agir.
12. Conséquemment l'assemblée des actionnaires et des créanciers nomma un nommé J. M. M. Duff, ce que le juge confirma.

Je suis maintenant à transmettre tous les livres, documents, etc., à M. Duff.

13. Il n'y a pas eu de transactions depuis le mois de mars 1887 ; des transactions importantes, dans tous les cas.
14. Lorsque M. Duff sera bien au fait, il n'y pas de doute que lui et moi nous vous faisions un rapport collectif jusqu'à cette date.

Je suis votre obéissant serviteur,
PHILIP S. ROSS,
Un des ex-liquidateurs de la Cie A.A.C.

Le surintendant n'a pas reçu de rapport du genre de celui indiqué au paragraphe 14 de la lettre de M. Ross. Cependant une circulaire publiée par M. Duff, en date du 15 février 1892, fait voir la position présente des affaires de la compagnie. La circulaire en question se lit comme suit :

RE LA COMPAGNIE D'ASSURANCE AGRICOLE DU CANADA.

Faillie.

Mon cher monsieur,—Recevez par les présentes avis que, par un jugement de la cour supérieure, à Montréal, en date du 28 août 1891, j'ai été nommé syndic de la Compagnie d'assurance Agricole du Canada, faillie.

Comme vous le savez, la compagnie est en faillite depuis le mois de mai 1878, soit près de quatorze ans. MM. Ross, Fish et Dumesnil furent les premiers syndics, mais après qu'ils eurent exercé ces fonctions pendant plusieurs années, un certain nombre d'actionnaires et de créanciers devinrent mécontents à leur endroit et instituèrent des procédés pour leur renvoi, procédés qui ne furent terminés qu'il y a quelques mois.

Depuis ma nomination j'ai examiné les affaires de la compagnie avec le concours des inspecteurs, MM. J. O. Dupuis et Alex. Ramsay, et nous constatons que le seul actif disponible consiste dans la dette des actionnaires pour telle partie de leurs actions du capital qui n'a pas encore été complètement payée. Nombre d'actionnaires ont payé considérablement, plusieurs ont failli, d'autres sont dans des conditions très précaires, tandis que d'autres ont quitté leur ancienne résidence ; d'un autre côté plusieurs ont été enlevés par la mort, laissant peu ou point de biens après eux. J'ai communiqué avec tous ceux qui ont des arrérages et j'ai reçu des réponses de plusieurs, et, après tout, je crois qu'il est inutile de s'attendre à recouvrir suffisamment pour payer autre chose qu'une très faible moyenne des réclamations.

Si les créanciers en général consentaient à accepter une composition de dix pour cent sur leurs réclamations, à condition d'être payés dans les six mois, je crois qu'ils pourraient réaliser cela ; mais il est à peu près impossible de réaliser davantage pour le moment.

Si on ne peut arriver à un règlement sur cette base, il deviendra alors nécessaire de rouvrir le nombre très considérable de procès commencés il y a longtemps ; et comme il semble exister une détermination très générale, parmi les actionnaires en état de payer, de résister à tous les efforts qu'on pourrait faire pour les contraindre à payer leurs obligations, il s'écoulera des années avant qu'on en voit la fin ; des frais considérables se feront et les résultats pécuniaires seraient très douteux.

Aurez-vous, conséquemment, l'obligeance de dater et de signer la carte postale ci-jointe et me la renvoyer immédiatement, si vous êtes disposé à accepter tel règlement.

Il est de la plus grande importance que, quoi qu'on doive faire, on le fasse promptement ; c'est pourquoi je vous serai obligé de bien vouloir vous occuper de cette affaire immédiatement, afin qu'on ne perde pas de temps.

Votre obéissant serviteur,
J. M. M. DUFF,
Syndic.

Nous approuvons pleinement

LÉGISLATION.

La Compagnie d'assurance sur la vie, la Victoria, a obtenu une charte du parlement, et un acte a été passé pour modifier la charte de la Compagnie d'inspection de chaudières et d'assurance du Canada et pour augmenter ses pouvoirs.

Lors de la dernière session du parlement, M. White, M.P., a présenté un bill dont le texte, tel que le comité des banques et du commerce a proposé de le modifier, se lit comme suit :—

ACTE MODIFIANT DE NOUVEAU L'ACTE DES ASSURANCES.

Sa Majesté, par et avec l'avis et le consentement du Sénat et de la Chambre des Communes du Canada, décrète ce qui suit :—

1. L'article vingt-six de l'Acte des Assurances, chapitre cent vingt-quatre des Statuts revisés, est par le présent modifié en en retranchant le mot " vingt-sept," dans la première ligne, et le remplaçant par " vingt-six A."

2. Le dit acte est aussi par le présent modifié en y ajoutant les articles qui suivent immédiatement après l'article vingt-six :—

" 26A. Aucune compagnie ne devra, à l'égard d'aucune police émise ou qu'elle conviendra d'émettre, faire aucune distinction entre des personnes assurées d'après un même système, dont les chances de vie sont les mêmes et qui sont également assurables, soit dans le montant de la prime exigée, dans le remboursement de dividendes sur primes, dans le paiement de boni, dans les additions de boni, soit autrement.

" 26B. Aucun agent, sous-agent, courtier ou autre personne agissant pour quelque compagnie, ou sollicitant pour elle ou lui obtenant des affaires, ne fera aucun contrat d'assurance, ni aucun marché à l'égard d'un contrat d'assurance, autre que celui qui est exprimé dans la police émise ou à émettre à ce sujet ; et aucune compagnie, agent, sous-agent, courtier ou autre personne ne paiera ou ne donnera, ou n'offrira de payer ou donner, directement ou indirectement, à qui que ce soit comme encouragement à s'assurer aucune réduction de prime, ni aucune faveur ou aucun avantage spécial, autre que ce qui sera spécifié dans la police émise ou à émettre.

" 26C. Aucune personne, à moins d'être directeur, gérant, secrétaire. actuaire ou autre principal officier d'une compagnie, n'agira comme agent, sous-agent ou courtier, ni sous aucune autre désignation ou en aucune autre qualité, en sollicitant ou obtenant des demandes d'assurances pour quelque compagnie, et aucune telle personne ne sollicitera ou ne procurera aucune demande de police d'assurance, sans avoir au préalable obtenu une licence d'agent du surintendant ; pourvu que les licences d'agents délivrées en conformité d'un acte de la législature de quelque province formant actuellement partie du Canada à des personnes domiciliées et faisant affaires comme tels agents dans les limites de cette province, puissent être endossées par le surintendant comme valables en vertu du présent acte.

" 2. Toute licence délivrée en vertu des dispositions du présent article expirera le trente-unième jour de décembre de chaque année, mais pourra être renouvelée d'une année à l'autre.

" 3. Il sera payé au ministre des finances et receveur général, lors de l'émission ou du renouvellement d'une licence, un honoraire de deux piastres, qui sera affecté aux dépenses du surintendant.

" 4. Le surintendant fera publier trimestriellement, dans la Gazette du Canada, une liste des personnes licenciées par lui en vertu du présent article, en donnant leurs noms, prénoms et adresses ; et s'il est donné une licence à un agent, ou si la licence d'un agent est suspendue, remise en vigueur ou révoquée, dans l'intervalle de deux de ces publications trimestrielles, le surintendant en donnera avis dans la Gazette du Canada.

" 26D. La licence mentionnée à l'article précédent ne sera délivrée qu'aux personnes qui fourniront, à la satisfaction du surintendant, une recommandation du gérant ou autre principal officier de la compagnie pour laquelle elles se proposeront d'agir, si c'est une compagnie canadienne, ou de l'agent en chef en Canada ou en quelqu'une de ses provinces, si c'est une compagnie autre qu'une compagnie canadienne ; mais, une fois que quelqu'un aura obtenu une licence, il pourra faire des affaires pour une autre compagnie au lieu de cette compagnie, sans avoir à renouveler sa licence alors inexpirée ; néanmoins, le surintendant pourra, s'il juge à propos de le faire, délivrer une licence sans cette recommandation.

" 26E. Si le porteur d'une licence d'agent est convaincu d'infraction de quelque disposition du présent acte, il sera du devoir du surintendant, sur preuve de cette conviction, de révoquer (ou, pendant un appel de la conviction, de suspendre, et si la conviction est confirmée sur appel, alors de révoquer) la licence de la personne trouvée coupable ; et la personne ainsi trouvée coupable ne pourra être licenciée de nouveau par le surintendant pendant trois ans à compter de la date de la conviction,

" 26F. Nulle compagnie, ni aucun officier ou employé d'aucune compagnie, ni aucune personne qui cherchera ou sollicitera des demandes d'assurances sur la vie, n'acceptera aucune demande d'assurance de qui que ce soit dont la licence aura été révoquée après la publication de l'avis de révocation de cette licence ci-dessus prescrit, ou de qui que ce soit qui n'aura pas de licence ainsi que ci-dessus prévu ; mais le présent article ne sera pas censé défendre l'acceptation d'une demande d'assurance sur sa propre vie faite par une personne non licenciée.

" 26G. Quiconque contreviendra à quelqu'une des dispositions des articles vingt-six A à F, inclusivement, sera passible pour chaque contravention d'une amende de cinquante piastres ; et s'il est obtenu ou accepté quelque police d'assurance en violation des dispositions du présent acte, le délinquant sera passible d'une amende additionnelle égale à la moitié de la prime entière payable pour la première année d'assurance en vertu de la police ainsi obtenue ou acceptée.

" 26H. Les amendes imposées par l'article précédent seront recouvrables par poursuite sommaire devant deux juges de paix ou un magistrat revêtu des pouvoirs de deux juges de paix ; et à défaut de paiement le délinquant sera passible d'un emprisonnement, avec ou sans travaux forcés, de trois mois au moins et de six mois au plus ; et une moitié de l'amende, une fois recouvrée, appartiendra à Sa Majesté et l'autre moitié au dénonciateur.

" 26I. Les six articles qui précèdent entreront en vigueur le premier jour de janvier mil huit cent quatre-vingt-treize."

Le comité rejeta le bill pour la raison, comme il le dit dans son rapport au parlement, que " les dispositions qui s'y trouvent ne semblent pas être dans l'intérêt du public qui s'assure." Le comité a paru également partagé, la majorité contre le bill étant très faible. Le surintendant considère que le renvoi de ce bill est regrettable, renvoi dû en grande partie au fait qu'on n'a pas parfaitement compris le but du projet de loi, et l'étendue du mal auquel on cherchait à remédier. Toutefois, il est entendu qu'il sera de nouveau présenté à la prochaine session, et il faut espérer que cette fois il aura un meilleur sort.

A la dernière session de la législature d'Ontario, des dispositions semblables à celles que contenait le bill de M. White ont été adoptées pour la province d'Ontario ; on trouvera le texte de cette loi à la page lv de l'annexe.

LOIS PROVINCIALES.

A l'annexe de la page xlix à la page lxxxviii, inclusivement, on trouvera les principales lois statutaires provinciales concernant, entre autres, les compagnies qui opèrent en vertu de licences du Canada, leurs contrats, leurs droits et leurs obligations. Relativement aux sujets dont il est question, l'intention a été de donner des copies entières et complètes de toutes les lois provinciales sus-indiquées, qui ne sont pas présentement abrogées, et tout en croyant que celles qui sont annexées sont en substance complètes et exactes, il est encore possible qu'il existe des omissions et qu'on ait laissé passer des additions, des changements ou des modifications amenés par une législation subséquente.

J'ai l'honneur d'être, monsieur,

Votre obéissant serviteur,

W. FITZGERALD,

Surintendant des assurances.

ANNEXE.

Contenant les principales lois provinciales statutaires concernant, entre autres, les compagnies qui opèrent en vertu de permis fédéraux, leurs contrats, leurs droits, leurs obligations.

STATUTS REVISÉS D'ONTARIO, 1887.

CHAPITRE 167.

Acte concernant les compagnies d'assurances.

Sa Majesté, par et avec l'avis et du consentement de l'Assemblée législative de la province d'Ontario, décrète ce qui suit :—

* * * * * *

3. Les dispositions de cet acte ne s'appliqueront pas :—

(1.) A une compagnie licenciée par le Canada, sauf les articles 114 à 120 inclusivement, qui s'appliqueront à toutes compagnies d'assurance contre l'incendie faisant affaires dans Ontario.

* * * * * *

114. Les conditions contenues dans cet article seront, à l'encontre des assureurs, réputées faire partie de tout contrat, qu'il soit imprimé, écrit ou oral, d'assurance contre l'incendie fait ou renouvelé dans la suite ou autrement en vigueur dans Ontario relativement à toute proprité dans cette province ou en transit d'icelle ou vers icelle, et seront imprimées sur chaque police avec le titre : "Conditions statutaires" ; et nulle stipulation contraire, ou disposition comportant une modification, une addition ou omission ne liera l'assuré à moins d'une preuve faite en la manière prescrite par les articles 115 et 116.

2. Après qu'une demande d'assurance aura été faite, il sera considéré que toute police expédié a l'assuré est réputée conforme aux conditions de la demande, à moins que la compagnie n'indique par écrit les côtés où la police differt de la demande.

3. Tout changement important pour le risque, et sous le contrôle ou à la connaissance de l'assuré, rendra nulle la police quant à la partie affectée par le changement, à moins qu'avis ne soit promptement donné par écrit à la compagnie ou à son agent local ; et la compagnie, lorsqu'elle aura été ainsi avertie, pourra remettre la prime pour la période non expirée et annuler la police, ou elle pourra demander par écrit une police additionnelle, que l'assuré, s'il désire continuer la police, versera immédiatement entre les mains de la compagnie, et s'il néglige de faire ce versement immédiatement après avoir reçu cette demande, la police cessera d'être en vigueur.

4. Si la propriété assurée est cédée sans une permission écrite au verso de la police par un agent de la compagnie, dûment autorisé à cette fin, la police deviendra nulle par le fait même ; mais cette condition ne s'applique pas au changement de titre par succession, ou par l'opération de la loi ou à cause de mort.

5. Lorsque la propriété assurée n'a subit que des dégâts partiels, nul abandon de cette propriété ne sera admis si ce n'est par le consentement de la compagnie ou son agent ; et dans le cas de l'enlèvement des biens fait dans le but d'échapper à la conflagration, la compagnie contribuera aux pertes et aux frais qu'entraîne le sauvetage, proportionnellement aux intérêts respectifs de la compagnie ou des compagnies et de l'assuré.

8. La compagnie n'est pas responsable des pertes s'il existe une assurance antérieure dans toute autre compagnie, à moins que le consentement de la compagnie à cette assurance n'apparaisse dans la police ou ne soit mis au verso d'icelle, de même si une assurance subséquente est prise dans toute autre compagnie, à moins que et jusqu'à ce que la compagnie y consente ou à moins que la compagnie ne s'y refuse par écrit dans les deux semaines après avoir reçu un avis écrit de l'intention ou du désir de prendre l'assurance subséquente, ou qu'elle ne s'y refuse après ce délai et avant que l'assurance subséquente ou nouvelle ne soit prise.

10. La compagnie n'est pas responsable des pertes suivantes, à savoir :

(a) Pertes de biens appartenant à tout autre qu'a l'assuré à moins que l'intérêt de l'assuré ne soit indiqué dans ou sur la police.

(b) Pertes causées par l'invasion, l'insurrection, l'émeute, troubles civils, le pouvoir militaire ou le pouvoir usurpé ;

(c) Lorsque l'assurance est sur des édifices ou leur contenu, des pertes causées par l'absence de cheminées bonnes et solides en brique ou en pierre ; ou par des cendres ou des braises déposées, à la connaissance et avec le consentement de l'assuré, dans des réceptacles en bois ; ou par des poêles ou tuyaux de poêle situés, à la connaissance de l'assuré, dans une position dangereuse ou mal fixés ;

(d) Pertes et dégâts aux effets détruits ou avariés pendant qu'ils sont soumis au feu et pour lesquels l'application de la chaleur du feu est nécessaire.

12. La preuve des pertes doit être faite par l'assuré, bien que les pertes soient payables à une tierce personne.

13. Toute personne ayant droit de réclamer en vertu de cette police devra suivre la procédure suivante :

(a) Immédiatement après les pertes elle devra par écrit en donner avis à la compagnie.

(b) Elle devra aussitôt que possible après remettre un état des pertes aussi détaillées que la nature de l'affaire le permet.

(c) Elle devra y joindre aussi une déclaration statutaire—

(1) Que le dit état est juste et vrai ;

(2) Quand et comment l'incendie a originé en tant que le déposant le sait et le croit ;

(3) Que l'incendie n'a pas été causé par son fait et sa négligence volontaire, par son entremise ou sa connivence ;

(4) La somme des autres assurances ;

(5) Tous les gages et charges sur ce qui fait l'objet de l'assurance ;

(6) Le lieu où les biens assurés, si ce sont des meubles, étaient déposés lors de l'incendie.

15. Toute fraude ou faux allégués dans une déclaration statutaire en rapport avec aucun des détails qui précèdent aura l'effet de vicier la réclamation.

16. S'il surgit une divergence quant à la valeur des biens assurés ou des biens sauvés, ou quant à la somme des pertes, cette valeur et cette somme, et la proportion (s'il y en a) que devra payer la compagnie devront, que le droit de recouvrer des deniers en vertu de la police soit consesté ou non, et indépendamment de toutes autres questions, être soumises à l'arbitrage de quelque personne que les parties choisiront, ou si elles ne peuvent s'entendre sur une personne, alors à l'arbitrage de deux personnes, une choisie par la partie assurée et l'autre par la compagnie, et d'une troisième qui sera nommée par les personnes ainsi choisies, ou si celles-ci ne s'entendent pas alors par le juge du comté où les pertes ont eu lieu, et cet arbitrage sera soumis aux dispositions des lois qui régissent les actions en arbitrage ; et la sentence, si la compagnie est responsable sous d'autres rapports, sera concluante quant à la somme des pertes et à la proportion que devra payer la compagnie. Lorsque la somme complète de la réclamation sera adjugée, les frais suivront le sort de la cause ; et dans les autres cas toutes les questions de frais seront à la discrétion des arbitres.

17. Les pertes ne seront payables qu'après jours après que la preuve des pertes aura été terminée, à moins que le contrat d'assurance n'en stipule autrement.

18. La compagnie au lieu de payer de l'argent pourra dans un délai raisonnable réparer, et construire ou remplacer la propriété endommagée ou perdue, en donnant avis de son intention dans les quinze jours à compter de la réception des preuves requises par la présente loi.

19. La compagnie pourra mettre fin à l'assurance en donnant avis à cet effet, et si c'est sur le système de l'argent comptant, en offrant avec l'avis un taux proportionnel de la prime pour le temps non expiré, calculé à compter de la fin de l'avis : dans le cas de signification personnelle de l'avis il sera donné cinq jours d'avis sans compter le dimanche. Une compagnie ayant une agence dans Ontario pourra donner avis par lettre chargée adressée à l'assuré à sa dernière adresse postale dont la compagnie aura reçu avis, et lorsque avis n'aura pas été donné de l'adresse, alors au bureau de poste de l'agence d'où la compagnie aura reçu la demande, et lorsque tel avis est donné par lettre, alors sept jours à compter de l'arrivée de la lettre à tout bureau de poste dans Ontario seront réputés un délai suffisant, et la police cessera après telle offre et tel avis susdits et après l'expiration des cinq ou sept jours, selon le cas.

(a) L'assuré pourra aussi mettre fin à l'assurance, si cette assurance est pour de l'argent, en donnant un avis écrit à cet effet à la compagnie ou à son agent autorisé, auquel cas la compagnie pourra retenir le faible taux habituel pour le temps que l'assurance aura été en vigueur, et elle remboursera à l'assuré le reliquat de la prime payée.

22. Toute action ou procédure contre la compagnie pour le recouvrement d'une réclamation sous l'empire ou en vertu de cette police sera absolument exclus à moins qu'elle n'ait été commencée dans l'année à compter de la perte ou des dommages.

23. Tout avis écrit à l'adresse d'une compagnie pour une fin quelconque des conditions statutaires, lorsque la procédure n'en est pas expressément indiquée, pourra se faire par lettre délivrée au siège principal de la compagnie dans Ontario, ou par lettre chargée adressée à la compagnie, à son gérant ou à son agent, à tel siège d'affaire principal, ou par tel avis écrit donné de toute autre façon à un agent autorisé de la compagnie.

115. Si une compagnie ou toute autre assureur désire modifier les dites conditions ou en omettre quelques-unes ou ajouter de nouvelles conditions, on ajoutera sur l'acte du contrat contenant les conditions statutaires des mots à l'effet suivant, imprimés en caractères bien en vue, et en encre de couleur différente :

"Modifications des conditions."

"Cette police est délivrée aux conditions statutaires susdites, avec les modifications et conditions suivantes :

"Ces modifications (ou selon le cas) sont, en vertu du statut d'Ontario à cette fin, en vigueur en tant que le tribunal ou le juge devant lequel une question s'y rapportant se débat déclarera que la compagnie en justice a raisonnablement le droit de les exiger.

117. Lorsqu'une police est passée ou renouvelée et qu'elle contienne ou embrasse des conditions autres que celles énoncées à l'article 114, ou différentes de ces conditions, si le tribunal ou le juge devant lequel une question s'y rapportant se débat décide que les dites conditions qui s'y trouvent ainsi ne sont pas justes et raisonnables, les conditions seront nulles et de nul effet.

118. Lorsque à raison de nécessité, d'accident ou d'erreur, on ne s'est pas conformé aux conditions d'un contrat d'assurance contre les incendies sur une propriété dans cette province, quant à la preuve qu'il faut donner à la compagnie d'assurance après que l'incendie a eu lieu ; où bien lorsque après qu'un état ou la preuve des pertes a été donnée de bonne foi par l'assuré ou par quelqu'un en son nom, conformément aux dispositions ou conditions de tel contrat, la compagnie, par son agent ou autrement, s'objecte à la perte pour d'autres motifs que pour l'accomplissement imparfait de telles conditions, ou que dans un délai raisonnable après avoir reçu cet état ou cette preuve, elle ne notifie pas l'assuré par écrit qu'elle s'objecte à cet état ou cette preuve, ou, lorsque pour toute autre raison, le tribunal ou le juge devant lequel une question se rapportant à cette assurance s'instruit, considère contraire à l'équité que l'assurance soit reputée nulle ou déchue à cause de l'accomplissement imparfait de telles conditions, nulle objection à l'endroit de la suffisance de tel état ou de telle preuve, ou de tel état ou de telle preuve modifié ou augmenté (selon le cas), ne sera en aucun cas admise à titre de dégagement de l'obligation de la compagnie pour le contrat d'assurance, peu importe là et où il a été passé.

120.—(1) Tout juge de paix, ou quiconque a légalement le pouvoir d'administrer le serment ou de prendre des déclarations solennelles dans tout procédé légal, pourra examiner sous serment ou après déclaration solennelle, toute personne qui comparait devant lui pour donner son témoignage concernant des pertes causées par l'incendie et auxquelles une compagnie d'assurance est interessée, et pourra administrer le serment ou la déclaration solennelle requise aux termes du présent acte;

(3) Le juge de paix aura le pouvoir d'assigner des personnes et de faire venir des papiers et d'examiner toutes les personnes qui comparaissent devant lui sous serment ou sur déclaration solennelle ; et il gardera un registre de tous ces procédés et de la preuve qu'il aura entendue.

2. Cet article s'applique aux polices émises jusqu'ici comme aux polices qui seront émises à l'avenir, et quand bien même le décès est survenu ou non avant l'adoption du présent acte (tel que modifié par l'Acte 51 Vict., chap. 25, et par 52 Vict., chap. 32).

STATUTS REVISÉS D'ONTARIO, CHAP. 136.

Acte pour assurer aux épouses et aux enfants les bénéfices de l'assurance sur la vie.

Sa Majesté, par et avec l'avis et consentement de l'Assemblée législative de la province d'Ontario, décrète ce qui suit :—

1. Les dispositions du présent acte s'appliqueront à tout contrat légal d'assurance fait par écrit maintenant en vigueur ou qui se fera dans la suite, et qui est basé sur les calculs de la vie humaine, et qui comprendra l'assurance sur la vie d'après le plan de dotation comme d'après tout autre système. et s'étendra aussi aux dits contrats d'assurance dont la déclaration qu'ils contiennent ou qui y est annexée, bien que faite avant le 25e jour de mars 1884, aurait tombé ou tomberait sous l'opération et les dispositions de cet acte, si les contrats avaient été faits subséquemment à la dite date. (Tel que modifié par 53 Vict., chap. 39, art. 1.)

2. Il est par le présent déclaré valide pour toute personne le ou avant le 18me jour de septembre 1866 qui a mis au verso d'une police d'assurance sur sa vie faite et délivrée avant le 18me jour de septembre 1865, ou qui a annexé à la dite police, que cette police ait été émise avant ou après le marriage, une déclaration écrite que l'assurance était pour le bénéfice de son épouse et de ses enfants, ou de son épouse, ou de quelques-uns, ou d'un de ses enfants, ou de ses enfants seulement, ou de quelques-uns ou d'un de ses enfants, et de partager la somme de l'argent de l'assurance comme elle le jugeait à propos lorsque l'assurance était destinée par la déclaration au bénéfice de plus d'un.

3. Toute personne peut assurer sa vie pour toute la durée de sa vie ou pour une période définie, ou pour le bénéfice de son épouse, ou de son épouse et de ses enfants ou de son épouse et de quelques-uns de ses enfants ou d'un seul, ou de ses enfants seulement ou de quelques-uns de ses enfants, ou d'un seul, et, lorsque l'assurance est donnée au bénéfice de plus d'un, elle pourra partager l'argent de l'assurance selon qu'elle le jugera convenable.

4. L'assurance pourra être passée soit au nom de la personne dont la vie est assurée, ou au nom de son épouse, ou de toute autre personne (avec le consentement de celle-ci) comme fidéicommissaire.

5. (1) Lorsqu'une police d'assurance prise par un homme sur sa vie déclare à sa face être pour le bénéfice de son épouse ou de son épouse et de ses enfants, ou d'aucun d'eux, ou lorsque par le passé il a mis au verso de la police, ou qu'il pourra le faire à l'avenir, ou que par un écrit indiquant la police par son numéro ou autrement, une déclaration que la police est pour le bénéfice de son épouse, ou de son épouse et de ses enfants, ou d'aucun d'eux, telle police constituera, et sera reputée un fidéicommis pour le bénéfice de son épouse pour son usage séparé et de ses enfants ou d'aucun d'eux, conformément à l'intention ainsi exprimée et déclarée, et tant que subsistera tout objet de fidéicommis, l'argent payable en vertu de la police ne sera pas soumis au contrôle du mari ou de ses créanciers, et ne formera pas partie de sa succession, lorsque la somme garantie par la police deviendra payable ; mais cette disposition ne sera pas réputée intervenir dans tout gage de la police en faveur d'une personne antérieurement à telle déclaration.

(2) Dans le cas d'une police ou d'un contrat écrit d'assurance sur la vie fait avant le mariage, une déclaration aux termes de cet article sera, et sera réputée avoir été aussi valide et efficace que si cette police ou ce contrat avait été passé après le mariage ; mais rien dans cet acte n'affectera une action ou un procédé maintenant pendant. (Tel que modifié par 53 Vict. chap. 39, art. 2.)

6.—(1) L'assuré pourra, par un acte écrit annexé ou mis sur le verso de la police, ou en indiquant la police par son numéro ou autrement, modifier une police, ou une déclaration, ou un partage antérieurement fait soit pour restreindre ou étendre, transporter ou limiter les bénéfices à la police, de son épouse seule ou des enfants, ou d'un ou de plusieurs d'entre eux, quoi que la police comporte ou déclare être pour le bénéfice de l'épouse et des enfants, ou de l'épouse seule, ou de l'enfant ou des enfants seuls, ou pour le bénéfice de l'épouse pendant sa vie, et des enfants après son décès ou pour le bénéfice de l'épouse, et dans le cas de son décès pendant la vie de l'assuré, alors pour l'enfant ou les enfants, ou aucun d'eux, ou quoiqu'une déclaration antérieure ait été ainsi restreinte ; il peut aussi partager l'argent d'assurance parmi les personnes qu'il a l'intention d'avantager ; et il pourra, de temps à autre, par un acte écrit annexé à la police ou inscrit sur la police, ou en la mentionnant, modifier le partage selon qu'il le jugera à propos ; il pourra aussi, par son testament, faire ou modifier le partage de l'argent d'assurance ; et le partage fait par son testament prévaudra sur tout autre fait antérieurement à la date du testament, sauf en tant qu'on aura procédé d'après tel autre partage avant qu'on ait reçu avis du partage par le testament.

(2) Le présent article s'applique aux polices émises jusqu'ici comme aux polices futures. (Tel que modifié par 51 Vict., chap. 22, et par 53 Vict., chap. 39.)

(2) L'abandon ou la cession d'une telle police pourra se faire :

(a) Lorsque la police est pour le bénéfice des enfants seulement, et que les enfants survivants sont tous âgés de vingt et un ans, si la personne assurée et tous les enfants survivants consentent d'en faire l'abandon ou cession ; ou

(b) Lorsque la police est pour le bénéfice de l'épouse et des enfants, et que tous les enfants sont âgés de vingt et un ans, si la personne assurée et si son épouse et tous les enfants survivants consentent d'en faire l'abandon ou cession ; ou

(c) Lorsque la police est pour le bénéfice de l'épouse seulement ou de l'épouse et des enfants, et qu'il n'y a pas d'enfants vivants, si la personne assurée et son épouse consentent à en faire l'abandon ou cession.

8. Lorsqu'un partage, comme dans les articles 2, 3 et 6, a été fait, si une ou plusieurs des personnes en faveur desquelles le partage a été fait décèdent du vivant de l'assuré, l'assuré pourra par un acte écrit annexé à la police ou inscrit sur la police ou en la mentionnant, ou l'indiquant autrement, déclarer que la part antérieurement donnée à la personne ainsi décédée sera au bénéfice de telle autre personne ou personnes qu'il pourra nommer à cette fin, sans être une autre que l'épouse et les enfants de l'assuré, ou un ou plusieurs d'entre eux, et à défaut de telle déclaration, la part de la personne ainsi décédée sera la propriété de l'assuré, et il pourra en faire et disposer selon qu'il le jugera à propos, et à son décès formera partie de sa succession.

10. (1) Lorsque l'argent de l'assurance devient dû et payable, il sera versé conformément aux conditions de la police ou d'une déclaration ou d'un acte tel que susdit, selon le cas, exempt des réclamations de tout créancier de l'assuré sauf ce que comporte les dispositions du présent acte.

(2) Lorsque l'argent de l'assurance ou une partie de cet argent est pour le bénéfice, en tout ou en partie, des enfants de l'assuré, et que les enfants sont mentionnés comme classe et non par leurs noms individuels, l'argent ne sera payable aux enfants que lorsqu'on aura donné à la compagnie une preuve raisonnable du nombre, des noms et de l'âge des enfants avantagés.

11. L'assuré, par la police ou par son testament, ou par tout écrit de sa main, pourra nommer un ou des fidéicommissaires de l'argent payable en vertu de la police, et pourra de temps à autre révoquer de la même manière cette nomination et nommer un ou des nouveaux fidéicommissaires, et prendre des dispositions pour la nomination d'un ou de nouveaux fidéicommissaires, et pour le placement des deniers provenant de la police.

L'argent versé à ce ou ces fidéicommissaires aura l'effet de décharger la compagnie.

(3) Le tribunal pourra ordonner que les frais de la requête et tous les frais encourus dans le but d'établir l'autorité de la partie requérante, seront payés à même tels deniers, ou par la compagnie ou autrement, selon que la chose semblera juste ; et le tribunal pourra aussi ordonner que les frais encourus pour obtenir de la cour des deniers volontairement versés par une compagnie, seront payés à même tels deniers.

remettra ou appliquera ces gratifications ou profits selon que l'assuré l'ordonne et conformément aux taux et règles établis par la compagnie ; pourvu toujours que la compagnie ne soit pas tenue de remettre ou d'appliquer ces gratifications ou profits d'une autre façon que le stipule la police ou la demande de la police. Cet article s'applique aux polices faites avant le 4 mars 1881, et aux gratifications ou profits déclarés relativement à ces polices comme aux polices faites subséquemment ou qui se feront à l'avenir.

20. Les dispositions des articles 12, 15 et 19 de cet acte s'appliqueront, et il est par les présentes déclaré que toutes ces dispositions s'appliquent aux cas où l'assuré est décédé avant le 25 mars 1884, de même qu'aux cas qui se présenteront dans la suite.

25. (1) Lorsqu'une police d'assurance, ou la déclaration endossée sur la police ou annexée à la police, ou qui l'indique par son numéro ou autrement, que cette déclaration ait été faite dans le passé ou qu'elle se fasse à l'avenir, stipule que la police sera au bénéfice d'une personne, et dans le cas du décès de telle personne, au bénéfice d'une autre personne, si elle vit, sera réputée pour les fins de l'article 24 de cet acte, la personne ayant droit de bénéficier de cette assurance.

(2) Cet article s'appliquera aux polices émises par le passé comme aux polices qui le seront à l'avenir. (Tel que modifiée par 53 Vic., chap. 39, art. 7.)

53 VICTORIA, CHAPITRE 39.

Acte concernant les contrats d'assurance sur la vie.

[Sanctionné le 7 avril 1890.]

SA Majesté, par et avec l'avis et le consentement de l'Assemblée législative de la province d'Ontario, décrète ce qui suit :—

1. * * * * *

(2.) Dans l'acte principal (chap. 136 des Statuts refondus d'Ontario, 1887) et dans le présent acte "maturité de la police" ou "maturité du contrat" signifie l'accomplissement de l'événement ou l'expiration du terme auquel échoie le bénéfice résultant de la police ou du contrat.

3. (1) Lorsqu'un contrat d'assurance sur la vie est fait par un homme non marié, au bénéfice de son épouse future ou à son épouse et de ses enfants futurs, mais que le contrat ne désigne pas par les les noms, ou qu'il indique clairement par d'autres moyens une personne particulière comme devant être cette épouse future, le contrat (ne tombant pas dans le domaine de l'intention des paragraphes 2 et 3 de cet article) sera interprété conformément aux dispositions de l'article 7 du dit acte principal.

(2) Lorsqu'un contrat d'assurance sur la vie est fait comme dans le paragraphe I, mais qu'à la maturité du contrat l'assuré n'est pas encore marié, ou qu'il est veuf et sans enfants, l'assurance tombera dans la succession de l'assuré et en formera partie.

(3) Lorsqu'un contrat d'assurance sur la vie est fait par un homme non marié au bénéfice de son épouse future, son épouse et de ses enfants futurs, et que l'épouse future est désignée par un nom ou qu'elle est clairement indiquée par d'autres moyens dans le contrat d'assurance sur la vie, mais que le mariage n'a pas lieu, toutes les questions résultant de ce contrat seront réglées comme si la présente loi n'avait pas été passée.

3. (1) Une police ou un contrat écrit d'assurance sur la vie fait par une femme sur sa propre vie, et que cette police ou ce contrat déclare être au bénéfice de son mari et de ses enfants, ou d'aucun d'eux, sera réputé un fidéicommis en faveur des fins qui sont indiquées, et les deniers payables en vertu de cette police ne formeront pas partie de la succession de la défunte, ou ne seront pas soumis à l'acquittement de ses dettss tant qu'une des fins du fidéicommis restera à accomplir.

(2) Tout ce qu'un homme peut légalement faire en vertu de l'acte principal relativement à une assurance sur sa vie, pourra être aussi fait dans les autres circonstances par une femme relativement à une assurance prise sur sa vie ; et les autres règles d'interprétation s'appliqueront.

(5) Toute personne, soit par le contrat primitif d'assurance sur la vie ou par endossement sur l'assurance ou autrement, tel que le stipule l'article 6 de l'acte principal, pourra rendre sa mère bénéficiaire ou la seule bénéficiaire en vertu du contrat, et pourra, comme le stipule le dit article, modifier le partage ; et ce contrat créera un fidéicommis en faveur de la mère ; et les deniers payables à la mère en vertu de tel contrat ne formeront par partie de sa succession et ne seront pas soumis à l'acquittement de ses dettes tant que l'accomplissement du fidéicommis n'aura pas été parfait.

4. Deux registres seront ouverts et tenus commme suit :

(1) Un registre des corporations autorisées à faire de l'assurance par une licence émise en vertu de l'Acte des assurances d'Ontario ou en vertu de l'Acte des assurances du Canada, et enregistrées en vertu du présent acte ; ce registre, qu'on pourra appeler "Registre des licences d'assurances," sera gardé dans le bureau et sous la direction de l'inspecteur des assurances

1. (1) Le devoir de déterminer, de distinguer et d'enregistrer ces corporations d'assurance qui aux termes de la présente loi ou en vertu de toute loi la modifiant ont légalement le droit de s'inscrire sur le registre des licences d'assurance, et d'accorder en conséquence des certificats d'enregistrement, incombera à l'inspecteur des licences, soumis à appel tel que ci-après stipulé.

(1) Les demandes des corporations d'assurance pour être enregistrées conformément aux termes de la présente loi seront faites d'après une formule que fournira le registrateur, et la requérante remettra au régistrateur à son bureau la requête dûment complète avec les témoignages que la formule requiert par ses conditions, et la requérante produira telles autres informations, matière à être témoignage, ou donnera tel avis public de la requête que le régistrateur ordonnera, dans le cas des corporations faisant ou entreprenant, ou offrant d'entreprendre ou de faire de l'assurance dans Ontario lors de l'adoption du présent acte, ces corporations devront faire dûment demande d'enregistrement le ou avant le treizième jour de juin 1892.

(1) Lorsqu'une corporation qui demande d'être enregistrée à son bureau principal d'affaires ailleurs que dans Ontario, sa demande d'enregistrement sera accompagnée d'une procuration de la corporation en faveur d'un agent résidant dans Ontario ; la procuration portera le sceau de la corporation et elle sera signée par le président et le secrétaire, ou par tous autres fonctionnaires en présence d'un témoin qui jurera ou affirmera de la valable exécution de la procuration, et la position officielle qu'occupent dans la corporation les fonctionnaires qui auront signé cette procuration sera attestée sous serment ou par affirmation par une personne qui connaît les faits nécessaires à cette fin.

(2) La procuration déclarera à quel endroit de la province l'agence principale de la corporation est ou doit être établie, et autorisera expressément le procureur à recevoir la signification des documents dans toutes les actions ou procédés intentés contre la corporation dans la province pour les obligations que la corporation pourra y encourir, et aussi de recevoir du régistrateur tous les avis que la loi requiert de donner ou qu'on juge à propos de donner ; et elle déclarera que la signification de documents pour et au sujet de telles obligations et la réception de tels avis à tel bureau ou agence principale ou personnellement, à ou par tel procureur à l'endroit ou cette agence principale est établie, seront légales et lieront la corporation à toutes fins que de droit.

(3) La procuration dûment exécutée sera déposée par le régistrateur dans son bureau.

15. Des doubles dûment certifiés comme susdit des documents mentionnés dans les deux articles qui précèdent seront déposés à Toronto dans le bureau du greffier (Clerk of the Process) ; où sera aussi déposé dans la suite un double de toute procuration qui est substituée ou destinée à être substituée à une procuration antérieure.

16. Lorsque la corporation change son agent principal où son agence principale dans la province, elle déposera chez le régistrateur une procuration telle que susdite qui contiendra ce ou ces changements à cet égard et qui renfermera une déclaration semblable quant à la signification de procédés ou d'avis tel que précédemment stipulé ; et chaque corporation lors de la préparation des états sommaires ou annuels ci-après prévus, déclarera que dans sa charte, son acte constitutif, acte de règlement ou acte d'association, et dans sa constitution et par les règlements faits en vertu de cette constitution nulle modification ou changement n'a eu lieu de nature à affecter ces contrats d'assurance faits ou faire : ou si ce changement a eu lieu, elle indiquera clairement le changement et déclarera que nul changement n'a eu lieu dans l'agent ou l'agence principale sans que dans l'un ou l'autre cas avis de ce changement ou de cette modification ait été dûment donné au régistrateur.

17. (1) Après que la procuration aura été produite tel que susdit, tout procédé ou action intenté contre la corporation pour des obligations encourues dans la province pourra être validement signifié à la corporation à son agence principale ; et tous les procédés pourront se poursuivre jusqu'à jugement et exécution de la même manière et avec le même effet que dans une action civile dans la province : pourvu que rien dans cet article n'invalide la signification faite de toute autre façon dont on peut légalement signifier la corporation.

(2) Si la procuration devient invalide ou sans effet pour une raison quelconque, ou si une autre signification ne peut se faire, le tribunal ou juge pourra ordonner une autre signification des procédés par voie de telle publication qu'il jugera nécessaire de faire dans l'espèce, pendant au moins un mois dans au moins un papier-nouvelles ; et cette publication sera censée une signification valable de tels procédés à la corporation.

18. (1) Sur le registre des licences d'assurance * * * * * le régistrateur y inscrira le nom de chaque corporation que de temps à autre il jugera avoir légalement droit à l'enregistrement, avec la date de sa décision ; aussi le terme pendant lequel en l'absence d'une suspension, d'une révocation ou d'une annulation, l'enregistrement doit duré ; lequel terme commencera à compter de la date de la dite décision et expirera pas plus tard que le trentième jour de juin suivant, sauf dans le cas des corporations mentionnées à l'article 6 de cet acte, et pour les dites corporations exceptées, le terme d'enregistrement ne dépassera pas douze mois ; il inscrira aussi le lieu ou est situé le bureau principal ou l'agence principale, s'il y en a, de la corporation, et s'il y a une agence principale, le nom et l'adresse de l'agent principal ; aussi la nature ou le genre d'assurance pour lequel la corporation est enregistrée ; aussi si pendant le terme l'enregistrement a été suspendu, ou remis en vigueur ou révoqué ou annuler, la date et l'autorité de cette suspension, remise en vigueur, révocation ou annulation.

(2) A toutes les corporations enregistrées tel que susdit, le régistrateur remettra sous sa signature et sous le sceau de son bureau, un certificat d'enregistrement ou de renouvellement, selon le cas, déclarant qu'on lui a démontré que la corporation a droit de s'inscrire comme compagnie d'assurance * * * en vertu de cette loi, et que la corporation est conséquemment enregistrée pour le terme et les fins indiqués au certificat.

* * * * * *

23. Nulle corporation ne sera enregistrée sous un nom identique à celui sous lequel une autre corporation existante est enregistrée, ou qui lui ressemble de si près que le nom est à peu près le même, et elle ne sera pas enregistrée sous tout autre nom de nature à tromper, dans l'opinion du régistrateur, les membres ou le public quant à son identité ; et nulle corporation enregistrée ne sera enregistrée sous un nom nouveau ou différent à moins qu'on ne prouve que ce nom nouveau et différent est autorisé par la loi.

* * * * * *

(2.) Sur la suspension ou l'annulation de l'enregistrement d'une corporation, sauf lorsque cet acte en décrète autrement, le régistrateur, par lettre chargée ou autrement, en fera donner avis sous sa signature au bureau et à l'agence principale de la corporation dans Ontario ; et à compter de la date de cette signification, la corporation sera censée n'être pas enregistrée ; mais, dans le cas de suspension d'enregistrement, seulement pendant la durée de cette suspension ; et à compter de cette signification et après, la corporation retirera toutes les offres de contrat d'assurance, et cessera absolument d'entreprendre des contrats, mais sans préjudice à toute obligation réellement encourue par cette corporation qui peut être mise en vigueur contre elle comme si cette suspension ou annulation n'avait pas eu lieu.

(2) Une liste ou un avis publié dans la Gazette d'Ontario sous le nom du régistrateur, sera admis sans autre preuve devant un tribunal et devant tous les juges de paix et autres comme preuve prima facie des faits énoncés dans tel avis ou liste publié.

(4) Le sceau ou la signature du régistrateur sera admis en témoignage sans qu'il soit nécessaire de prouver son authenticité ou le caractère officiel de la personne qui a signé.

(7.) Des copies ou des extraits de tout livre, archive, acte ou document déposés dans le bureau du régistrateur, certifiés par lui vraie copie ou extrait, et scellés du sceau de son bureau, seront une preuve prima facie du même effet légal que l'original en cour ou ailleurs.

27.—(1) Après le 31 décembre 1892 nulle personne ou corps constitué en corporation ou non, autre qu'une corporation enregistrée en vertu de cet acte et que les personnes dûment autorisées par telles corporations enregistrées à agir en son nom, n'entreprendra ou ne fera, ou n'offrira d'entreprendre ou de faire tout contrat d'assurance.

(2) Si un promoteur, organisateur, gérant, directeur, fonctionnaire, percepteur, agent, employé ou une personne quelconque, autre que celle prévue dans le paragraphe précédent, entreprend ou fait, ou consent un offre d'entreprendre et de faire un contrat d'assurance, elle sera coupable d'une offense, et sur conviction sommaire devant un magistrat de police, ou un juge de paix ayant juridiction dans le lieu où l'offense a été commise, sera passible d'une amende de pas plus de $200 et les frais, et de pas moins de $20 et les frais ; et à défaut de paiement le délinquant sera emprisonné avec ou sans travavx forcés pendant un terme de pas plus de trois mois et de pas moins d'un mois, et à la suite d'une seconde conviction ou d'une conviction subséquente il sera emprisonné aux travaux forcés pendant un temps de pas plus de douze mois et de pas moins de trois mois.

(3) Toute personne peut se constituer poursuivant en vertu de cet acte ; et la moitié de l'amende imposée sous l'empire de cette loi appartiendra à Sa Majesté, lorsqu'on l'aura reçue, pour l'usage de la province, et l'autre moitié appartiendra au poursuivant.

(5) Dans tout procès ou cause ou procédé en vertu de cette loi, la preuve de l'enregistrement sera à la charge de la corporation ou de la personne accusée.

(6) Toutes informations ou plaintes pour la poursuite d'offenses aux termes de cette loi, seront déposées ou faites par écrit dans l'année à compter de la date où l'offense a été commise.

* * * * * * * * *

" Pourvu aussi que rien dans les paragraphes 1, 2 et 3 de cet article soit considéré comme restreignant l'effet des dispositions des articles 114 à 118 inclusivement de l'Acte des assurances d'Ontario, ou l'effet des dispositions de l'article 56 d'un acte passé dans la cinquante-deuxième année de Sa Majesté, chap. 33."

(2) Nul contrat d'assurance fait ou renouvelé après l'adoption de cet acte ne contiendra, ou n'aura à son verso, ou ne sera soumis à aucunes conditions, stipulations, autorisations ou dispositions, comportant que ce contrat sera nul à raison d'un allégué dans la demande de tel contrat, à moins que telles conditions, stipulations, autorisations ou dispositions ne soient restreintes aux cas où cet allégué est essentiel au contrat, et nul contrat dans le sens de l'article 2 de cet acte ne sera nul à cause de l'inexactitude de tout tel allégué, à moins qu'il ne soit essentiel au contrat.

(3) La question de savoir ce qui est essentiel dans un contrat d'assurance quelconque sera une question de fait pour le juré, ou pour le tribunal s'il n'y a pas de juré ; et nulle admission, condition, stipulation, autorisation ou disposition au contraire, dans la demande ou proposition d'assurance, ou dans l'acte du contrat, ou dans toute convention ou document s'y rapportant, n'aura de valeur ou de validité.

(4) Après la perte ou les dommages arrivés à une propriété assurée la corporation qui assure, et ci-après appelé l'assureur, a, par son agent accrédité, un droit immédiat d'entrée et d'accès suffisant pour examiner la propriété et faire une estimation générale des pertes ou des dégâts ; mais l'assureur n'a pas le droit de disposer, contrôler, occuper ou posséder la propriété assurée ou de ce qui en reste, à moins que l'assureur n'entreprenne le rétablissement ou n'accepte l'abandon de la propriété.

Après la perte d'une propriété ou après qu'elle a subi des dégâts, il est du devoir de l'assuré, dès que la chose peut se faire, de mettre la propriété assurée à l'abri de dégâts ou de nouveaux dégâts, et de séparer, en tant que la chose peut se faire raisonnablement, la propriété endommagée de celle qui ne l'est pas, et d'avertir l'assureur lorsque cette séparation a eu lieu ; et sur ce l'assureur a le droit d'entrer et d'arriver à la propriété pour évaluer ou faire une évaluation particulière des pertes et des dommages.

Pourvu qu'en tout temps après la perte ou les dégâts l'assureur et l'assuré puissent, en vertu d'une condition ou contrat d'assurance ou par une convention spéciale, faire un examen ou une évaluation collective des pertes et des dommages, auquel cas l'assureur sera censé avoir abandonné tout droit de faire un examen ou une estimation séparée.

"Pourvu que dans aucun cas la somme recevable ne dépasse la somme indiquée au contrat."

35—(1) Dans cet article le mot "vie" comprend les accidents, la maladie, les infirmités, le hasard et l'invalidité ; et l'expression "assurance sur la vie" comprend tout contrat d'assurance ayant pour but la vie, la santé, la sûreté ou l'état physique ou mental d'une personne.

(2) Dans le but de rendre valide un contrat d'assurance sur la vie, le bénéficiaire, autre que l'assuré ou le parent ou l'ayant cause de bonne foi de l'assuré, ou une personne ayant des droits en vertu du testament de l'assuré ou par l'opération de la loi, devra avoir eu à la date du contrat un intérêt pécuniaire dans la durée de la vie ou de tout autre sujet assuré.

(3) Nulle corporation n'assurera ou ne paiera au décès d'un enfant âgé de moins de dix ans une somme d'argent qui ajoutée à une somme payable au décès de tel enfant par une autre compagnie d'assurance dépasse les sommes suivantes respectivement, savoir :—

Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	2 ans	$ 25
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	3 ans	30
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	4 ans	35
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	5 ans	40
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	6 ans	83
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	7 ans	92
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	8 ans	110
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	9 ans	129
Si tel enfant décède avant l'âge de	10 ans	147

" Pourvu que rien dans cet article ne s'applique aux assurances qui existent sur la vie des enfants âgés de moins de dix ans ou ne s'applique à l'assurance sur la vie des enfants de tout âge lorsque la personne qui a fait l'assurance a un intérêt particulier dans la vie de l'assuré."

(4) Lorsque l'âge de l'assuré à la date du contrat est moins de dix ans et que la corporation d'assurance a sciemment ou sans avoir pris les informations nécessaires pour un contrat défendu par le paragraphe qui précède, les primes versées en vertu de ce contrat seront recouvrables de la corporation par les personnes ou la personne qui les auront versées avec l'intérêt légal sur cette somme.

(5) Chaque corporation qui entreprendra ou fera des assurances sur la vie d'enfants de moins de dix ans imprimera les paragraphes 1, 2, 3, 4 et 5 de cet article, en caractères visibles sur chaque circulaire sollicitant des assurances, sur chaque demande d'assurance, et sur chaque contrat d'assurance ; et toute contravention de ce paragraphe sera punissable comme une infraction à l'article 27, dont toutes les dispositions s'appliquent également à une infraction commise contre ce paragraphe.

(6) Relativement aux assurances prises ou qui se prendront à l'avenir par toute personne n'ayant pas vingt et un ans révolus, mais âgée de quinze ans et plus, sur sa propre vie, pour son propre bénéfice ou pour le bénéfice de son père, de sa mère, son frère ou sa tœur, l'assuré ne sera pas censé incapable, à raison seule de sa minorité, de faire un contrat d'assurance, ni l'abandon de telle assurance, ou de donner une décharge valide pour des bénéfices qui pourraient en provenir, ou pour des deniers payables en vertu du contrat.

(2) Relativement aux contrats d'assurance ou aux conventions s'y rapportant, faits après la mise en vigueur de cet article, avec un assuré, ou une personne qui a l'intention de s'assurer, pour une somme s'élevant à $5,000 ou plus, nulle corporation ou agent ne fera entre des personnes dont la durée probable de la vie est la même, et dont la vie est sous tous autres rapports également acceptable, et qui sont assurées sur le même plan, de différence dans la somme de la prime exigée, ou dans les dividendes de primes ou dans le paiement de bonis, ou dans les additions de bonis ou autrement.

(3) Nul agent, sous-agent, courtier, ou autre personne agissant pour la corporation, ou sollicitant ou se procurant des affaires pour la corporation, ne fera de contrat d'assurance ou de convention quant à un contrat d'assurance, autre que celui ou celle qui est exprimé dans la police délivrée ; ou dans la police qui doit être délivrée, ou dans le cas d'un contrat d'assurance pour $5,000 ou plus, nulle corporation, agent, sous-agent, courtier ou autre personne ne paiera, ou ne permettra ou n'offrira de payer, directement ou indirectement, pour engager quelqu'un à s'assurer, un rabais dans la prime ou une faveur spéciale ou un avantage spécial quelconque, autre que ce qui est spécifié dans la police émise ou qui doit l'être.

(4) Nulle personne qui n'est pas l'agent principal ou le gérant principal de la corporation n'agira directement ou indirectement comme agent, sous-agent ou courtier d'assurance, ou en cette qualité sous toute autre désignation ne sollicitera ou n'obtiendra d'assurance ou de demande ou de proposition d'assurance pour une corporation, sans avoir au préalable obtenu un certificat d'enregistrement d'agent du département provincial d'assurance tel que ci-après stipulé.

(5) Le régistrateur, le ou avant le premier jour de juillet 1892, ouvrira et tiendra un registre qui sera connu sous le nom de " Registre des Agents d'Assurance ", et il y inscrira le nom et l'adresse de chaque personne qui aura légalement droit à l'enregistrement, d'après sa décision, avec la date de sa décision ; aussi le terme pendant lequel, en l'absence d'une suspension, d'une révocation ou d'une annulation, l'enregistrement doit durer, lequel terme commencera à compter de la date de la dite décision et n'expirera pas plus tard que le 30 juin suivant ; de plus, si pendant le terme l'enregistrement a été suspendu, ou révoqué, ou remis en vigueur, ou annulé, la date et l'autorité de cette suspension, cette remise en vigueur, cette révocation, ou cette annulation.

(8) L'honoraire à payer relativement à chaque certificat sera tel que ci-après indiquée.

(10) Les dispositions de l'article 26 s'appliqueront également à la preuve faite dans toute cause, affaire, procédé ou procès aux termes de cet article.

(12) Nulle corporation, ou un fonctionnaire, agent ou employé d'une corporation, ou une personne qui sollicite des assurances, n'acceptera d'un agent ou d'une personne non enregistrée une demande ou une proposition à une police d'assurance autre qu'une police assurant tel agent ou personne non enregistrée même.

Pourvu que lorsqu'en vertu d'une législation mutuelle, une autre législature en Canada accepte comme valide dans sa juridiction les licences d'agents d'assurance d'Ontario, le régistrateur ait l'autorité d'endosser comme valide pour Ontario les licences de même nature de cette législature.

(14) Cet article prendra effet quant aux paragraphes 1, 2 et 3, lors et à compter de son adoption, et quant aux paragraphes 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 et 13, le à compter du premier jour de janvier 1893.

43. La remise d'un avis écrit à une corporation d'assurance pour aucune des fins de cet acte, lorsque le mode n'en est pas autrement expressément stipulé, pourra se faire par lettre délivrée au bureau principale de la corporation dans Ontario, ou par lettre chargée adressée à la corporation, son gérant ou agent à tel bureau principal, ou par tel avis écrit donné de toute autre manière à un agent autorisé de la corporation.

44.—(1) L'enregistrement de toute corporation d'assurance pourra être suspendu par le régistrateur sur le défaut de la corporation de payer une réclamation non contestée sur un contrat d'assurance pendant une période de 60 jours après que cette réclamation est devenue légalement payable, ou si elle a été contestée, après que jugement final aura été prononcé et que l'offre d'une décharge valide aura été faite, et dans l'un et l'autre cas après qu'avis accompagné d'un affidavit attestant le défaut de la société aura été remis au régistrateur.

49. (1) La survenance d'aucun des événements qui suivent annulera par le fait même et sans avis du régistrateur l'enregistrement de la corporation intéressée :

(a) L'abrogation ou l'expiration sans renouvellement de sa charte, l'acte d'association, ou l'acte de règlement, ou de son acte ou de ses actes d'icorporation ; ou

(b) La révocation de ses pouvoirs constitutifs ;

(c) L'annulation ou l'expiration de la licence ou autre document d'autorité par lequel la corporation a été autorisée à exercer ses pouvoirs constitutifs pour la transaction d'affaires d'assurance ;

(d) L'adoption d'une résolution par la corporation pour sa liquidation ;

(e) L'arrêt d'un tribunal ordonnant la liquidation de la corporation ;

Et sur preuve qu'un ou des événements est arrivé le régistrateur, après avoir donné avis à la corporation lorsqu'une contestation doit surgir, fera l'inscription convenable sur le régistre.

(2) La survenance d'un des événements qui suivent aura, ipso facto et sans avis du régistrateur, l'effet de suspendre l'effet des corporations intéressées.

(a) La suspension d'aucun des actes, instruments ou documents mentionnés dans le premier et le troisième sous-paragraphe du paragraphe qui précède ; ou

(b) La suspension des pouvoirs constitutifs de la corporation ;

Et sur la preuve qu'aucun des dits événements est arrivé le régistrateur après avoir donné avis à la corporation lorsqu'une contestation doit surgir, fera l'inscription convenable sur le registre.

(3) Lorsque la survenance d'aucun des événements mentionnés dans les deux sous-paragraphes qui précèdent, est contestée par un écrit remis au registrateur à son bureau, le régistrateur décidera des questions de fait et de droit, et rendra sa décision par écrit, soumise toutefois à l'appel prévu à l'article 51.

Pourvu néanmoins qu'avis de la survenance de tel événement, si elle est publiée par les autorités compétentes dans la Gazette officielle de la province, de la puissance, du pays ou de l'Etat par lequel la corporation a été constituée, licenciée ou autorisée à faire de l'assurance, ou dans la Gazette dOntario ; ou qu'un avis officiel donné autrement par la province, le territoire, la puissance, le pays ou l'Etat, au régistrateur, constitue une autorité suffisante pour le régistrateur de faire sur le registre les inscriptions susmentionnées.

(4) Lorsqu'une corporation constituée en vertu d'un statut d'Ontario cesse d'être enregistrée, le régistrateur produira un avis du fait au greffe.

(5) Dans le présent article et les articles subséquents le mot " greffe " signifiera le greffe ordinaire lorsqu'il s'agit d'une corporation dont le bureau principal est à Toronto, ou dans le comté de York ; et lorsqu'il s'agit d'une corporation dont le bureau principal est dans un autre comté, il signifiera le greffe ou la cour de ce comté.

* * * * * * *

60. Chaque offense commise par une corporation ou par la division d'assurance d'une corporation contre la présente loi, sera réputée avoir été commise par chaque fonctionnaire de cette corporation tenu en vertu de sa charge ou autrement à remplir un devoir relativement auquel telle offense constitue une infraction, ou si ce fonctionnaire n'existe pas, alors par chaque membre du bureau de direction de cette corporation, à moins qu'il soit prouvé que ce membre ignorait son devoir ou qu'il a essayé d'empêcher la commission de cette offense ; et chaque défaut aux termes de cette loi qui constitue une offense, constitue s'il se continue, une nouvelle offense pour chaque semaine pendant laquelle le défaut se continue.

* * * * * * *

62. Les honoraires auxquels prévoit le présent article seront payables au trésorier provincial d'Ontario.

Lorsqu'il s'agit de produire, d'examiner ou de déposer une demande ou tout autre document ou instrument, les honoraires seront payés avant que la demande ou tout autre document ou instrument ne soit examiné ; lorsqu'il s'agit de l'enregistrement ou de certificats d'enregistrement, les honoraires devront être payés avant que la corporation ne soit enregistrée.

Division II.—Les corporations qui puisent leurs pouvoirs dans un acte du Canada ou dans une autorisation émise sous l'empire de l'Acte des assurances du Canada.

1. Lorsqu'il s'agit des corporations qui puisent leurs pouvoirs d'une licence ou d'une autorisation émise en vertu de l'Acte des assurances du Canada, sauf lescorporations qui tombent sous le coup de l'article 38 du dit acte, les honoraires seront comme suit :—

DISPOSITIONS STATUTAIRES.

CODE CIVIL DU BAS-CANADA.—Titre cinquième.

De l'Assurance.—Chapitre premier.

SECTION I.

Cette règle souffre exception quant à l'assurance sur la vie.

2477. L'assureur peut lui-même prendre une réassurance, et l'assuré peut aussi assurer la solvabilité de son assureur.

S'il est impossible pour l'assuré de donner l'avis et de faire la preuve préliminaire dans le délai spécifié en la police, il a droit à une prolongation de délai raisonnable.

2479. L'assurance se divise, relativement à son objet et à la nature des risques, en trois espèces principales :

1. L'assurance maritime ;
2. L'assurance contre le feu ;
3. L'assurance contre la vie.

2480. Le contrat d'assurance est ordinairement constaté par un document auquel on donne le nom de police d'assurance.

La police déclare la valeur de la chose assurée et se nomme alors police évaluée, ou bien elle ne contient aucune déclaration de valeur et se nomme en ce cas police à découvert.

Les polices d'aventure ou de jeu, sur des objets dans lesquels l'assuré n'a aucun intérêt susceptible d'assurance, sont illégales.

2481. L'acceptation d'une proposition d'assurance constitue une convention valide d'assurer, à moins que la loi n'exige que l'assureur ne contracte exclusivement sous une autre forme.

2482. La police d'assurance peut être transportée par endossement et délivrance, ou par simple délivrance, sous les conditions qui y sont exprimées.

Mais la police d'assurance maritime ou contre le feu ne peut être transportée qu'à une personne qui a dans l'objet assuré un intérêt susceptible d'assurance.

2483. A défaut du consentement ou de la participation de l'assureur, le simple transport de la chose assurée ne transfère pas la police d'assurance.

L'assurance est par là terminée, sauf les dispositions contenues en l'article 2576.

SECTION II.

2485. L'assuré est tenu de déclarer pleinement et franchement tout fait qui peut indiquer la nature et l'étendue du risque, empêcher de l'assumer, ou influer sur le taux de la prime.

2489. L'obligation de l'assuré en ce qui concerne les déclarations est suffisamment remplie si le fait est en substance tel que représenté et s'il n'y a pas de réticence importante.

SECTION III.

Elles sont ou expresses ou implicites.

Les garanties implicites sont définies dans les chapitres suivants relatifs aux différentes espèces d'assurance.

CHAPITRE DEUXIÈME. DE L'ASSURANCE MARITIME.

SECTION I.

2492. La police d'assurance maritime contient :

Le nom de l'assuré ou de son agent ;

La désignation de la chose assurée, du voyage, du temps auquel le risque doit commencer et de l'époque à laquelle il doit finir, et des périls contre lesquels l'assurance est effectuée ;

Le nom du vaisseau et celui du maître, excepté lorsque l'assurance est prise sur un bâtiment ou des bâtiments généralement ;

La prime ;

Le montant assuré ;

La souscription de l'assureur avec sa date.

Elle contient encore toutes autres clauses et énonciations dont les parties conviennent.

Les risques ordinairement spécifiés dans la police sont : la tempête et le naufrage, l'échouement, l'abordage, le changement forcé de la route du bâtiment ou du voyage, ou le changement du bâtiment même, le feu, le jet, le pillage, la piraterie, la prise, la reprise et tous autres accidents de guerre, l'arrêt par ordre de puissance, la baraterie du maître et de l'équipage, et de toutes autres fortunes de mer d'où peut résulter perte ou dommage.

Les parties par convention spéciale peuvent limiter ou étendre le risque.

2496. Si le temps où le risque doit commencer et se terminer n'est pas spécifié dans la police, il est réglé conformément aux dispositions de l'article 2598.

Cette connaissance se présume si l'information a pu en être reçue par les voies et dans le temps de transmission ordinaires.

SECTION II.

2499. Les principales obligations de l'assuré se rapportent :

A la prime ;

Aux déclarations et réticences ;

Aux garanties et conditions ;

Au délaissement, dont il est traité en la cinquième section.

2500. L'assuré est tenu de payer le montant ou taux de prime convenu, aux termes du contrat. Si le temps du paiement n'est pas spécifié, la prime est payable comptant.

2501. Dans les cas ci-après énumérés la prime n'est pas due, et si elle a été payée elle peut être répétée, le contrat étant nul :

1. Lorsque le risque contre lequel l'assurance a été prise n'a pas lieu, soit parce que le voyage a été entièrement rompu avant le départ du bâtiment, ou pour quelque autre cause, celle même résultant sans fraude de l'acte de l'assuré ;

2. Lorsqu'il y a absence d'intérêt susceptible d'assurance ou quelque autre cause de nullité, sans fraude de la part de l'assuré.

Dans ces cas l'assureur a droit à un demi pour cent sur la somme assurée, par forme d'indemnité, à moins que la police ne soit illégale ou invalidée par suite de fraude, fausse représentation ou réticence de sa part.

Si la police est illégale, il n'y a pas d'action pour recouvrer la prime, ni pour la répéter si elle a été payée.

2504. Les règles générales concernant les garanties sont contenues dans le premier chapitre, section troisième.

2405. Dans tout contrat d'assurance maritime, il y a garantie implicite que le bâtiment sera propre à la mer à l'époque du départ. Il est propre à la mer s'il est dans un état convenable quant aux réparations, avitaillement, équipage et sous tous autres rapports pour entreprendre le voyage.

SECTION III.

Cette responsabilité est sujette aux règles contenues en la section qui précède et aux règles et conditions ci-après exposées.

L'assureur a néanmoins droit à la prime si le risque a commencé.

2510. L'assureur n'est pas tenu des pertes provenant de la baraterie du maître ou de l'équipage, s'il n'y a convention à cet effet.

S'il n'y a pas tel mémorandum de garantie, les règles générales contenues dans ce titre reçoivent leur application.

L'assureur n'a pas droit à la prime entière sur l'excès de valeur assurée, mais seulement à un demi pour cent.

Les assureurs subséquents sont exempts de toute responsabilité et sont tenus de restituer la prime, sauf le demi pour cent.

Sujet néanmoins aux conditions et conventions qui peuvent être contenues dans les polices d'assurance.

SECTION VI.

2521. Les pertes dont l'assureur est responsable sont ou totales ou partielles.

2522. La perte totale peut être absolue ou implicite.

Elle est absolue lorsque la chose assurée est totalement détruite ou perdue.

Elle est implicite lorsque la chose assurée, quoique non entièrement détruite ou perdue, devient, par suite d'un accident garanti par l'assurance, sans valeur ou d'une valeur minime pour l'assuré, ou lorsque le voyage ou l'expédition sont perdus ou ne valent plus la peine d'être poursuivis.

Avant de pouvoir réclamer sur une perte totale implicite l'assuré est tenu au délaissement tel que prescrit dans la section qui suit.

2523. Toute perte qui ne tombe pas dans la définition de l'article qui prècède est une perte partielle.

Des règles spéciales concernant le sauvetage sont contenues dans l'acte intitulé "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854."

2529. Les règles concernant les pertes résultant de la contribution se trouvent en la section sixième de ce titre.

2536. L'assuré est tenu en faisant sa demande d'indemnité de déclarer, s'il en est requis, toutes autres assurances qu'il peut avoir prises sur la chose assurée et tous les prêts à la grosse qu'il a obtenus sur cette chose.

Il ne peut exiger son paiement avant que cette déclaration soit faite, lorsqu'elle a été demandée, et si cette déclaration est fausse ou frauduleuse, il perd son recours.

SECTION V.

2539. Le délaissement ne peut être partiel ni conditionnel. Il ne s'étend cependant qu'aux effets qui sont l'objet du risque au temps du sinistre.

2541. Le délaissement doit être fait sous un délai raisonnable après que l'assuré a reçu avis du sinistre.

Si à raison de l'incertitude des nouvelles ou de la nature du sinistre, l'assuré a besoin de plus ample information et investigation pour être en état de décider s'il fera le délaissement ou non, il lui est accordé un délai raisonnable pour ce faire, suivant les circonstances.

En ce cas l'assuré a recours contre l'assureur pour les frais et l'avarie résultant de l'échouement.

2546. Si l'on a reçu aucune nouvelle du bâtiment sous un délai raisonnable à compter de son départ ou de la réception des dernières informations à son égard, il est présumé avoir sombré en mer et l'assuré peut faire le délaissement et réclamer comme sur une perte totale implicite.

Le temps requis pour justifier cette présomption est déterminé par le tribunal suivant les circonstances.

L'acceptation peut être expresse ou tacite.

SECTION VI.

L'assureur est tenu de rembourser à l'assuré sa contribution, pourvu qu'elle n'excède pas le montant assuré.

2552. La contribution par le bâtiment et le fret et par la cargaison soit qu'elle soit sauvée ou perdue, proportionnellement et suivant leur valeur respective, a lieu pour toute avarie encourue volontairement et pour toute dépense extraordinaire faite pour la sûreté commune du bâtiment et de la cargaison.

Ces pertes sont appelées avaries générales ou communes et sont les suivantes :

1. Les deniers ou autres choses donnés, comme compensation, à des corsaires pour racheter le bâtiment et la cargaison, ou comme droit de sauvetage sur la reprise ;
2. Les choses jetées à la mer ;
3. Les mâts, les câbles, ancres ou autres apparaux du bâtiment coupés, détruits ou abandonnés ;
4. Les dommages causés par le jet aux marchandises restées à bord du bâtiment ou au bâtiment lui-même ;
5. Les salaires et l'entretien de l'équipage pendant l'arrêt du bâtiment par ordre de puissance, durant le voyage, et pendant la réparation nécessaire de quelque dommage qui donne lieu à la contribution ;
6. Les frais de déchargement pour alléger le bâtiment et le faire entrer dans un havre ou dans une rivière, quand le navire est contraint de le faire par la tempête ou par la poursuite de l'ennemi ;
7. Les frais et dommages résultant de l'échouement volontaire du bâtiment pour éviter la perte totale ou la prise.

Et en général tous dommages soufferts volontairement et les dépenses extraordinaires encourues pour la sûreté commune du bâtiment et de la cargaison depuis le temps du chargement et départ du bâtiment jusqu'à son arrivée et déchargement au port de sa destination.

2553. Le jet ne donne lieu à contribution que dans le cas de péril imminent et lorsqu'il est indispensable pour la conservation du bâtiment et de la cargaison.

Le jet peut être de la cargaison, des provisions, ou des agrès et fournitures du bâtiment.

Le bagage des passagers ne contribue pas. S'il est perdu il est payé par contribution à laquelle il prend part.

Ils contribuent s'ils sont sauvés.

Les effets jetés de même que ceux qui sont sauvés sont estimés de la même manière, déduction faite du fret, des droits et autres frais.

2561. Si le jet ne sauve pas le bâtiment, il n'y a lieu à aucune contribution, et les choses sauvées ne sont point tenues de contribuer pour celles qui ont été perdues ou endommagées.

CHAPITRE TROISIÈME.

De l'assurance contre le feu.

2569. La police contre le feu contient :

Le nom de celui en faveur de qui elle est faite ;

Une description ou désignation suffisante de l'objet de l'assurance et de la nature de l'intérêt qu'y a l'assuré ;

Une déclaration du montant couvert par l'assurance, du montant ou du taux de la prime, et de la nature, commencement et durée du risque ;

La souscription de l'assureur avec sa date ;

Toutes autres énonciations et conditions dont les parties peuvent légalement convenir.

2570. Les déclarations qui ne sont pas insérées dans la police ou qui n'en font pas partie ne sont pas reçues pour en affecter le sens ou les effets.

2572. Il y a garantie implicite de la part de l'assuré que la description qu'il a donnée de l'objet assuré est telle qu'elle montre vraiment sous quelle classe de risque elle tombe, d'après les propositions et les conditions de la police.

2575. Le montant de l'assurance ne fait aucune preuve quant à la valeur de l'objet assuré ; cette valeur doit être prouvée de la manière prescrite dans les conditions de la police et par les règles générales de la preuve, à moins qu'il n'y ait une évaluation spéciale dans la police.

La règle ci-dessus ne s'applique pas au cas de droits acquis à titre successif ou dans le cas spécifié en l'article qui suit. Elle est sujette aux dispositions contenues dans l'Acte concernant la faillite, 1864.

L'assuré a le droit de transporter la police avec la chose assurée sous les conditions qui y sont exprimées.

2577. La cession d'intérêt entre coassociés ou copropriétaires d'immeubles, qui ont assuré conjointement, ne rend pas la police nulle.

CHAPITRE QUATRIÈME.

Les articles 2570 et 2583 s'appliquent aux assurances sur la vie.

2587. La police d'assurance sur la vie contient :

Le nom ou une désignation suffisante de la personne en faveur de qui elle est faite et de celle dont la vie est assurée ;

Une déclaration du montant de l'assurance, du montant ou du taux de la prime, et du commencement et de la durée du risque ;

La souscription de l'assureur avec sa date ;

1. Dans sa propre vie ;

2. Dans celle de toute personne dont il dépend en tout ou en partie pour son soutien et son éducation ;

3. Dans celle de toute personne qui lui est endettée d'une somme de deniers, ou qui lui doit des biens ou des services dont la mort ou la maladie pourrait éteindre ou empêcher la prestation ;

4. Dans celle de toute personne de laquelle dépend quelque propriété ou intérêt dont l'assuré est investi.

TITRE XI.—CHAPITRE III.—SECTION XIX.

Du paiement de dividendes par certaines compagnies d'assurance.

STATUTS REVISÉS DE QUÉBEC, 1888.

TITRE XII.—PARTIE I.—CHAPITRE I.—SECTION IX.

Des conventions matrimoniales et de l'effet du mariage sur les biens des époux.

2. Et à tout père ou mère :

5587. En l'absence de distribution, le partage du montant de la police se fait entre les parties intéressées comme suit :

1. Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et des enfants issus de son mariage avec l'assuré, une moitié va à la femme et l'autre aux enfants, qui la partagent entre eux par parts égales ;

2. Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et de ses enfants, une moitié va à la femme et l'autre aux enfants issus du même ou de différents mariages, lesquels la subdivisent entre eux par parts égales ;

3. Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et des enfants de son mari, la moitié va à la femme et l'autre aux enfants du mari nés d'un ou de plusieurs mariages, qui la partagent entre eux par parts égales ;

4. Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et des enfants de son mari et des siens, la moitié appartient à la femme et l'autre aux enfants du mari et de la femme, nés de leur mariage ou de différents mariages, lesquels en font entre eux un partage égal ;

5. Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et d'un ou de plusieurs enfants nommément désignés, la moitié va à la femme et l'autre à l'enfant nommé ou aux enfants nommés ensemble qui la partagent également ;

7. Si l'assurance est au profit de plusieurs enfants nommés, elle est partagée entre eux par parts égales.

Quand l'assurance est effectuée ou l'application faite sans mention de partage, pour le bénéfice d'une femme et d'un ou des enfants, et que la femme meurt avant son mari, sa part accroît à cet enfant ou à ces enfants ; et si l'enfant meurt ou tous les enfants meurent avant le mari, sa part accroît ou leurs parts accroient à la femme.

Cette autre personne ou ces autres personnes doivent néanmoins être du nombre de celles au profit desquelles une assurance peut être effectuée ou appliquée en vertu des présentes dispositions.

1. Quand l'enfant au profit duquel elle a été effectuée ou appliquée, ou l'enfant survivant auquel elle est échue exclusivement, meurt sans enfants avant l'assuré ;

2. Quand la femme à qui l'assurance appartient exclusivement, en vertu de la police, d'une déclaration d'application, d'une révocation ou par accroissement, meurt avant son mari, avec ou sans enfants.

Le bénéfice de toute part en vertu d'une distribution retourne pareillement à l'assuré, quand l'enfant auquel elle a été attribuée meurt sans enfants avant le parent assuré, ou quand la femme à laquelle elle a été attribuée meurt avant son mari, avec ou sans enfants.

La compagnie n'est pas ensuite tenue de voir au placement de l'argent, ni n'est responsable du mauvais placement de cet argent par des fiduciaires, exécuteurs-testamentaires, tuteurs ou curateurs.

Au cas d'imposition de conditions et stipulations, les fiduciaires exécutent la fiducie et l'administrent, et soumettent le paiement de l'assurance à ces conditions.

Le montant de l'assurance reçu par tout fiduciaire, exécuteur-testamentaire, tuteur ou curateur, pour des mineurs et autres incapables d'exercer leurs droits, doit être placé par eux en actions des fonds permanents ou débentures de la Puissance ou de la province, ou en actions des fonds permanents municipaux ou débentures municipales, ou sur premier privilège ou première hypothèque sur des propriétés foncières, avec pouvoir cependant à tels fiduciaires, exécuteurs-testamentaires, tuteurs ou curateurs, de varier, changer et transporter ces placements de temps à autre.

1. Dans le cas d'un mineur, au mineur lui-même quand il a atteint son âge de majorité ;
2. Dans le cas de personnes incapables pour d'autres raisons que la minorité d'exercer leurs droits,—lorsqu'elles acquièrent cette capacité, et à leurs héritiers lorsqu'elles meurent avant de reprendre l'exercice de leurs droits.

Il est cependant loisible aux fiduciaires, exécuteurs-testamentaires ou tuteurs, d'avancer, s'ils le jugent à propos, le montant de l'assurance ou de disposer des placements et d'en avancer le produit à tout enfant mineur durant sa minorité pour son établissement, son avancement ou pour lui procurer une position avantageuse dans le monde ou le pourvoir en mariage.

La part de chaque bénéficiaire, lorsqu'il y en a plus d'un, est, dans ce dernier cas, proportionnellement augmentée.

Les profits accroissant, après l'acquittement de la police, peuvent être reçus par l'assuré pour son propre bénéfice ou être ajoutés au montant de l'assurance ; et la part de chaque personne, lorsqu'il y en a plus d'une d'appelée à bénéficier de la police, est aussi augmentée proportionnellement.

Ces emprunts sont garantis par privilège sur la police, et la compagnie retient sur l'assurance une somme suffisante pour les acquitter.

Si ces emprunts sont acquittés avant la mort de l'assuré, la quittance en doit être fournie à la compagnie.

Pendant qu'il est entre les mains de la compagnie, le montant de l'assurance est aussi insaisissable pour les dettes de l'assuré, ainsi que pour celles des bénéficiaires, et doit être payé en conformité de la police, de la déclaration d'application ou de toute révocation qui s'y rapportent.

5606. S'il est prouvé que toutes les primes d'assurance, ou quelques-unes d'elles, ont été acquittées à une époque où l'assuré était devenu insolvable et en fraude de ses créanciers, ces derniers ont le droit de réclamer à même le montant de l'assurance une somme égale au montant des primes ainsi payées ; et en ce cas la part de chaque bénéficiaire, s'il y en a plus d'un, est réduite proportionnellement.

STATUTS REVISÉS DU MANITOBA, 1892, CHAP. 24.

Acte concernant les corporations constituées en dehors du Manitoba.

1. Cet acte pourra être cité sous le nom de "Actes des corporations étrangères."

5. Par cette licence la compagnie d'assurance n'acquerra pas de pouvoirs plus étendus que pour le placement des deniers tel que susdit.

7. Toute compagnie, institution ou corporation qui donnera une licence déposera dans le bureau du secrétaire provincial du Manitoba une copie certifiée de la charte, de l'acte constitutif ou de l'acte de société de telle compagnie, institution ou corporation, avec une déclaration ou une preuve que la dite compagnie, institution ou corporation existe encore, et qu'elle est légalement autorisée à transiger des affaires en vertu de sa dite charte ou acte constitutif, ainsi qu'une copie du dernier rapport de l'auditeur ; elle déposera aussi, tel que susdit, une procuration en faveur de son agent principal ou du gérant probable de la dite compagnie, institution ou corporation dans cette province, signée par son président ou son vice-président ou son directeur-gérant et son secrétaire, scellé du sceau officiel (s'il y en a un) de la dite compagnie, institution ou corporation, et vérifiée, quant à son authenticité, par la déclaration statutaire de l'agent principal ou du gérant de telle compagnie, institution ou corporation, ou de toute personne qui connaît les faits nécessaires pour cette vérification ; cette procuration devra expressément autoriser tel agent ou gérant dans la dite province à accepter toutes les significations dans tous les procès et procédés judiciaires intentés contre la compagnie, institution ou corporation dans la province, et déclarera que la signification de ces procédés à tel agent ou gérant relativement à tels procès sera légale et liera la compagnie, l'institution ou la corporation, à toutes fins que de droit, et constituera un désistement de toutes réclamations d'erreur à raison de telle signification ; et la compagnie, l'institution ou la corporation pourra, de temps à autre, par une nouvelle procuration, vérifiée tel que susdit et accompagnée d'une semblable déclaration, nommer un autre agent ou gérant dans la province pour les fins susdites pour remplacer l'agent ou le gérant nommé antérieurement.

8. Après que cette copie certifiée de la charte et cette procuration dans cette province auront été déposées tel que susdit, les procédés judiciaires dans tout procès contre la compagnie, institution ou corporation pour une obligation quelconque, pourront être signifiés au gérant ou à l'agent, jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été remplacé tel que susdit et subséquemment à son successeur qui aura été de temps à autre nommé, de la même manière que les procédés peuvent être signifiés au fonctionnaire voulu d'une compagnie constituée dans la province ; et tous les procédés peuvent reprendre jusqu'à jugement et exécution de la même manière que dans une action au civil dans la province.

province, transige les dites affaires ; quatre publications de l'avis dans la Gazette et le papier-nouvelle seront suffisantes ; l'avis indiquera le nom de l'agent ou gérant ainsi nommé tel que susdit, ou, lorsqu'un nouvel agent ou gérant est nommé aux termes de cette loi, le nom de ce nouvel agent ou gérant, et le même avis sera donné lorsque la compagnie cessera de faire des affaires dans la province.

13. Nulle compagnie, corporation ou autre institution, non constituée en vertu des dispositions des statuts de cette province, ne pourra prendre, tenir ou acquérir d'immeubles dans cette province, à moins d'avoir obtenu une licence du secrétaire provincial ou lieutenant-gouverneur en conseil, en vertu d'un statut quelconque de cette province à cette fin.

14. Tout immeuble tenu par une compagnie, corporation ou institution, licenciée tel que susdit, et dont on ne dispose pas dans la période de temps prscrite à cette fin, sera confisqué en faveur de la couronne et lui reviendra pour l'usage de cette province.

Statuts revisés du Manitoba 1892, chap. 59.

Acte pour établir des conditions uniformes dans les polices d'assurance contre l'incendie.

Sa Majesté, par et avec l'avis et le consentement de l'Assemblée législative du Manitoba, décrète ce qui suit :—

1. Cet acte peut être cité sous le nom de "Acte concernant les polices d'assurance contre le feu."

2. Lorsqu'à raison de nécessité, d'accident ou d'erreur, on se s'est pas conformé aux conditions d'un contrat d'assurance contre les incendies sur une propriété dans cette province, ainsi qu'à la preuve qu'il faut donner à la compagnie d'assurance après que l'incendie a eu lieu, ou lorsque, après qu'un état ou la preuve des pertes a été donnée de bonne foi par l'assuré ou par quelqu'un en son nom conformément à une disposition ou condition de tel contrat, la compagnie, par son agent ou autrement s'objecte à la perte pour d'autres motifs que son accomplissement imparfait de telles conditions, ou que dans un délai raisonnable après avoir reçu cet état ou cette preuve elle notifie l'assuré par écrit qu'elle s'objecte à cet état ou cette preuve, ou lorsque pour toute autre raison le tribunal ou le juge devant lequel une question se rapportant à cette assurance s'instruit, considère contraire à l'équité que l'assurance soit réputée nulle ou déchue à cause de l'accomplissement imparfait de telle condition, nulle objection à l'endroit de la suffisance de tel état ou de telle preuve, ou de tel état et de telle preuve modifié ou augmenté, (selon le cas) ne sera en aucun cas admise à titre de dégagement de l'obligation de la compagnie pour le contrat d'assurance, peu importe là et où il a été passé ; mais cette section ne s'appliquera pas aux incendies qui auront lieu avant le dix-septième jour de juillet de l'année mil huit cent soixante et dix-huit.

Si une compagnie ou tout autre assureur désire modifier les dites conditions, ou en mettre quelques-unes ou ajouter de nouvelles conditions, on ajoutera sur l'acte du contrat contenant les conditions statutaires des mots à l'effet suivant, imprimés en caractère bien en vue en en encre de couleur différente :—

"MODIFICATION DES CONDITIONS."

"Cette police est émise aux conditions statutaires susdites, avec les modifications et conditions suivantes :

"Ces modifications (ou selon le cas), sont, en vertu du statut du Manitoba à cette fin, en vigueur en tant que le tribunal ou le juge devant lequel une question s'y rapportant se débat, décide que la compagnie en justice a raisonnablement le droit de les exiger.

5. Nulle telle modification, addition ou omission, à moins que cela ne soit indiqué et énoncé distinctement en la manière et à l'effet susdit, ne sera légale et ne liera l'assuré, et on ne pourra s'occuper de la question de savoir si telle modification, addition ou omission est, dans les circonstances, juste et raisonnable, mais au contraire la police ne sera, à l'encontre des assureurs, soumise qu'aux conditions statutaires à moins que les modifications, les additions ou les omissions ne soient indiquées ou énoncées distinctement en la manière et à l'effet susdit.

6. Lorsqu'une police est passée ou renouvelée et qu'elle entraîne ou embrasse des conditions autres que celles énoncées dans l'annexe A de cet acte, ou différentes de ces conditions, si le tribunal ou le juge devant lequel une question s'y rapportant se débat décide que les dites conditions qui s'y trouvent ainsi ne sont pas justes et raisonnables, ces conditions seront nulles et de nul effet.

ANNEXE.

Ce qui suit est l'annexe dont il est question dans le présent acte.

ANNEXE A.

1. Si une (ou des personnes) assure ses (ou leurs) édifices ou effets, et qu'il les fasse décrire autrement qu'il ne le sont en réalité, au préjudice de la compagnie, ou qu'il dénature ou omette de communiquer tout fait qu'il est important de faire connaître à la compagnie, afin de lui permettre de juger du risque qu'elle entreprend, telle assurance ne sera d'aucun effet à l'égard de la propriété relativement à laquelle des fausses représentations ou des omissions sont faites.

2. Après qu'une demande d'assurance aura été faite, il sera considéré que toute police expédiée à l'assuré est réputée conforme aux conditions de la demande, à moins que la compagnie n'indique par écrit les côtés où la police differt de la demande.

3. Tout changement important pour le risque, et sous le contrôle ou à la connaissance de l'assuré, rendra nulle la police quant à la partie affectée par le changement, à moins qu'avis ne soit promptement donné par écrit à la compagnie ou à son agent local ; et la compagnie, lorsqu'elle aura été ainsi avertie, pourra remettre la prime pour la période non expirée et annuler la police, ou elle pourra demander par écrit une police additionnelle, que l'assuré, s'il désire continuer la police, versera immédiatement entre les mains de la compagnie, et s'il néglige de faire ce versement immédiatement après avoir reçu cette demande, la police cessera d'être en vigueur.

4. Si la propriété assurée est cédée sans une permission écrite au verso de la police par un agent de la compagnie, dûment autorisé à cette fin, la police deviendra nulle par le fait même ; mais cette condition ne s'applique pas au changement de titre par succession, ou par l'opération de la loi ou à cause de mort.

5. Lorsque la propriété assurée n'a subi que des dégâts partiels, nul abandon de cette propriété ne sera admis, si ce n'est par le consentement de la compagnie ou son agent ; et dans le cas de l'enlèvement des biens fait dans le but d'échapper à la conflagration, la compagnie contribuera aux pertes et aux frais qu'entraîne le sauvetage, proportionnellement aux intérêts respectifs de la compagnie ou des compagnies et de l'assuré.

8. La compagnie n'est pas responsable des pertes s'il existe une assurance antérieure dans toute autre compagnie, à moins que le consentement de la compagnie à cette assurance n'apparaisse dans la police ou ne soit mis au verso d'icelle. De même si une assurance subséquente est prise dans toute autre compagnie, à moins que et jusqu'à ce que la compagnie y consente ou à moins que la compagnie ne s'y refuse par écrit dans les deux semaines après avoir reçu un avis écrit de l'intention ou du désir de prendre l'assurance subséquente, ou qu'elle ne s'y refuse après ce délai et avant que l'assurance subséquente ou nouvelle ne soit prise.

10. La compagnie n'est pas responsable des pertes suivantes, à savoir :

(b) Pertes causées par l'invasion, l'insurrection, l'émeute, troubles civils, le pouvoir militaire ou pouvoir usurpé :

(c) Lorsque l'assurance est sur des édifices ou leur contenu, des pertes causées par l'absence de cheminées bonnes et solides en brique ou en pierre ; ou par des cendres ou des braises déposées, à la connaissance et avec le consentement de l'assuré, dans des réceptacles en bois ; ou par des poêles ou tuyaux de poêle, situés, à la connaissance de l'assuré, dans une position dangereuse ou mal fixés ;

12. La preuve des pertes doit être faite par l'assuré, bien que les pertes soient payables à une tierce personne.

13. Toute personne ayant droit de réclamer en vertu de cette police devra suivre la procédure suivante :

(a) Immédiatement après les pertes, elle devra par écrit en donner avis à la compagnie ;

(b) Elle devra aussitôt que possible après remettre un état des pertes aussi détaillées que la nature de l'affaire le permet ;

(c) Elle devra y joindre aussi une déclaration statutaire :

(1) Que le dit état est juste et vrai ;

(2) Quand et comment l'incendie a originé en tant que le déposant le sait et le croit ;

(3) Que l'incendie n'a pas été causé par son fait et sa négligence volontaire, par son entremise ou sa connivence ;

(4) La somme des autres assurances ;

(5) Tous les gages et charges sur ce qui fait l'objet de l'assurance ;

(6) Le lieu ou les biens assurés, si ce sont des meubles, étaient déposés lors de l'incendie.

10. Toute fraude ou faux allégués dans une déclaration statutaire, en rapport avec aucun des détails qui précèdent, aura l'effet de vicier la réclamation.

16. S'il surgit une divergence quant à la valeur des biens assurés ou des biens sauvés, ou quant à la somme des pertes, cette valeur et cette somme, et la proportion (s'il y en a) que devra payer la

compagnie devront, que le droit de recouvrer des deniers en vertu de la police soit contesté ou non, et indépendamment de toutes autres questions, être soumises à l'arbitrage de quelque personne que les parties choisiront, ou si elles ne peuvent s'entendre sur une personne, alors à l'arbitrage de deux personnes, une choisie par la partie assurée et l'autre par la compagnie, et d'une troisième qui sera nommée par les personnes ainsi choisies, ou si celles-ci ne s'entendent pas, alors par le juge du comté où les pertes ont eu lieu, et cet arbitrage sera soumis aux dispositions des lois qui régissent les actions en arbitrage ; et la sentence, si la compagnie est responsable sous d'autres rapports, sera concluante quant à la somme des pertes et la protection que devra payer la compagnie. Lorsque la somme complète de la réclamation est adjugée les frais suivront le sort de la cause ; et dans les autres cas toutes les questions de frais seront à la discrétion des arbitres.

17. Les pertes ne seront payables qu'après jours après que la preuve des pertes aura été terminée, à moins que le contrat d'assurance n'en stipule autrement.

(a) Le blanc sera rempli dans le cas des compagnies mutuelles par le mot "soixante," et dans le cas d'autres compagnies par le mot "trente".

18. La compagnie, au lieu de payer de l'argent, pourra dans un délai raisonnable réparer et construire ou remplacer la propriété endommagée ou perdue, en donnant avis de son intention dans les quinze jours à compter de la réception des preuves requises par la présente loi.

19. La compagnie pourra mettre fin à l'assurance en donnant avis à cet effet, et si c'est sur le système de l'argent comptant, en offrant avec l'avis un taux proportionnel de la prime pour le temps non expiré. Calculé à compter de la fin de l'avis : dans le cas de signification personnnelle de l'avis, il sera donné cinq jours d'avis sans compter le dimanche. Une compagnie ayant une agence dans le Manitoba pourra donner avis par lettre chargée adressée à l'assuré à sa dernière adresse postale dont la compagnie aura reçu avis, et lorsque avis n'aura pas été donné de l'adresse, alors au bureau de poste de l'agence d'où la compagnie aura reçu la demande, et lorsque tel avis est donné par lettre alors sept jours à compter de l'arrivée de la lettre à tout bureau de poste dans dans le Manitoba, seront réputés un délai suffisant et la police cessera après telle offre et tel avis susdits et après l'expiration des cinq ou sept jours selon le cas.

20. Nulle condition de la police, en tout ou en partie, ne sera reputée avoir été abandonnée par la compagnie, à moins que le désistement ne soit clairement exprimé par écrit sous la signature d'un agent de la compagnie.

22. Toute action ou procédé contre la compagnie pour le recouvrement d'une réclamation sous l'empire ou en vertu de cette police sera absolument excluse à moins qu'elle n'ait été commencée dans l'année à compter de la perte ou des dommages.

23. Tout avis écrit à l'adresse d'une compagnie pour une fin quelconque des conditions statutaires, lorsque la procédure n'en est pas expressément indiquée, pourra se faire par lettre délivrée au siège principal de la compagnie dans le Manitoba, ou par lettre chargée adressée à la compagnie, à son gérant ou à son agent, à tel siège d'affaires, principal ou par tel avis écrit, donné de toute autre façon à un agent autorisé de la compagnie.

Acte concernant l'assurance sur la vie pour le bénéfice des femmes et des enfants.

Attendu qu'il est opportun d'encourager l'assurance sur la vie des maris et des parents pour le bénéfice de leur femme et de leurs enfants ;

C'est pourquoi, Sa Majesté, par et avec l'avis et le consentement de l'Assemblée législative du Manitoba, décrète ce qui suit :—

1. Cet acte pourra être cité sous le nom de : "Acte de l'assurance sur la vie."

2. Il est loisible à tout mari d'assurer sa vie au profit et au bénéfice de sa femme, ou de sa femme et de leurs enfants généralement, de sa femme et des enfants à lui, des enfants à elle et des enfants des deux généralement, de sa femme et des enfants à lui ou des enfants à elle génerelement, de sa femme et d'un ou de plusieurs des enfants à lui ou à elle, ou de leurs enfants, et à tout père ou mère, d'assurer sa vie, au profit et pour le bénéfice des enfants à lui ou des enfants à elle ou de l'un ou de plusieurs de leurs enfants.

6. L'application de la police d'assurance, dont il est parlé dans l'article 2, se fait par une déclaration écrite au dos de la police ou y annexée et s'y reférant.

Un double de la déclaration est déposé entre les mains de la compagnie qui a émis la police, et une note de ce dépôt est endossée par cette compagnie sur la police, ou sur la déclaration.

7. Une assurance peut être effectuéc et la police peut être appliquée, par une femme mariée, sans l'autorisation de son mari.

8. Quand le mari, ou le père ou la mère effectue une assurance ou applique une police d'assurance au profit et pour le bénéfice de plus d'une personne, il peut, par la demande d'assurance ou par la déclaration d'application, en faire la distribution qu'il juge convenable.

9. En l'absence de distribution, le partage du montant de la police se fait entre les parties intéressées comme suit :

Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et des enfants issus de son mariage avec l'assuré, un tiers va à la femme, et les deux autres aux enfants, qui la partagent entre eux par parts égales ;

Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et de ses enfants, un tiers va à la femme et les deux autres tiers aux enfants issus du même ou de différents mariages, lesquels les subdivisent entre eux par parts égales ;

Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et des enfants de son mari, le tiers va à la femme et les deux autres aux enfants du mari nés d'un ou de plusieurs mariages, qui les partagent entre eux par parts égales ;

Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et des enfants de son mari et des siens, le tiers appartient à la femme et les deux autres aux enfants du mari et de la femme, nés de leur mariage ou de différents mariages, lesquels en font entre eux un partage égal ;

Si l'assurance est au profit d'une femme et d'un ou de plusieurs enfants nommément désignés, le tiers va à la femme et l'autre à l'enfant nommé ou aux enfants nommés ensemble, qui les partagent également ;

Si l'assurance est seulement au profit des enfants généralement, les enfants seuls du parent assuré, issus du même ou de différents mariages, la partagent également entre eux ;

Si l'assurance est au profit de plusieurs enfants nommés, elle est partagée entre eux par parts égales.

11. Quand l'assurance est effectuée ou l'application faite, sans mention de partage, pour le bénéfice de plusieurs enfants, soit conjointement avec une femme, soit pour le bénéfice des enfants seuls, et que quelqu'un de ces enfants meurt avant l'assuré sans laisser d'enfants, sa part accroît aux enfants survivants. Quand l'assurance est effectuée ou l'application faite sans mention de partage, pour le bénéfice d'une femme et d'un ou des enfants, et que la femme meurt avant son mari, sa part accroît à cet enfant ou à ces enfants ; et si l'enfant meurt ou tous les enfants meurent avant le mari, sa part accroît ou leurs parts accroient à la femme.

12. Il est loisible à quiconque a pris une assurance ou a ainsi favorisé une femme seule, ou une femme et un enfant ou des enfants, ou un enfant et des enfants seuls, de révoquer en tout temps, et de temps à autre, le bénéfice ainsi conféré, soit quant à une, soit quant à plusieurs, soit quant à toutes les personnes qui auraient ainsi bénéficié de cette faveur, et de déclarer par la révocation que l'assurance est seulement pour le bénéfice des personnes non exclues par la révocation, ou pour le bénéfice de ces personnes non exclues conjointement avec une ou d'autres personnes, ou entièrement pour le bénéfice d'une autre ou d'autres personnes non originairement mentionnées comme devant bénéficier. Cette autre personne ou ces autres personnes doivent néanmoins être du nombre de celles au profit desquelles une assurance peut être effectuée ou appliquée en vertu des présentes dispositions.

13. La révocation peut se faire par un acte annexé à la police et dont un double est remis à la compagnie qui a émis cette police ; une note du dépôt de ce double est endossée par la compagnie sur la police, ou sur l'acte retenu, ou par un testament dont copie authentique doit être signifiée à la compagnie après le décès de l'assuré.

A défaut de ce dépôt ou de cette signification, la compagnie qui paie le montant de la police d'assurance aux termes et conditions de cette police ou de la déclaration, ou d'une révocation précédente, est valablement déchargée.

14. Une police retourne à l'assuré quand l'enfant au profit duquel elle a été effectuée ou appliquée, ou l'enfant survivant auquel elle est échue exclusivement, meurt sans enfants avant l'assuré ; quand la femme à qui l'assurance appartient exclusivement, en vertu de la police, d'une déclaration d'application, d'une révocation ou par accroissement, meurt avant son mari, avec ou sans enfants. Le bénéfice de toute part en vertu d'une distribution retourne pareillement à l'assuré quand l'enfant auquel elle a été attribuée meurt sans enfants avant le parent assuré, ou quand la femme à laquelle elle a été attribuée meurt avant son mari, avec ou sans enfants.

15. Au cas où une police d'assurance retourne en tout ou en partie à l'assuré, il peut en disposer jusqu'à concurrence de ce retour comme si l'assurance avait été originairement effectuée et qu'elle n'eût jamais cessé d'être en sa faveur.

17. A défaut de nomination de fiduciaires dans la demande et dans la police, dans la déclaration d'application ou dans un acte de révocation, il est loisible à l'assuré, par un acte qui doit être annexé à la police et dont un double doit être déposé entre les mains de la compagnie qui l'a émise, lequel dépôt doit être annoté par la compagnie sur l'acte retenu, ou par un testament dont copie authentique doit être signifiée à la compagnie après la mort du testateur, de nommer également des fiduciaires pour les personnes qui doivent bénéficier de l'assurance, ou pour quelques-unes d'elles.

19. Le paiement d'une assurance ainsi fait à un bénéficiaire ayant l'exercice de ses droits, à un fiduciaire, à un exécuteur-testamentaire ou à un tuteur ou curateur, décharge validement la compagnie d'assurance du montant ainsi payé.

La compagnie n'est pas ensuite tenue de voir au placement de l'argent, ni n'est responsable du mauvais placement de cet argent par les fiduciaires, exécuteurs-testamentaires, tuteurs ou curateurs.

21. Selon que les fiduciaires, les exécuteurs-testamentaires, tuteurs ou curateurs le jugent à propos, le revenu annuel provenant du placement de l'assurance peut être employé, en tout ou en partie, à l'entretien et à l'éducation des enfants, ou à l'entretien des personnes incapables pour d'autres raisons que la minorité d'exercer leurs droits. Au cas de non emploi de la totalité du revenu annuel le surplus doit être capitalisé et placé de la même manière que le montant de l'assurance.

1. Dans le cas d'un mineur, au mineur lui-même quand il a atteint son âge de majorité ;
2. Dans le cas de personnes incapables pour d'autres raisons que la minorité d'exercer leurs droits, —lorsqu'elles acquièrent cette capacité, et à leurs héritiers lorsqu'elles meurent avant de reprendre l'exercice de leurs droits. Il est cependant loisible aux fiduciaires, exécuteurs-testamentaires ou tuteurs, d'avancer, s'ils le jugent à propos, le montant de l'assurance ou de disposer des placements et d'en avancer le produit à tout enfant mineur durant sa minorité, pour son établissement, son avancement ou pour lui procurer une position avantageuse dans le monde ou le pourvoir en mariage, sauf en tant qu'ils sont restreints par un acte ou par un arrêt en vertu duquel ils ont pu être nommés.

23. Si une personne qui a effectué ou appliqué une assurance pour le bénéfice d'une femme, ou d'une femme et d'un enfant ou des enfants, ou d'un enfant ou des enfants seulement, devient incapable d'acquitter les primes, il est loisible à cette personne de remettre la police à la compagnie qui l'a émise et d'accepter à sa place une police acquittée, pour le montant que les primes payées pourraient représenter, et à la compagnie d'accepter la remise de la police et d'accorder telle police acquittée, payable à l'époque, de la manière et pour le bénéfice des personnes indiquées dans la police primitive ; la part de chaque personne, lorsqu'il y en a plus d'une qui y a droit, est alors proportionnellement diminuée. 41-42 V., c. 13, s. 23.

Statuts revisés du Manitoba, 1892. Chap. 95.

Acte concernant les femmes mariées.

Sa Majesté, par et avec l'avis et le consentement de l'Assemblée législative du Manitoba, décrète ce qui suit :

* * * * * * *

* * * * * * *

26. Rien dans cet acte, relativement aux deniers déposés, ou aux placements faits par une femme mariée, ne rendra valide à l'encontre des créanciers du mari tout dépôt ou placement du mari fait par fraude de ces créanciers, et les deniers ainsi déposés et placés pourront être atteints comme si cet acte n'avait pas été passé.

51 VITORIA—CHAPITRE XII.

Acte pour refondre et modifier les divers actes qui constituent la cité de Charlottetown en corporation.

[Sanctionné le 28 avril 1888.]

* * * * * * *

Qu'il soit décrété par le lieutenant-gouverneur, le Conseil et l'Assemblée, comme suit :—

73. Toute compagnie ou association d'assurance sur la vie, maritime ou contre l'incendie, établie dans la cité de Charlottetown, ou y ayant une succursale, un agent ou des agences, sera cotisée quant à ses biens meubles et immeubles de la même manière que les autres contribuables de la cité de Charlottetown, et paiera en sus une licence annuelle de cinquante piastres chacune. Si la même compagnie ou association fait plus d'une branche d'affaires d'assurance, elle paiera une licence pour chaque branche d'affaires au taux susmentionné. Lorsque des compagnies d'assurance sont à liquider leurs affaires dans la cité de Charlottetown et qu'elles ne délivrent pas de nouvelles polices, elles seront exemptes de cette taxe ou licence additionnelle et elles ne seront cotisées que pour leurs biens meubles et immeubles

74. La dite taxe ou licence annuelle de chaque compagnie, association ou agence sera due et payable le premier jour de juin de chaque année, et l'agent ou le gérant de toute compagnie ou association qui n'a pas été constituée par la législature de la province de l'Ile du Prince-Edouard sera personnellement responsable de la licence payable par la compagnie ou l'association dont il est l'agent ou le gérant, ainsi que des taxes payables pour la cotisation de ces biens meubles et immeubles, comme s'il avait été cotisé personnellement, mais rien dans cette loi n'empêchera le percepteur municipal de la ville d'exiger le paiement de la licence et des taxes dues par une compagnie ou association en la manière ci-après stipulée.

75. La taxe ou la licence annuelle payable par une banque constituée en corporation ou par actions, par une compagnie ou association d'assurance sur la vie, d'assurances maritimes ou contre l'incendie, pourra être recouvrée à la demande et au nom du percepteur de la ville dans la cour municipale de la dite ville, ou dans toute autre cour ayant juridiction. PROVINCE DE LA COLOMBIE-BRITANNIQUE.

Assurances.

38. Une personne pourra, par écrit endossé sur une police d'assurance sur sa vie ou annexé à la dite police d'assurance qui pourra avoir été prise et délivrée avant l'adoption de cette loi, déclarer que telle police et telle assurance sera pour le bénéfice de son épouse, ou de son épouse et de ses enfants seulement, ou de quelqu'un d'eux, et partager l'argent de l'assurance selon qu'elle le jugera à propos, lorsque l'assurance est pour le bénéfice de plus d'un.

39. Rien dans cette acte ne sera interprété de façon à restreindre ou à gêner le droit d'une personne de prendre ou d'appliquer une police au bénéfice de son épouse ou de ses enfants tel que le permet aujourd'hui la loi, ou à restreindre ou à gêner toute action ou procédé pendant lors de l'adoption de cette loi, dans toute cour de droit ou d'équité.

Paiement des primes.

40. Toute personne qui s'assure avec profit pourra les appliquer soit au paiement des primes ou les faire ajouter à l'assurance payable à sa mort.

42. Si une personne qui a pris ou qui prendra une assurance aux termes de cette loi se trouve incapable de continuer les primes, elle pourra en faire abandon de la police à la compagnie qui l'aura émise, et accepter une police payée pour telle somme que les primes payées représenteront, payable à la mort, de la même manière que la police primitive ; et la compagnie pourra accepter, remettre et accorder telle police payée nonobstant toute déclaration ou instruction en faveur de l'épouse et des enfants, ou d'aucun d'eux, de l'assuré.

43. A la mort de la personne dont la vie est assurée, l'argent de l'assurance due sur la police sera payable selon les conditions de la police ou de la déclaration, tel que susdit, selon le cas, exempt des réclamations de tout créancier quelconque.

44. Lorsque dans la police ou la déclaration, tel que susdit, il n'y a pas de partage, tous les intéressés dans la dite assurance seront censés en faire un partage égal, et lorsque dans la police ou la déclaration il est dit que l'assurance est pour le bénéfice de l'épouse et des enfants généralement sans spécifier leurs noms, alors le mot "enfants" voudra dire tous les enfants de la personne dont la vie est assurée, vivants lors de sa mort, issus de tout autre mariage ou non.

1. Ce chapitre pourra être cité sous le nom de : " Acte concernant les biens des femmes mariées, 1884."

* * * * * * *

11. Une femme mariée de son chef ou du chef d'un fiduciaire pour elle, pourra pour son seul bénéfice, ou pour l'usage ou le bénéfice de ses enfants, ou d'elle-même et de ses enfants, assurer sa propre vie, ou, avec son consentement, la vie de son mari, pour une période définie, ou pour la durée de sa vie ou de la vie de son mari ; et la somme payable en vertu de cette licence sera pour le bénéfice unique et séparé de cette femme mariée ou de ses enfants, ou d'elle-même et de ses enfants, selon le cas, exempte de toutes réclamations des représentants de son mari ou d'aucun de ses créanciers.

12. Une police d'assurance prise par un homme marié sur sa propre vie, et qui à sa face déclare être pour le bénéfice de son épouse ou de son épouse et de ses enfants, ou d'aucun d'eux, subsistera et sera réputée un fidéicommis au bénéfice de son épouse pour son usage séparé, ou pour l'usage séparé de son épouse et de ses enfants, ou d'aucun d'eux, d'après la somme d'intérêt ainsi exprimée, et ne sera pas soumise, tant qu'un des objets du fidéicommis subsiste, au contrôle de son mari ou des créanciers de celui-ci, ou ne tombera pas dans sa succession.

Lorsque la police devient payable, ou en tout temps avant, un fiduciaire pourra être nommé par un juge, et le reçu de ce fiduciaire sera une décharge valable de l'assurance ; s'il est prouvé que la police a été prise et les primes payées par le mari dans l'intention de frauder ses créanciers, ils auront droit de recevoir à même du produit de la police une somme égale aux primes payées.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Liverpool, Angleterre, 29 janvier 1892.

Conformément à la convention, 17,000 actions dont £4 versées, ont été allouées aux actionnaires de la compagnie Universal, augmentant ainsi le capital de £68,000. La balance reçue de cette compagnie après avoir pourvu au compte du capital et payé toutes les dépenses est de £229,193 9s. 11d., que les directeurs ont transféré au compte de la réserve. Les directeurs ont de plus transféré £9,458 6s. 1d. du compte des profits et pertes à celui de la réserve, qui se chiffre maintenant par £600,000.

Les opérations de 1890 accusent un profit de £5,708 16s. 11d. A cette somme il faut ajouter le compte des intérêts de l'année 1891 et les profits sur les placements vendus, s'élevant à £45,727 19s. 7d. et £20,000 transférés des bénéfices annulés du compte spécial de réassurance. Ces sommes, jointes au solde de £156,788 3s. 10d. des opérations de l'an 1890, moins £9,458 6s. 1d., transférés comme ci-dessus, laissent au crédit du compte des profits et pertes la somme de £218,766 14s. 3d.

A même cette somme on a payé, le 1er juillet dernier, un dividende intérimaire de 8s. par action, et les directeurs proposent maintenant de payer un nouveau dividende de 8s. par action et un boni de 6s. par action, tous deux libres de la taxe sur le revenu, ce qui formera une distribution de 22s. par action, ou 27½ pour 100 pour l'année. Les directeurs recommandent qu'après avoir pourvu à la taxe sur le revenu, la balance des £143,752 16s. 9d. soit reportée au compte de l'an prochain.

Les primes reçues dans le cours de l'année 1891 se sont élevées à £553,624 3s. 6d. et les réclamations payées à £236,550 3s. 1d., laissant une balance nette, après déduction des dépenses, de £271,599 17s. 11d. au crédit du compte des assurances.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

DÉPARTEMENT DE L'INCENDIE.

Les comptes indiquent les résultats suivants:—

CALEDONIAN—Fin.

Les directeurs recommandent que sur la somme ci-dessus il soit déclaré un dividende de £1 3s. par action, libre de la taxe du revenu, payable en deux paiements égaux de 11s. 6d. par action, le 16 mai et le 11 novembre prochain. Ce dividende absorbera £24,725, laissant une balance de £13,703 6s. à reporter.

La compagnie, comme la majorité des autres bureaux, a passé une année défavorable pour ses opérations contre l'incendie. Dans les opérations faites aux Etats-Unis, la proportion des pertes, bien qu'élevée, est inférieure à celle d'un grand nombre d'autres compagnies durant la dernière année, et est presque semblable à la proportion du reste des opérations de la compagnie ; mais les dépenses aux Etats-Unis ont dépassé les prévisions. Depuis la fin de l'année, une députation du conseil de direction, a visité New-York et Philadelphie ; et comme résultat de cette visite, d'importants arrangements sont actuellement en voie de progrès, et amélioreront matériellement, comme l'espèrent les directeurs, la position de la compagnie aux Etats-Unis. Les pertes de 1890 ayant été exceptionnellement légères, et une forte balance ayant été reportée à l'année 1891, les directeurs ont pu recommander de continuer à payer le taux de dividende qu'ils avaient payé depuis plusieurs années.

L'émission de nouvelles actions de capital dont il a été parlé dans le dernier rapport, a été faite, mais les directeurs ont limité le nombre de nouvelles actions à 3,500. On verra que la prime reçue sur cette émission, à l'exception d'une vieille somme de £49 10s., a été portée au fonds de garantie. Le capital souscrit s'élève maintenant à £537,500, en 21,500 actions de £25, sur chacune desquelles il a été versé la somme de £5.

ÉTAT GÉNÉRAL DES AFFAIRES POUR L'EXERCICE FINISSANT LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, 9 mars 1892.)

Le solde du compte spécial est de £16,949 17s. 8d., ce qui devrait plus que suffire à payer les pertes qui résulteront probablement des obligations imputables sur ce compte. Le montant des primes reçues sur les opérations abandonnées durant l'année, a été porté, comme auparavant, à ce compte, ainsi que les pertes et la proportion des commissions et frais qui s'y rattachent.

Le compte des assurances contre l'incendie de 1890 est maintenant clos, et accuse un solde, de profit réalisé, de £2,192 9s. 1d., qui est porté au compte des profits et pertes.

Le compte des assurances contre l'incendie de 1891, accuse un solde de crédit de £51,582 15s. 0d. Le percentage des pertes sur ce compte est, jusqu'à présent, excessif, et est principalement attribuable aux résultats défavorables de la succursale de Boston, dans les Etats-Unis, et d'une partie des opérations sur le continent. En conséquence, vos directeurs ont décidé de discontinuer la première, et d'éliminer des secondes la partie qui ne rapporte pas de bénéfices. Avis a donc été donné de mettre cette décision à effet à compter du 31 décembre dernier.

Le compte des profits et pertes accuse un solde de profits réels de £13,397 10s. 8d., mais eu égard au chiffre des opérations récemment abandonnées et au fait que le solde de crédit du compte des assurances contre l'incendie de 1891 n'a pas été aussi considérable qu'on le juge nécessaire pour faire face aux risques non terminés, il est recommandé de reporter le montant total de ce solde.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'EXERCICE TERMINÉ LE 31 MARS 1892.

Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 1892.

Conformément à la politique indiquée dans le rapport de 1889, et approuvée par les actionnaires, les directeurs ont clos, en les réassurant, les opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie à partir du 1er juillet 1891. Cela a entraîné une dépense de £13,-469, qui a été prise sur les fonds de réserve contre les incendies, et les estimations pour les polices en cours ont été comprises dans le solde du compte de l'an dernier.

Les primes de l'année ont été de £248,643, contre £287,562 l'année précédente, réduction qui est principalement due au fait qu'on a discontinué d'entreprendre des risques contre l'incendie. Les pertes totales payées et à régler se sont élevées à £142,995.

Conformément à des résolutions spéciales des actionnaires, on a fait un appel de £50,000 de capital avec £25,000 de prime sur ce capital, laquelle prime a été portée au fonds de réserve générale, et est tenue séparément des autres réserves.

	£139,028	9	5

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 22 mars 1892.

Les primes nettes de l'année se sont élevées à £89,502, contre £87,385 l'année précédente, tandis que les pertes payées et à régler se sont chiffrées par £55,009, contre £56,001.

Les dépenses générales d'administration ont été presque semblables à celles de l'année précédente, mais grâce à l'augmentation du revenu des primes, il y a une petite réduction dans la proportion. En comprenant les commissions, la proportion des dépenses pour l'an dernier a été de 36·2 pour 100, comparée à 36·5 pour 1890 et et 38·7 en 1889.

On verra donc que les progrès sont constants, et bien que le résultat net n'est pas aussi considérable que les directeurs le désireraient, ils ont cependant lieu d'être satisfaits lorsqu'ils tiennent compte du fait que l'année qui vient de se terminer a été des plus défavorables pour les compagnies d'assurances contre l'incendie en général.

DÉPARTEMENT DE L'INCENDIE.

Les primes d'assurances contre l'incendie, après déduction faite des réassurances, ont atteint le chiffre de £579,283 19s. 4d., ce qui constitue une augmentation de £72,667 11s. 5d. sur l'année précédente, et les pertes se sont élevées à £331,800 18s. 4d., soit 57·28 pour 100 des primes. Les profits sur le compte des primes, après avoir ajouté £36,100 à la caisse du revenu des primes pour couvrir les risques en cours sur l'augmentation des opérations, s'élèvent à £19,182 12s., qui, ajoutés aux intérêts reçus et au profit sur un placement réalisé, portent le chiffre à £46,103 6s. 7d. Il faut inscrire au débit de cette somme £8,258 4s.10d. pour dépenses spéciales d'augmentation d'agences à l'étranger, et porter £8,000 à la caisse générale des incendies, laissant une balance de £29,845 1s. 9d., que les directeurs recommendent de porter au compte actionnaires. La caisse de réserve des primes pour la garantie des polices en cours sera de £292,700, et la caisse de réserve générale du département de l'incendie, £390,000, formant un chiffre total de £682,700, comparé à £638,600 l'année précédente.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES, JUSQU'AU 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Liverpool, Angleterre, 4 mai 1892.)

Les comptes ouverts lorsque la compagnie s'est chargée des opérations et de la liquidation de l'ancienne London and Provincial Fire Insurance Company ont été clos, et le total des frais d'acquisition de ces opérations est compris dans les états ci-joints.

Conformément à la résolution passée à l'assemblée générale spéciale tenue le 15 mai 1891, les directeurs ont réparti entre les actionnaires en juillet dernier, 7,737 actions additionnelles avec prime de £15 par action. Toutes ces actions ont été prises et ont eu pour résultat d'ajouter la somme de £116,055 au fonds général, et aussi d'augmenter le capital versé en argent, à £212,750.

Les primes nettes encaissées en 1891, déduction faite des primes de réassurance, se sont élevées à £801,615 18s. 11d., contre £702,346 12s. l'année précédente.

LONDON AND LANCASHIRE—Suite.

Les pertes nettes occasionnées par des incendies en 1891, y compris une somme suffisante pour couvrir toutes celles qui n'étaient pas définltivement établies lors de la clôture de ces comptes, s'élèvent à £448,425 12s. 3d.

Le résultat des opérations de l'année, après avoir tenu compte de toutes les commissions, dépenses, dettes véreuses, dépréciations et toutes autres dépenses, y compris l'intérêt sur les placements, etc., accuse un solde au crédit de la compagnie de £116,054 5s. 5d. En ajoutant cette somme au solde de sortie de compte de l'exercice précédent, £172,025 14s. 2d., il reste un solde disponible de £404,134 19s. 7d., moins le dividende intérimaire de 3s. par action, s'élevant à £11,604 9s., qui a été payé aux actionnaires en novembre dernier.

Les directeurs proposent d'augmenter le fonds de réserve et de réassurance de £450,000 à £600,000, en y transférant £150,000 à ce compte; de payer le 12 du mois prochain un nouveau dividende, libre de la taxe du revenu, de 7s. par action sur l'ancien capital versé, formant avec le dividende intérimaire, 20 pour 100 pour l'année; de plus un dividende de 3s. 6d. par action sur le nouveau capital versé. A l'avenir, tout ce capital sera sur le même pied pour les dividendes. Les dividendes qu'on propose de payer absorberont £28,431 0s. 6d., laissant une balance de £214,099 10s. 1d. à reporter au prochain compte. La situation financière de la compagnie sera alors comme suit:—

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1890.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Norwich, Angleterre, 2 juin 1891.)

Le revenu net des primes pour l'année terminée le 31 décembre 1889, s'est élevé à	£ 677,641 0 0
Le revenu net des primes pour 1890 s'élève à	748,347 0 0
Indiquant sur l'année précédente une augmentation de	£ 70,706 0

Après avoir mis de côté un tiers des primes (£249,449) comme réserve pour faire face aux polices non terminées, le solde au crédit du compte des profits et pertes, y compris la balance non affectée à d'autres comptes, £159,908, rapportée de l'an dernier, est de £197,643, sur lequel un dividende intérimaire de £2 par action a été payé en janvier dernier, et un nouveau dividende de £2 par action a été déclaré par le conseil, et sera payable le 4 juin.

Les directeurs ont décidé de déclarer de nouveau un boni de 10s. par action.

Les pertes de l'année ont été fortes, mais à l'exception de la conflagration à Salonica, aucune n'a été anormalement forte.

Les opérations aux Etats-Unis ont été très satisfaisantes.

La réduction de la valeur vénale des garanties à la fin de l'année et le montant réservé à cause de l'augmentation considérable des primes affectent nécessairement le solde disponible.

La balance indivise reportée au crédit du prochain exercice est de £137,143, et £10,000 sont ajoutés au fonds de réserve.

Le percentage des pertes aux primes est de 62·59, contre 63·03 en 1889, et 53·61 en 1888. Les frais d'administration, en allouant le montant inscrit au crédit de la succursale de New-York en 1889, sont à peu près semblables à ceux de l'année précédente.

DÉPARTEMENT DES INCENDIES.

Le chiffre total des primes encaissées a été de £235,266 12s. 4d., soit une augmentation de £92,019 8s. 0d., soit 64 pour 100 de plus que l'an dernier.

Les pertes (payées et à régler) se sont élevées à £143,709 6s. 6d., soit 61 pour 100 du revenu des primes, et la commission et les dépenses payées ont été de £78,567 5s. 11d., soit 33·4 pour 100 des primes. Après avoir payé les pertes et les dépenses il restait un excédant de £12,989 19s. 11d., qui a été porté au compte des profits et pertes.

Comparées à l'an dernier les pertes accusent une légère diminution dans le percentage sur le revenu des primes, et les dépenses une diminution d'un peu plus de trois pour cent. Les directeurs espèrent avec confiance qu'en développant encore les opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie, ils pourront encore réduire la proportion des dépenses.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Manchester, 4 avril 1892.)

Les primes nettes encaissées durant l'année se sont élevées à £357,426, soit £91,811 de plus qu'en 1890 mais cette augmentation s'étant surtout produite au commencement de l'année, les obligations en résultant se sont éteintes en proportion.

Les pertes par incendie ont été de £247,756, soit une augmentation de £71,389 sur l'année précédente, la proportion étant de $69\frac{3}{10}$ contre $66\frac{4}{10}$ en 1890.

Les commissions et frais d'exploitation sont dans la proportion de $31\frac{6}{10}$ des primes.

Comme les actionnaires le savent probablement, la compagnie fait de grandes opérations dans les Etats-Unis d'Amérique, où les résultats de l'an dernier ont été défavorables à cette compagnie et à la plus grande partie des autres compagnies intéressées.

On a fait dans ce pays une augmentation générale dans les taux où c'était nécessaire, et l'on espère avoir à l'avenir un profit raisonnable.

Le solde au crédit du compte des profits et pertes est de £16,510, y compris £7,002, le surplus de l'année, et les directeurs recommandent de payer un dividende au taux de 15 pour 100 pour le semestre finissant le 31 décembre 1891.

Les dividendes de l'année seront donc en moyenne de 10 pour 100, comme en 1890.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 2 mars 1892.)

NOUVELLES OPÉRATIONS.

Dans le cours de l'exercice la compagnie a reçu 1,484 demandes d'assurances s'élevant à £738,906. 1,228 polices ont été émises, couvrant £567,809, dont £72,600 ont été réassurés dans d'autres compagnies, faisant en nouvelles assurances £495,209

BRITISH EMPIRE—Suite.

RÉCLAMATIONS.

Trois cent soixante et six assurés sont décédés durant l'année. Le chiffre des réclamations d'indemnité résultant de 415 polices était de £127,932, y compris le boni de réversion. Les réclamations d'indemnités durant l'année provenaient de polices d'un assez fort montant; mais quant au nombre et au chiffre des assurances elles sont restées dans les limites de l'expectative, suivant les tables de mortalité de l'institut des actuaires.

RENTES VIAGÈRES.

Deux contrats de rentes viagères immédiates ont été accordés pour £27 12s 4d.' les primes uniques sur ces contrats ayant été de £257.

Neuf rentiers viagers, recevant £591 8s. 4d. par année, sont morts dans le cours de l'exercice.

INTÉRÊT.

Les fonds placés ont rapporté un intérêt excédant le taux de £4 7s. 6d. pour 100. Le taux que rapporte le total des fonds placés et non placés est de £4 5s. pour 100, déduction faite de la taxe du revenu.

DÉPENSES.

La réduction du montant dépensé pour les frais d'administration et les commissions annoncée dans les récents rapports s'est maintenue durant l'année, et on a effectué une nouvelle réduction dans la proportion, malgré les dépenses extraordinaires encourues pour l'évaluation et la distribution du boni.

REVENU DES PRIMES.

Le revenu total des primes (déduction faite des primes de réassurances) a été de £194,340.

FONDS.

Le total des fonds le 31 décembre 1891, s'élevait à £1,533,177, soit une augmentation de £32,451 durant l'année, après avoir payé aux membres un boni en argent s'élevant à £24,155.

POLICES EN VIGUEUR.

Les polices en vigueur le 31 décembre 1891, étaient de 20,576, assurant £6,250,000 (déduction faite des réassurances), y compris les additions de bonis.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE FINISSANT LE 31 MARS 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Edimbourg, Ecosse, 7 juillet 1891.)

Le nombre des polices émises a été de 1,140, et les sommes assurées de £601,854, dont £40,068 ont été réassusées dans d'autres compagnies. Les primes sur ces nouvelles polices se sont élevées à £27,168, dont £5,501 en primes uniques. Les primes sur la somme réassurée ont été de £2,988, y compris £1,092 en primes uniques.

Le chiffre net des nouvelles assurances gardées par la compagnie à ses propres risques s'est élevé à £561,786, rapportant en nouvelles primes £24,180, dont £4,409 en primes uniques. Ces chiffres indiquent une excellente augmentation sur les nouvelles opérations de l'an dernier.

Dans le cours de l'exercice 48 contrats de rentes viagères, s'élevant à £2,005 3s. 5d. par année, ont été entrepris. Le prix d'achat s'est élevé à £21,984 0s. 3d. D'un autre côté, par suite du décès de 12 rentiers viagers, la compagnie s'est trouvée libérée du paiement de £547 0s. 4d. par année.

Les intérêts et dividendes sur les fonds placés se sont élevés à £102,879 12s 5d. Le revenu total (à part le prix d'achat des rentes viagères) a été de £331,998 15s. 9d. En outre £797 5s. 3d. ont été reçus comme bénéfice sur les placements.

Les réclamations d'indemnités pour cause de mort ou de survivance se sont élevées à £192,433 16s. 6d., ce qui est beaucoup moins que la somme prévue par les tables.

La somme de £13,699 12s. a été allouée comme valeur de rachat des polices abandonnées, et comme additions de bonis sur polices en vigueur échangées contre des paiements en argent. Comme résultat des opérations de l'année les directeurs ont pu ajouter à la caisse des assurances et des rentes viagères la somme de £87,-902 5s. 7d., qui s'élèvent à £2,436,743 6s. 8d.

Les fonds accumulés de la compagnie, à part les sommes gardées pour faire face aux obligations, s'élèvent à £2,537,933 8s. 8d. à la fin de l'année.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'EXERCICE TERMINÉ LE 5 AVRIL 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Edimbourg, Ecosse, 21 juillet 1891.)

Le chiffre total des nouvelles opérations complétées et payées sur 1,781 polices, s'est élevé à la somme considérable de £1,004,340, rapportant en nouvelles primes £28,705, 18s. C'est la plus forte somme de nouvelles assurances complétées durant aucune année dans l'histoire de l'association, et dépasse de £81,457 la somme des nouvelles assurances rapportées l'an dernier. Les directeurs sont heureux de pouvoir dire que malgré l'augmentation du volume des nouvelles assurances les dépenses ont été de nouveau réduites et sont considérablement au-dessous de celles de l'année dernière.

Les décès survenus pendant l'année ont été de 583 contre 642, chiffre prévu, et pour lequel on s'était préparé. Le montant de polices terminées par le décès de l'assuré était de £251,240. En vertu d'assurances de dotations, 48 polices assurant £12,025 sont devenues échues par la survivance des vies jusqu'aux périodes fixées. 26 décès sont survenus parmi les rentiers viagers, libérant l'association du paiement annuel de £1,087.

Les fonds de l'association se sont augmentés de £177,160 durant l'année, malgré que la forte somme de £34,031 ait été payée durant l'année aux porteurs de polices sous forme de bonis en argent.

Le compte du revenu et du bilan annexés à ce rapport donnent de plus amples détails.

DÉPARTEMENT DES ASSURANCES SUR LA VIE.

Dans le cours de l'année de nouvelles assurances ont été demandées au montant de £655,797, sur lesquelles £580,186 ont été complétées, et le chiffre correspondant des primes annuelles, à la clôture des comptes, était de £21,034 8s. 1d. Les demandes auxquelles il n'a pas été donné suite s'élevaient à £53,065. Le revenu total des primes, déduction faite des réassurances, était de £269,549 0s. 11d., et l'intérêt provenant des placements, à part celui résultant de la caisse des rentes viagères, se chiffrait par £131,491 16s. 4d. Les réclamations d'indemnité se décomposent comme suit pour l'année :—

Additions de bonis sur ces sommes	29,931	3	7
Par dotations échues (y compris les dotations d'enfants) :—
Sommes originairement assurées	13,401	6	8
Additions de bonis sur ces polices	2,219	5	0
	£ 213,407	18	11

Dans le département des rentes viagères, le prix d'achat reçu pour les nouvelles rentes viagères, joint aux primes sur les rentes viagères éventuelles, s'élevait à £11,134 2s. 11d., et l'intérêt à £7,437 17s. 1d. Quarante-deux rentes viagères se sont éteintes durant l'année, libérant la compagnie du paiement annuel de £1,740 12s. 6d.

Après avoir payé toutes les réclamations d'indemnités, rentes viagères, bonis en argent et dépenses de toutes sortes, une solde de £113,203 3s. 11d. a été ajouté aux fonds des assurances sur la vie, formant pour les départements de la vie et des rentes viagères de la compagnie une accumulation de fonds de £3,586,317 9s. 8d.
